The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. EDWIN F. THOMPSON from the Committee on

City and County—First Class, reported as committed, House Bill No. 568, entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand eight hundred ninety-three (P. L. 129) entitled "An act to empower boroughs and cities to establish a police pension fund to take property in trust therefor and regulating and providing for the regulation of the same" by further prescribing for the management administration application and regulation of such fund in cities of the first class.

RESOLUTIONS

Mr. GEER offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. OLSEN and LUTTY offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 7, 1951.

Over three score and ten years ago there was born in Belgium a baby, Louis Leonard, destined to imprint his personality and vitality upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

As an immigrant boy, he sought employment in the coal mines where he learned first hand the hazards and the meager returns of a precarious vocation during the tragic era preceding the great reformation of employer-employee relations.

Actual contact with the deplorable working conditions of years ago and a painful intimacy with the perils and the uncertainties of mining coal became a fertile soil for the new ideas of trade unionism that were coming to the fore in the liberal thought concerning industrial conditions.

Mr. Leonard has proudly carried a union card for fifty-five years. He is a member of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers and served as their international Secretary-Treasurer. He also is personnel manager at The Flannery Manufacturing Company.

Resolved, That this House of Representatives extend to Mr. Louis Leonard its heartiest congratulations on his reaching his seventy-first milestone along the rugged path of life and its wish that the happy occasion will bring a shower of gifts and delitations from everyone, and be it further

Resolved, That this House of Representatives express its devout hope that political honors, prestige, continued health, increasing happiness and affluence will be his lot for many, many more years.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Leonard.

Mr. LOUIS LEONARD. Mr. Speaker, my age has nothing to do with my throat at the present time. I have heard the reading of the Resolution and I wish to thank my Allegheny County colleagues for presenting it and my friends in the House for adopting it.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to announce that the special order of business for the day, House Bill No. 1951, will be taken up after adjournment, at the American Legion Home, and hopes to see all the Members in attendance.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. MORAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, a few moments ago we voted on the Conference Committee report on Senate Bill 18. Probably I had a lapse of memory; I thought it was House Bill 18 which was defeated April 2. I thought somebody had resurrected it. However, I did not want to vote against the Conference Report; I wanted to vote for it. I would like to be accorded permission of the House as voting "aye" on the Conference Report on Senate Bill 18, Printer's No. 174.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread upon the Journal. For the information of the gentleman, the message has already been conveyed to the Senate.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. TOLL asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

SENATE

TUESDAY, May 8, 1951.

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HARWOOD C. BOWMAN, JR., Pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Kittanning, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Observing the affairs of this Senate as your Chaplain, I have come to the same belief held by William Penn, who said, "Government seems to me a part of religion itself, a thing sacred in its institution and its end, and if it does not directly remove the cause, it crushes the effect of evil, but that is only the evil doers. Government itself being otherwise as capable of kindness, goodness and charity as a more private society. They weakly err that think there is no other use of government than correction, which is the coarsest part of it. Daily experience tells us that care and regulation of many other affairs more soft and daily necessary make up the greatest part of government." With this in mind, let us pray.

Almighty God, Who in Thy love ever toileth for us in making Pennsylvania our home and Who didst send Thy Son to be a public servant, grant that we may preserve the dignity of political service. When we are weary, comfort us with the remembrance that we have not shirked, when we are ill rewarded, keep us from bitterness and keep us ever mindful that in serving the individual citizen, our respective districts and our State as a whole, we are also serving Thee. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. MALLERY, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

REPUBLICAN LADIES FROM DELAWARE COUNTY PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, it gives me a great deal of pleasure today to introduce to this wonderful body here a group of thirty-seven Republican ladies from Delaware County. These ladies are great friends of mine, naturally, for I would not have been here if it had not been for the ladies, and I would like to emphasize that they are my personal friends. These ladies also are accompanied by Mrs. Mary Talbot, of Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, and also, I should say, that they are the guests of Mrs. Eleanor Evans, our Secretary of Public Assistance.

It gives me a great deal of pleasure, and I hope they will come to see us again.

The PRESIDENT. Will the guests of Senator Watkins please rise in place and take a bow?

REMARKS OF THE MINORITY FLOOR LEADER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to thank the gentleman for introducing thirty-seven Republican women at one time. Coming from Westmoreland County, we never see that many Republican women at one time.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. BYRNE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 614, entitled:

An act to amend Section 9 of the act, approved the twenty-sixth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1828), entitled "An act concerning the investment powers and duties of guardians, committees, trustees, and other fiduciaries, except personal representatives, and prescribing the nature and kind of investments which may be made and retained by such fiduciaries," by making full paid stock of building and loan associations incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania legal for investment of funds of fiduciaries.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. ROBINSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. ROBINSON. This bill is designed to protect the Commonwealth, its roads and its people, against overloaded vehicles, and to give Pennsylvania business efficient highway transportation.

This bill doesn't increase the maximum gross weight for trucks. It doesn't increase the length, height, or width of trucks. It doesn't raise the maximum load now permitted on any one truck axle.

What this bill does is this:

First, it takes the profit out of overloading with a penalty clause which hits the owner of an overloaded truck with a heavy fine, and impounds the overloaded vehicle until the fine is paid. A fine is also placed on the owner who permits a single axle to be loaded beyond the 20,000 pound maximum, a feature which does not exist in the present law.

Next, it looks after the safety and convenience of other highway users by requiring that a truck be able to make a reasonable uphill speed, and that it be equipped with brakes which provide a square inch of brake surface for every 55 pounds of weight.

Third, it increases the trucks' share of highway costs by raising the price of their license plates.

Fourth, it permits industry, agriculture, commerce and the national defense, to get maximum service out of existing trucks by giving dump trucks, coal trucks, concrete mixers, and the like, the right to carry such loads as the 20,000 pound axle load now in effect would permit; and by allowing single and tandem axle semi-trailers to carry loads more nearly in line with their capacities—still within the 20,000 pound axle load limitations. The semi-trailer with one rear axle will, under this bill, thus be permitted to carry a 48,000 pound gross load, instead of the 45,000 pounds now allowed, and the semi-trailer with two rear axles in tandem, will be permitted a gross of 60,000 pounds. This is a full ton under the 62,000 pound maximum now set by Pennsylvania law.

Fifth, Pennsylvania industry will be facilitated by bringing Pennsylvania more nearly in line with the weight limits of the surrounding states, although most nearby states have axle load provisions in excess of Pennsylvania's.

We feel that this bill will help to bring order out of the chaotic motor truck weight situation, correct certain conflicts in the existing laws of this State, and give Pennsylvania and the nation a better motor transportation system for the national defense.

On behalf of my colleague, Senator Dent, and myself, I read in place and present to the Chair the following bill.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. ROBINSON AND DENT read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 615, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways, of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds;" by increasing annual registration fees for certain commercial motor vehicles, truck tractors, trailers and semi-trailers; prescribing additional equipment requirements for certain vehicles; increasing the maximum gross weights and axle loads allowed for certain vehicles; changing the requirements for weighing vehicles and removal of excess loads; and prescribing and changing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. KEPHART asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, early in the Session, Senate Bills 73 and 75 were introduced concerning adoption, and came to the Committee on Judiciary General. Since that time I have been deluged with mail criticizing the Committee and me in particular for undemocratic, autocratic, highhanded, arbitrary action in not doing anything on those bills. As a matter of fact, very shortly after their introduction we held a meeting on those bills and they were considered at a subsequent meeting two weeks later. We spent the whole period of time discussing those bills and hearing arguments from the sponsors of the bills. At a later date, two weeks after that, Judge Cox, who is a former member of this body, was given permission to address the Committee and did so for over an hour, and shortly after that the Committee met and decided that something should be done to amend the adoption laws, but that we did not wish to establish and set up a new bureau in the Department of Welfare, which the Secretary of Welfare estimates would cost a million and a half dollars per biennium, and upwards, and that the evils that we felt existed in the adoption system could be cured by a much less expensive method.

As a result, a subcommittee was appointed and that subcommittee has been working since that time, and this bill that I now introduce, on behalf of Senator Meade, Senator Barr and myself, is the result of the study and work of that subcommittee, and the accusations of the people that nothing has been done are wholly unfounded.

Mr. President, I read in place, on behalf of Senator Meade, Senator Barr and myself, the following bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. KEPHART, MEADE and BARR read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 616, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the fourth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 127), entitled "An act relating to Adoption," by reducing the period during which an abandonment must have existed; eliminating certain consents necessary to an adoption; empowering orphans' courts and in counties of the first class municipal courts to establish investigative staffs with respect to adoptions; requiring all persons, societies, agencies, institutions or similar organizations or corporations receiving or placing children for adoption to make certain reports to the court; conferring jurisdiction upon orphans' courts, and in counties of the first class municipal courts, to determine the custody of certain children; providing for acknowledgments, judicial determination and consents relating to paternity and fixing the status of the parties concerned; prohibiting the receipt of compensation for the placement of children for adoption and prescribing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

An Act providing for automatic promotion of members of the Pennsylvania State Police.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, yesterday we had in the Senate Caucus Room a hearing by the Senate Finance Committee. There we heard the spokesman for the manufacturers, who by the way does not speak for the majority of the manufacturers in the State, and it seems to me that in a great deal of his talk he was speaking as a National Committeeman of the Republican Party, and we heard a Democrat, Mr. Greenfield, representing the Chamber of Commerce of Philadelphia. Both of these men were in accord in one thing, that the estimates of the Budget were underestimated and considerably so. Unfortunately, the Committee could not be reached over the week end, and other people wished to appear at this hearing and give their advice. Among these was Mr. Price, President of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, and David J. McDonald, Secretary-Treasurer of the United Steel Workers of America.

Mr. President, I have been asked by Mr. McDonald to read to the Senate today his statement regarding increasing the taxes and after careful study that he had with some of the manufacturer's, these are his suggestions on how to avoid this extra tax at this Session.

I now quote from Mr. McDonald's statement which was supposed to be presented to the Finance Committee:

"For anyone to appear before this Committee and state he was given an accurate picture of the financial affairs of our great Commonwealth would be a falsehood. The same would be true of any member of the General Assembly or any representative of business, the Chamber of Commerce, or a representative of any other group of taxpayers, for he can only give a cursory opinion of the financial conditions of the State government.

"However, in a study of published reports of the financial conditions of corporations, for the past several years, they show a healthy and substantial growth in their earnings as well as the market values of their securities.

"This increase in the income and the value growth of our corporations is somewhat higher on the average than the increase reflected in the budget estimates from Corporate Net Income Tax and the taxes on Capital Stock, both for the biennium of 1951 to 1953 and that of the previous biennium. I am not going to take any more of your time than is necessary, but I am going to cite figures to prove this point.

"Point 1. In the Economic Report made by the President of the United States in January of this year, the President stated, among other things, pertaining to the economic strength of the nation, the following, and I quote from page 24 of that document:

"Profits of American business, before taxes, exceeded all records in 1950 reaching 40.2 billion dollars or 46% above the level of 1949. They attained a peak annual rate of 48.0 billion dollars in the 4th quarter. The previous peak rate was 35.3 billion in the 3rd quarter of 1948. The higher profits reflected increased output, greater sales and higher prices."

"Point 2. I now quote from the April 19th, 1951 issue of the Wall Street Journal regarding the net income report by about a dozen corporations for the 1st quarter of 1951—and these figures mind you are after all taxes—local, State and Federal. This appears on page 1 of that paper:

"EARNINGS—

Quarter, Feb. 28	Net Income 1951	Net Income 1950
Douglas Aircraft Co.	$ 1,681,581	$ 931,319
Quarter, March 31
America Airlines, Inc.	2,914,610	1,331,285
Chesapeake & Ohio Rwy.	6,831,000	961,374
Conde Nash Publications	691,000	607,085
Driver-Harris Co.	230,737	94,608
Eaton Mfg. Co.	3,286,257	2,776,869
Gamble-Skogmo, Inc.	1,115,749	240,190
Gillette Safety Razor	4,473,917	3,725,963
Johns-Manville Corp.	6,292,995	3,928,551
Udylite Corp.	569,348	272,987
Westinghouse Electric	16,692,898	11,890,377

"Point 3. Now, as to the rise of market value of corporate stocks which is a substantial factor in determining the base of the tax on capital stock—let me again quote from the Wall Street Journal of April 19, 1951. On page 17 of that paper the following were the closing average prices known as the Dow and Jones Averages:

"For industrial companies the averages were as follows:

	High	Low
1946	$212.50	$163.12
1947	186.85	163.21
1948	193.16	165.39
1949	200.52	161.60
1950	235.47	196.81
1951 (First Quarter)	256.18	238.99

And as of today this average is running at about $263.00

"For railroad stock averages, the rise seems about the same as for industrials. In 1946 the low was $44.69 and the high was $68.31, while in 1951 the low is running at $78.36 and the high at $90.08.

"I have furnished these figures for you to use in your deliberations to secure an estimate on what the Corporate Net Income for the 51-53 Biennium, as well as what the income on the Capital Stock Tax will be.

"To bring this closer home, I want to give you an example as to what this means in actual tax monies as paid by corporations in our own Commonwealth. I have secured from one of our steel corporations what they have paid to the State on Capital Stock Tax as well as the tax on the Corporate Net Income. I believe these figures will convince you that you should have a very large surplus on May 31st when your fiscal year ends from the returns from both of these taxes.

Year	Capital Stock Tax	Net Income Corporate Tax
1946	$100,969	361,294
1947	558,151	442,047
1948	510,540	681,176
1950	558,062	1,250,000

"This bears out the figures I have been trying to give you based on the Economic Report of the Federal Government, and the Wall Street Journal Report. In other words, in 1950 this steel corporation will pay 137% more in Corporate Net Income Tax than it paid in 1949. Gentlemen, I think you will agree with me that income derived from Corporate Net Income this year will provide this State with a very substantial surplus. Although the Capital Stock Tax will not be as great a surplus; it still will amount to a fair size figure. This increase of 137% which I quoted will be about the same throughout all the steel industry of our State and shall be reflected in the corporate net profits in both big and small diversified industries.

"Gentlemen, in my capacity as Secretary and Treasurer of the United Steelworkers, I am in close touch with the industrial life of Pennsylvania. With the increased production and the letting of large governmental orders for military purposes, you can rest assured that your Corporate Net Income Tax for the biennium 51-53 shall again double what it was in this biennium just closed. This is not merely my prediction, but also that of the official of the steel corporation from whom I secured the above figures of their taxes paid.

"I have tried my best to pick out two taxes to use as an example of what could be expected in increases of income to the State. But these increases also hold good in all other taxes. Pennsylvania is going to enjoy the greatest employment era that we have seen for some time within the next two years. Gross Receipts of Utilities should go up as their rates have gone up; the Cigarette Tax, the Liquor Tax shall show an increase; the Malt Beverage Tax will also show an increase; for with full employment comes greater spending.

"Gentlemen, you have now been in Session since early in January. A few more months does not mean very much in comparison to the time you have already spent here, and I am not saying this in a spirit of criticism, for I realize you have been divided regarding this tax problem, but I do believe that the General Assembly is in no position to pass on a budget or a tax program without first having the expert opinion of one who is familiar with the economic conditions of the times as well as the running of the State government, and I am going to suggest to you for, I hope, your favorable consideration, that you secure the services of some outside corporation that will not only study taxes, but also study and make audits of the gigantic corporation that you are serving as Board of Directors.

"No business corporation would conduct business without having audits made by outside auditors from time to time. I have been informed that no audit has been made of State government affairs since 1927 under Governor Fisher. At this time the Main and Company made a thorough check on government expenditures. The budget in 1929 was only $267,394,643.87 and today your budget is $1,400,000,000.00—not mentioning another half billion that the State guarantees in General Authority expenditures. This is about 500% more than it was when the last private audit was made. Do you not think that if a careful audit were made by a responsible corporation you would regain some of the confidences of the people in State government? I need not tell you Gentlemen that confidence in government today—on all levels—is at a new low and there is only one way that confidence can be regained—that is by you Gentlemen making the public a partner in this great enterprise of government.

"I am one who believes that men elected to public office are willing to do as good a job as they can do. I am firmly convinced that if this Session of the Legislature shall agree first to engage the services of certified public accountants who will start in immediately to examine and investigate each department, and second to start immediately to study the economic trends of the times, securing the best information that can be had in business index from the sources available, that you will find no new taxes are necessary. The increases from the present taxes shall more than meet every commitment made by your General Assembly and you will be able to carry out all the programs you have started. Men seeking public office speak a great deal about securing efficiency and economy in government. You can regain the confidence of the people if you put into action the many promises along these lines that have been made in campaign speeches.

"I want to sincerely thank you Gentlemen for giving me the opportunity of appearing before your Committee and being able to express my views on our fiscal policy."

Unfortunately, he was unable to add this last paragraph as he did not appear.

Mr. President, I will see that a copy of this presentment is put into each of the boxes of the Senators, and I hope that they will make a careful study of these figures before next Monday.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I received a letter from an old gent that is on Public Assistance from up in Coalport, Pennsylvania. This letter to me is dated April 4, 1951, and he enclosed in that letter a newspaper clipping dated May 2, 1951, that discusses the relief situation, the Joint State Government Commission Report, bills introduced by Senator Hare and myself, as well as the report of the American Association of Social Workers. There are a couple of paragraphs quoted here from the report of the Social Workers which reads as follows:

"The rate of turnover among Public Assistance Staff Workers, whose primary responsibility is the determining of eligibility, is so high as to impair seriously the efficient and economic operation of the program. Regardless of how qualified or how well trained staff members may be, it can hardly be expected that the Public Assistance Program can be efficiently conducted when seventy-eight per cent of the visitors have less than two years experience."

Mr. President, I want to disagree with the report of the American Association of Social Workers, and in my opinion I do not believe that the turnover of the personnel in the Department of Public Assistance would reflect the sixteen million dollar overpayment to relief chislers on the Public Assistance rolls.

Mr. President, one of the primary reasons, as I stated in my previous remarks, for the inability of the visitors to perform the duties for which they were employed is the fact that they are burdened with too much paper work and too many rules of eligibility developed from time to time by the bureaucrats in the Department of Public Assistance. I call your attention to the fact that on page 103 of the Report of the Joint State Government Commission, we have the rules of eligibility in brief and concise form in connection with general assistance, old age assistance, aid to dependent children and aid to the permanently and totally disabled. Those rules of eligibility are on one page here (indicating), but this (indicating) is what the bureaucrats developed from that one page and I show it to you here, and the title of this book is "Rules and Regulations for Determining Eligibility for Assistance and Making Payments." How on earth can any visitor absorb all of this? I understand that from day to day they get changes in these rules and regulations made by those bureaucrats over in the Department of Public Assistance, and I might add there are twenty-nine bureaus over these, twenty-nine, each developing rules of eligibility; they send these on to the county offices and these visitors have got to take one page out and put another page in, and they have got to famaliarize themselves with the changes. Certainly, if they are burdened with all this paper work, they cannot make their regular visits and it is no wonder that I learned from several visitors that they are now making the rounds for September. In other words, they have not made a visit for a period of five or six months.

Mr. President, with reference to the two year period for training personnel, I can say from my own experience that if these rules and regulations were cut down to brief, concise form, it should not take more than one month to train any visitor, and any high school boy with some good common sense would make a first class visitor. This idea of two years training is a lot of hokum; they are just looking for an "out" for their negligence and for permitting the Commonwealth to be robbed of sixteen million or more dollars, and I say here and now that if the new Secretary of Public Assistance will ge rid of some of those bureaus over there, re-organize the Department, cut down this procedure and eliminate the paper work for the visitors, they will be able to do a good, first class job. I want to say, too, at this time, Mr. President, that I am not opposed to relief to those who are entitled to it, to the blind, to the disabled, to the aged and to others entitled to it, but I certainly am opposed to giving relief, giving public assistance, State money, the taxpayers' money to lazy people who do not want to work.

Mr. President, I also want to say at this time that my remarks are not directed at Mrs. Evans, as some people think they are. She was appointed by the Governor, she was confirmed by the Senate, and I believe in giving everybody an opportunity to show what they can do. I believe she is trying to do a good job, and I think that with the help of this Legislature she will do a good job.

Mr. President, in that connection I present the following resolution and move its immediate adoption:

RESOLUTIONS

REQUESTING THAT THE SECRETARY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE REVIEW THE RULES AND REGULATIONS WITH A VIEW OF REDUCING SAME

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, May 8, 1951.

Whereas, The visitors of the Department of Public Assistance are unable to discharge the obligations of their office with dispatch and thoroughness because of the repeated changes in the rules for eligibility,

Whereas, The paper work necessitated by said changes in the rules for eligibility has become burdensome to such an extent that the visitors of the Department of Public Assistance are needlessly delayed in making investigations as to eligibility for assistance; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Department of Public Assistance be directed to review the rules and the regulations for determining eligibility with a view to reducing said rules and regulations to a simple and concise procedure, to eliminating a large portion of the paper work now required of the visitors, and to limiting assistance payments to those lawfully entitled thereto.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

APPRECIATION OF THE SENATE EXTENDED TO THE HONORABLE OSCAR L. CHAPMAN, SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR, IN APPEARING BEFORE SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE INDEPENDENCE HALL MALL

Messrs. CHAPMAN, MEADE and STIEFEL offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 8, 1951.

Whereas, The Independence National Historical Park in Philadelphia is a project of the National Park Service of the Department of the Interior of the United States conceived as a means of reclaiming some of the neighborhood of the old State House now a decaying commercial area as well as conserving such historic buildings located therein as the First Bank of the United States, the Merchants' Exchange, the Bishop White and Dilworth-Todd-Moylan Houses and the Old Custom House, and

Whereas, The custody (but not title) of Independence Hall, together with Congress Hall, the old City Hall and the Square was transferred in January, 1951, by the City of Philadelphia to the National Park Service, and

Whereas, The Congress of the United States appropriated in 1948 and 1949 initial sums of money and authorized contracts to the extent of about four million dollars for the purchase of land supplementing same in 1951 with appropriations now pending in Congress, and

Whereas, The Honorable Oscar L. Chapman, Secretary of the Interior, pursuant to an invitation extended to him by the Joint State Government Commission of Pennsylvania, appeared in Harrisburg before its sub-committee on the Independence Hall Mall on Tuesday, May 1, 1951, to delineate the progress of the work at the Independence National Historical Park, and

Whereas, The information thus gathered by the sub-committee on the Independence Hall Mall will be of great value in the preparation of its report pertaining to the acceleration of the completion of the Independence Hall Mall, now therefore

Be It Resolved, That the Senate of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania express its appreciation to Honorable Oscar L. Chapman, Secretary of the Interior, for his cooperation in appearing before the sub-committee on the Independence Hall Mall of the Joint State Government Commission and offering thereto valuable, helpful and informative material; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be, and he is hereby directed to forward a copy of the instant resolution to Honorable Oscar L. Chapman, United States Secretary of the Interior.

FORMER SENATOR WILLIAM B. ROGERS PRESENTED TO SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has been advised that a distinguished former member of this body, representing the Fortieth Senatorial District, the Honorable William B. Rodgers, is present. Will he please rise and take a bow?

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. MEADE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MEADE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 628, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section ten, article one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by limiting the prohibition on proceeding by information to certain cases.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. WATSON from the Committee on Executive Nominations reported with a favorable recommendation the following nomination, made by His Excellency, the Governor:

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. CROWE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

INTERROGATION

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the distinguished Chairman of the Committee on Executive Nominations, Senator Watson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Watson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATSON. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. Senator Watson, on two previous occasions I had asked you whether the Governor's Secretary, Mr. McCallum, had delivered to you answers to questions submitted to Milo F. Draemel, Secretary of Forests and Waters, and your answers were in the negative. I ask you now, did the Governor's Secretary deliver that data to you?

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, Admiral Draemel delivered it to me.

Mr. YOSKO. Have you read the answers?

Mr. WATSON. I have not, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. Will you submit the data to the Committee on Executive Nominations?

Mr. WATSON. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. When will that Committee meet?

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, tomorrow morning at 10:45.

Mr. YOSKO. Thank you very much, Mr. President.

Section 3 The effect of the order of the Court of Common Pleas shall be as follows

* * * * *

(c) The recorder of deeds shall [not] receive for recording any deed mortgage or other instrument that shall refer to a specific parcel of real estate [unless] whether or not said deed mortgage or other instrument shall bear the certification by the custodian of the lot and block system that the lot and block system descriptive numbers incorporated in the description of the real estate described therein are correct but before transcribing any such deed mortgage or other instrument lacking the certification he shall obtain the same from the custodian of the lot and block system

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not like to get up and talk against a bill of a friend of mine, namely, Mr. Cooper, from the House, but here in the Senate we do pass a lot of bills for lawyers, and this is a new type of bill by which you are going to make one man the errand man for all lawyers in Allegheny County.

Mr. President, back in 1945, the General Assembly of Pennsylvania passed an act providing for the establishment in counties of the second class of what is known as the lot and block system for the registration of land titles. The reason for this bill at that time was to eliminate what is known in many recorders' offices as bad descriptions of parcels of real estate. So, under the system devised under that bill, when you were going to register a parcel in the recorder of deeds office, you first had to go to the lot and block office and have there the lot and block number put on the paper, and then take it to the Recorder of Deeds Office and register it. Under this bill as it is before us today, the system is reversed. You will go to the Recorders Office and there have your parcel recorded, and then it is up to the Recorder of Deeds to do the job the lawyer is being paid for, to go to the lot and block office and have the lot and block number put on. Well, that part may not be too bad, but the main crux of this situation is this: That the description in the parcel as he takes it to the Recorders Office may be different than that on the lot and block number as filed in the lot and block office.

Mr. President, we have spent in the County of Allegheny over one million dollars in establishing this lot and block system. This money is just being put down through the drain by the passage of this bill, because the reason for the establishment of the lot and block system was to get the correct description of these pieces of real estate in the city and in the County of Allegheny. Now, we are reversing ourselves, and if there is a bad description in the paper that the lawyer takes to the Recorders Office, it cannot be caught because he will record it and then the lot and block number will be put on the same recording.

Mr. President, I know that lawyers have very busy days, but I do not think that the Recorder of Deeds of Allegheny County was elected as the leg man for all the lawyers of the Bar of Allegheny County, and I may add, Mr. President, since the time that this bill has been passed over in the House, that I notice that the sponsor of this bill has now announced himself as a candidate on the Republican ticket for the office of Recorder of Deeds. If perchance he should be elected, I bet he will be back here two years from now asking that this bill be repealed, because I know he does not want to be the leg man for every lawyer in Allegheny County, and I will ask that my colleagues vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, my very distinguished colleague is in error on two points, and if I might take them in reverse order, I know it will clarify his thinking just a bit.

Mr. President, in the first place, the sponsor of this bill has not announced himself as a candidate for Recorder of Deeds. He has announced himself as a county candidate for Register of Wills. In that, the gentleman is in error.

Mr. President, secondly this proposed bill which was in the House, and which was very carefully considered there, and which passed the House by a vote of two hundred seven to nothing, will not affect the lot and block system which has been so successfully operated by the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Allegheny County. It is a change in the procedure which, in the opinion of the experts in this recording system, will add to the efficiency of the operation of a lot and block system. It will not destroy it in the least. I want to assure the gentleman from Allegheny that this will not pour down the drain the money that the County Commissioners have put in, and may I say to the gentleman from Allegheny, in the vein of the collateral discussion on House Bill No. 14, that those of us who are interested in efficiency in government certainly would not want to pour a million dollars of the county's money down the drain because who can tell who might be responsible for it come November?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Oakmont, Senator Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. It is always a pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Senator Walker, did I understand you to say that the lot and block system is under the Recorder of Deeds office?

Mr. WALKER. No, I said that the lot and block system as instituted in Allegheny County—

Mr. BARR. Is under the Recorder of Deeds office?

Mr. WALKER. I am sorry, I do not know what you mean.

Mr. BARR. You said in your discussion that the lot and block system was under the Recorder of Deeds office. I want to tell you that you are grossly in error.

Mr. WALKER. I am sorry, Mr. President, if I inadvertently confused the gentleman, but as I understand it the lot and block system is not under the office of the Recorder of Deeds. If I am in error, the gentleman will please correct me.

Mr. BARR. In your discussion, you so stated in error, and I want to tell you it is in the County Controllers Office. Senator Walker, as a lawyer I think you can answer this very quickly. When you take a paper to the Recorders Office to have recorded a parcel of real estate, you also take a description of the piece of property, is that not correct?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I do not want to suddenly go high hat on the gentleman, but I have been a Member of the Bar for twenty-five years and after you have been a Member of the Bar for twenty years, you do not take deeds to the Recorder of Deeds Office. You send them.

Mr. BARR. Senator Walker, let me put it this way, your errand boy takes the deed to the Recorders Office, and in that there is a description of the piece of real estate. Is that correct?

Mr. WALKER. That is right, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Then, the deed is recorded and the number is put on. Is that correct?

Mr. WALKER. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Then, under this bill, the Recorder would take it to the lot and block office which is in the County Controllers Office and there the lot and block number would be put on the same paper. Is that right?

Mr. WALKER. Well now, Mr. President, if we can refer to the bill—my memory is very short—before the bill is transcribed, as set forth in the amendment on page 4, if the certification is not placed on by the custodian of the lot and block system, then before it can be transcribed, the certification must be obtained from the custodian before it is transcribed.

Mr. BARR. Well, you certainly have made another point for me in your discussion. You are agreeing with me when I say that the description that errand boy took to the Recorders Office could be different than the description in the lot and block office.

Mr. WALKER. What the gentleman is talking about is, what he is objecting to, as I gather from his remarks, he is objecting to the fact that the bill will be permitted to be recorded without the certification of the lot and block number by the custodian, and he is objecting to the fact that the recorder of deeds, before transcription, must make certain that the certification of the lot and block member has been placed there.

Mr. BARR. That is right, Mr. President.

Now, let us revert back to the bill on page 3, section 1, line 17. Let us read the bill as it was originally. The original bill as passed says, "The Recorder of Deeds shall not receive for recording any deed mortgage or other instrument that shall refer to a specific parcel of real estate unless said deed, mortgage or other instrument shall bear the certification by the custodian of the lot and block system." Is that correct?

Mr. WALKER. That is right, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Now, we are just reversing ourselves with this bill. You are taking your paper and having it recorded in the Recorder of Deeds Office, and you may have a faulty description, and then the recorder has to take it over to the custodian of the lot and block system in the controllers office and have the number put on it, and that description probably will not be the same, in many cases, as the paper that you took originally to the Recorder of Deeds Office.

Mr. WALKER. That does not necessarily follow, Senator. What the amendment does is, it permits the Recorder of Deeds to receive the deed or mortgage without the lot and block number on it by the custodian, but before he can transcribe it, it must be affixed thereto.

Mr. BARR. All right, one more question. Will you agree with me that this is strictly a lawyer's bill?

Mr. WALKER. Well now, Mr. President, I would not want to say that. After all, I can only speak for one lawyer. I have no idea as to what lawyer's bill really is as distinguished from a farmer's bill, or a real estate insurance bill or a general insurance office bill or a political bill.

Mr. BARR. Thank you, Senator Walker.

Mr. President, my attention was brought to this bill by the County Commissioners of Allegheny County, who wrote me and said that this will be reversing the situation, and the money that has been spent on the lot and block system has just been spent in error if we pass this bill. If I was a lawyer, and not as successful as John, I would probably be for this bill. I would close my eyes to what it is doing to the county. This bill is simply making—although each lawyer gets a fee for every paper he files, you are simply making the Recorder of Deeds the leg man for all the lawyers of the county bar association.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr?

Mr. BARR. Certainly, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to inquire from the gentleman when he received this communication from the County Commissioners of Allegheny?

Mr. BARR. I would say well over a month ago.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I direct the gentleman's attention to the fact that the bill has been in the Committee on Local Government since February 13, and has been on the Senate calendar since May 1. I would like to ask the gentleman, did he discuss this objection with the Committee on Local Government when they were considering the bill or with the sponsor of the bill who is a member of the House?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I was in the Local Government Committee meeting and left that Committee—if you will just give me a minute I will remember what committee I went to, because at the meeting was Senator Fleming from our County and Senator Barrett. Then I went to another committee meeting, and if you will just give me a minute, I will be able to remember. I think it was the Finance Committee meeting last week. It was rather important that I be there, so this bill was brought out after that time.

Mr. President, I am not going to make any more of an issue. I will just ask the fellows on our side to vote against the bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Berger,	Hare,	Meade,	Stevenson,
Blass,	Kephart,	Pechan,	Wade,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 51, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 5 of the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1358), entitled "An act relating to chattel mortgages on any chattel or chattels of any kind or description, including, but not limited to, livestock, poultry, farm machinery, farm equipment and crops, grown, growing or to be grown; designating the operation and effect of the lien of such mortgages; providing for the filing, indexing and docketing of such mortgages and related instruments in prothonotaries' offices; and prescribing prothonotaries' fees; providing for the filing in Pennsylvania of similar lien instruments originally filed or recorded in other states; regulating the assignment, release, satisfaction and extension of the lien of such mortgages; prescribing methods of foreclosure; defining defaults and violations; and fixing penalties," by providing for postponement of the lien and operation of chattel mortgages in certain cases.

Mr. BLASS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the affirmative.)

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 231, as follows:

An Act relating to mental health including mental illness mental defect epilepsy and inebriety and amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto

Section 1002 General Repeal

All other acts and parts of acts in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time,
And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, look on page 27 before I start?

On page 27, line 18, paragraph A, reads as follows:

"The superintendent of every State institution shall be a physician with training or experience or both in the care of patients. In institutions for the care of female patients the superintendent shall be a woman."

Does that imply that a woman shall also be a physician?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, May I say to the gentleman from Cambria that this bill, House Bill No. 231, is a codification of the laws as they now appear on the statute books. The mental health laws were gathered together and put into this code, which is represented by House Bill No. 231, for the purpose of effecting immediate amendments to it. If this bill is passed and sent over to the Governor for signature, and if the Governor signs the bill, it will not change the existing law one iota. This is the law as it is today.

Now the purpose of this, Mr. President, is to permit the immediate introduction of a number of amendments to the mental health code. The easiest way to do it is to amend this code so that we keep all of the mental health laws in one statute. It would be difficult to amend over and over and over the various bills that have been spread on the statute books through several generations, and it was thought more expeditious to do it this way in order to have the amendments handled easier.

Now, I am advised, Mr. President, that there are forty some amendments that are already introduced which will change this, and I am also advised, Mr. President, and I know the gentleman from Cambria will be interested, this particular phrase which he just read will be subject of one of the amendments that will come over here. That does not change any of the law as it is today. It merely codifies it so that we will be in a position to effect all of these changes which we would like to make to the mental health program.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I fully realize this is a codification of the mental health act, but while we are passing the bill, don't you think this is the proper time to offer the amendments to amend this bill?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I say to the gentleman, that is exactly the purpose for which this is done, and it was decided by the Department of Justice that this was the easier of the two methods; that rather than start amending specific statutes that are on the books, the way to do it was to put this in toto on the Governor's desk, and then offer the amendments to this, which would then be the statute.

Now, Mr. President, I agree with the gentleman, it is somewhat of a codification departure. I have no quarrel with that statement, but this is the way it was agreed on by the Health Department, by Dr. Teagues group, and by the Department of Justice, in order to get this thing properly presented.

Mr. HALUSKA. Senator Walker, wouldn't you find yourself in the same position again after you pass this code, that you will find it requires a number of amendments, and you will find yourself in the same position you are in now?

Mr. WALKER. Except this, Senator, that you will have, instead of having to go through a number of statute books to find out the various phases of the mental health law, it will be gathered into one code and rather than amend each separate law, they felt that it would be a more concise document if they would do it this way. Now, as I said, Senator, this is a new departure in codification amendments because, if you will recall, when we had the new criminal code which was before us several times, they indicated in the code from step to step the changes that had been made in the substantive law as it now exists. They felt that this would be a better way to properly present it to the Legislature, so that the gentleman of the House and Senate would understand the specific amendments offered rather than have a jumbled presentation of amendments to a series of bills. Now, this was found to be the better method to handle it, and I am not defending the method because it is an experimental method, but I have no quarrel with it because I cannot point out to you that it is wrong.

Mr. HALUSKA. What assurance do we have, Senator Walker that any other bill that may be offered to amend this part of the law that I object to will be passed?

Mr. WALKER. Now, Mr. President, I asked the same question, and was assured by what we so coyly call the front office, the Department of Justice, by the Secretary of the Department of Health, the Attorney General of the Department of Justice, and by the occupants of the front office that this was the method they would like to have us follow. They assured me, they assured the Committee on Public Health and Welfare, and the Chairman of the Committee is the distinguished gentleman from Delaware, Senator Watkins, that that would be the method followed, and we were assured so that we, in turn, could assure our colleagues that these amendments would be presented.

Mr. HALUSKA. Do you have knowledge or not that William Brown, Secretary of Welfare, was opposed to this bill?

Mr. WALKER. Well, no. Now, Mr. President, if he is, it is the first I have heard of it.

Mr. HALUSKA. Well, he was.

Mr. HALUSKA. I would like to have an answer to my first question though, Senator Walker, with regard to the passage of the bill. Would the same paragraph that I read apply to female superintendents as well as male superintendents?

Mr. WALKER. I would so assume, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. And, do you have knowledge at the present time that we have people who are superintendents in State institutions who are not physicians?

Mr. WALKER. I understand that is so.

Mr. HALUSKA. And that they are hired illegally, serving illegally?

Mr. WALKER. Well, Mr. President, I would not want to say that. May I say that if they are not physicians and they are superintendents of an institution, I think it would be safe to say that is not in conformity with the statute.

Mr. HALUSKA. That is the reason why I am trying to amend this act now, since you have gone ahead and hired people to serve in that capacity who are not physicians. You are amending the code, and in the same breath you want to pass it up again, and I either have to press for the discharge of one person that I am fully aware of at Pennhurst who is not a physician, or amend the code.

Mr. WALKER. Now, Mr. President, if I can say again, and forgive the repetition, Senator, this is not amending the present law.

Mr. HALUSKA. I realize that.

Mr. WALKER. The only way, and I want to assure the gentleman that we are just as desirous of amending this particular phase of the present law as he is, and we are fully aware of a couple of situations that he is suggesting here on the floor of the Senate. Now, whether we pass this bill or kill this bill will not affect the problem which is confronting us now. The only way we can approach it is this way, and if the gentleman will give us his cooperation, in a very few days the amendments for these particular clauses or sections of this new code will be before us.

Mr. HALUSKA. Would the gentleman object to having the bill go over in order until we see those amendments?

Mr. WALKER. Now, Mr. President, we were all through this same thing. According to the information contained in the history, the bill was introduced in the House on February 13, was reported as committed on March 21, and on April 2 it passed the House two hundred seven to nothing. It was referred to the Senate Committee on Public Health and Welfare on April 3, and it was reported as amended on April 17. Now, may I say to the gentleman from Cambria that the amendments put in there, as I understand it, were clarification amendments, printer's errors, that put in there to straighten the bill out so that it could continue its course. It has been on this calendar since April 17, and we even put it on the postponed calendar in order to give the gentlemen of the Senate the opportunity of satisfying themselves that this was not a bill that was designed to change the law.

Now, Mr. President, I do not want to be captious with the gentleman from Cambria. If he will take my word for it, this thing will be corrected in amendments. The amendments have been prepared and are ready, and the committee has been so advised, and if we delay it one more day, it just delays getting the thing amended one more day.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I am not going to ask my colleagues to vote against this bill. We will vote for it on the basis that what the gentleman from Allegheny has just stated, but I want to draw your attention to the fact that we do have men hired now in important positions, especially at Pennhurst, where sometime ago we had a physician in charge who was a poor administrator and the place went down to the rocks. It fell apart. The Commonwealth was compelled to go out and look for the services of a businessman, and they obtained one. The man in charge now is doing a good job, but not in conformity with the law. Legally he cannot hold that position. It is my thought that now while we are passing that code, we should take care of that situation, and I am very fearful after we pass this code, that we will go out of this Session and the matter will not be corrected.

Now, Mr. President, we talk so much about penalizing the American public for doing this and doing that, and we sit here fully aware of the fact that we are doing wrong, agreeing where Departments are concerned, with a procedure by which we are going backwards instead of forward, and still they will insist on passing a bill of this type. I will vote for it because of the importance of the balance of the bill, and I trust, sincerely trust, that the gentleman from Allegheny County will give me his cooperation, and I will give him mine to make certain that we will take care of this portion of the bill in the amendments.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I want to assure the gentleman from Cambria, Senator Haluska, that hand and hand we can accomplish it.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

L. 1043) entitled "An act establishing a public school employees' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employees defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employees exempting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" by providing for retroactive service allowance of certain employees.

Section 1 Section 11 of the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1043) entitled "An act establishing a public school employees' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employees defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employees exempting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" as last amended by the act approved the fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1352) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 11 In computing the length of service of a contributor for retirement purposes under the provisions of this act full credit shall be given each contributor by the retirement board for each school year of service as an employee as defined in section one paragraph seven of this act and for each school year for which credit is not otherwise provided for in this act and during which the contributor was a member of the American Expeditionary Force in the World War or in activities connected therewith approved by the retirement board or who were either enlisted or drafted into the Army Navy Marine Corps or the Enlisted Nurses' Corps of the United States and for each school year during which the contributor was prior to the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen a teacher instructor or supervisor in any state or semi-state orphan school. Under such rules and regulations as the retirement board shall adopt each employee shall file with the retirement board a detailed statement of all such service rendered by him or her. As soon as practicable thereafter the retirement board shall verify such statement as to prior service and shall issue to each employee a certificate certifying to the aggregate length of his or her prior service. Such certificate shall be final and conclusive as to his or her prior service unless thereafter modified (a) by the retirement board upon application by employee or (b) by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction upon application by the employee or by the retirement board provided such application for modification be made to said State Superintendent of Public Instruction within one year after the issuance of a certificate or a modified certificate by the retirement board. A certificate for prior service issued to a present employee shall certify the total number of completed years of prior service allowances for said present employee to and including the thirtieth day of June nineteen hundred nineteen. The time during which an employee is absent without pay shall not be counted in computing the prior service the total service or the average salary of a contributor unless allowed by the employer by whom said contributor was employed at the time said leave of absence was granted and further unless said allowance is approved by the retirement board.

Any person who is entitled to credit for service as a teacher instructor or supervisor in any state or semi-state orphan school prior to the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen under the provisions of this section and was retired prior to the fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven shall be entitled to the benefits of such credit from the date of his or her retirement.

Section 2 The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall pay into the retirement fund an amount sufficient to pay the benefits resulting from the provisions of this amendment.

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

EXTENDING INVITATION TO REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO HOLD ITS 1952 CONVENTION IN CITY OF PHILADELPHIA

In the House of Representatives, May 8, 1951.

Whereas, Philadelphia is truly a national shrine where our American liberty was conceived and attained;

Whereas, Philadelphia is intimately identified with the earliest beginning of our colonial era in which the stirring qualities of tolerance, good will, and peaceful living became dominant;

Whereas, Philadelphia has builded upon said colonial background a great metropolitan area, characterized with adequate facilities for transporting, housing and feeding thousands of visitors;

Whereas, Philadelphia offers rich rewards in culture, art, recreation and entertainment to its countless visitors who seek esthetic enjoyment or healthful relaxation;

Whereas, Philadelphia by virtue of its geographical site and historical lore, has become the epitome of American democracy; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives (if the Senate concur) extend to the Republican National Committee at Tulsa, Oklahoma, its most cordial invitation to hold its 1952 convention for the nomination of president and vice-president in Philadelphia and express its assurance that every convenience and comfort shall be available for the delegates in the discharge of their privileged duties.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL No. 140

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the House the seventh grade class of the Darby Junior High School, Delaware County, accompanied by Misses Alice Tiffany and Evelyn Reed and Mr. Charles E. Adams, teachers. They are here as guests of the gentlemen from Delaware, Messrs. W. C. Leonard, Glendening, Bloom and Robertson.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. SCHMIDT asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER. There will be a caucus of the Republican Members in the new House Caucus Room and of the Democratic Members in the old House Caucus Room immediately upon the calling of the recess. The Members are requested to proceed promptly to their respective meeting places.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will declare a recess for one hour and a half. The Chair hears none, and a recess is declared.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the House a former Member, the gentleman from Cameron, Honorable John Schwab.

ST. BASIL'S HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the House the senior class of St. Basil's High School, Dushore, Sullivan County, under the direction of Sister Mary Basil and Sister Willemyn. They are here as the guests of the gentleman from Sullivan, Mr. Baumunk.

HARRISBURG CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the House the Senior class of the Harrisburg Catholic High School, under the direction of Sister Maria Consilia, Mother Superior, and Sister Mary Phillip. They are here as the guests of the gentlemen from Dauphin, Messrs. Dowling and Zeigler.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I crave the privilege of offering a discharge resolution. Before doing this, I desire to make a preliminary statement.

We will move to discharge the Committee on Agriculture and Dairy Industries from one of the oleo bills, House Bill 16.

There has been some comment in the public press that various members of the majority party desire to lead the revolution or insurrection or whatever you call it as far as oleo legislation is concerned. So, Mr. Speaker, if there is any member of the majority party who desires to carve himself a niche in the Hall of Fame by sponsoring this particular discharge resolution, I will gladly yield to him and give one member or as many members of the majority party as there may be who desire to sponsor a resolution bringing oleo legislation on the floor of the House. Going! Going!! Gone!!! No takers.

I, therefore, yield, Mr. Speaker, to the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Petrosky.

RESOLUTION

DISCHARGING COMMITTEE

Messrs. PETROSKY and McNALLY offered a resolution which was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 8, 1951.

Resolved, That the Committee on Agriculture and Dairy Industries be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 16, Title: "An Act regulating the manufacture, sale and advertising of oleomargarine, butterine, or other similar products, imposing certain powers and duties upon the Department of Agriculture and imposing penalties and repealing certain statutes."

Said bill having been referred to the Committee on Agriculture and Dairy Industries, on February 5, 1951.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, under Rule 40, of the House, I am offering this discharge resolution, not with the thought of pride of sponsorship in mind upon House Bill 395, which myself and two of my colleagues on this side introduced; but to take the first bill that was introduced which would allow the sale of colored oleo in the state of Pennsylvania.

I do not intend to speak upon the merits of the bill. I simply want to present this discharge resolution in behalf of the many, the great numbers I should say, of people who desire such legislation, due to the fact that this is the only possible way, it seems, from the action that has been taken in the Senate and the House for the past several months, the only opportunity for you and me to count our votes as being for colored oleo sales or against colored oleo sales.

This discharge resolution is being offered in a bi-partisan spirit. We do not want to think that precedent would be broken by the passage of a discharge resolution; we simply want to say to the people of Pennsylvania: "We are now voting on oleo legislation; we are now voting on something which will bring to the floor of the House the elimination of the ban on oleo sales in Pennsylvania."

I present the resolution in that spirit and with the thought in mind that we must do something for the housewives who have been wanting this particular legislation, and inasmuch as this House will never be able to vote in any other way on removing the ban on oleo sales this is your opportunity to vote as you have pledged yourselves to vote to the electorate of your districts.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, as the Members of the House may learn by looking at the History, you will notice that my name happens to be there as a sponsor of this bill.

If I were to follow the suggestions of the gentleman who just preceded me in speaking on the floor of the House, I would state that the vote which I am going to make on this resolution would be a vote against my own bill. It is a vote to support the orderly processes of this very body of which we happen to be Members.

If anyone questions as to whether I would vote for the oleo bill, I merely refer them to the fact that I am one of the sponsors of this bill. So that there can be no question to anyone, if there were an oleo bill on the floor of this House, my vote would be for that bill.

But, Mr. Speaker, my position in this particular parliamentary procedure is that my vote is against this resolution merely to sustain and to keep intact the procedure, which this House has been following for years; and although I am very deeply interested in the oleo problem in this state, I cannot vote in favor of this resolution.

Mr. MADIGAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this motion to discharge this Committee. I would like to second the remarks made by the gentleman from Delaware who just spoke, Mr. Robertson.

This Committee is set up under the Constitution. It is a procedure which has been followed in this House over the years and I think we would be establishing a precedent if we try to upset something that has been set up here by the Constitution. In fact, I question in my own mind the constitutionality of a discharge resolution.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman, the Chairman of the Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Madigan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MADIGAN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman raise the point of the constitutionality of this resolution?

Mr. MADIGAN. Mr. Speaker, I do not. I just made the remark that I question it in my own mind; but I do not raise that point on the floor.

I would like to say for the information of the Members of the House that these bills came before this Committee in an orderly manner. There were six bills in the Committee at the original meeting of the Committee, but those bills differed in certain respects. On approval by members of the Committee those bills were referred to a sub-committee. This sub-committee gave considerable thought and study to the provisions of the bills, how they would apply to enforcement of the pure food laws and at this morning's meeting that sub-committee was prepared to make its report. They made their report to the Committee and ample time was given to members of the Committee for thorough discussion of the bills.

We had a motion from our Committee authorizing the report of this sub-committee to be made public. The report is being mimeographed. It will be available to the press, to the Members of the House and to be distributed to the public.

There was nothing underhanded in any manner in the study of these bills. It was put to a vote of the Committee and was decided by a large majority of the Committee of bi-partisan members of the Committee to put the bills on the table. There was no party issue at stake. The questions were decided upon the merits of the bills and according to the information which was available to the Committee at the time.

Mr. ANDREWS. First, Mr. Speaker, there is a historical precedent for the discharge of Committees. It has been done from the floor of this House, but rarely.

The distinguished Chairman of the Committee says that the refusal to report this bill is the result of a bi-partisan decision; that there is no partisan issue. We decline to accept that position.

With us the discharge of this Committee is distinctly a partisan issue, and I am not importuning at this time any particular support from any particular member of the minority. If you want to go to the people on the basis of this vote, I am perfectly willing to do so for and on behalf of the majority contingent in this House.

We have presented the perennial fallacy which brings us to a reduction ad absurdum. Several million people want a particular bill passed or at least acted upon. Then 208 Members proceed to function for and on behalf of the million. Then a committee of thirty, or twenty, as the case may be, becomes the custodian of the conscience, the judgment, not only the desires, not only of the means, but of the judgment and the conscience of this House.

The distinguished gentleman from Delaware is not the only Member of this House who, if he spoke his convictions, would arise and state that if this bill were on the floor, he would support it. But because the majority of a sub-committee, perhaps, by one vote, sometimes by a secret ballot, decide that certain kinds of legislation shall not be presented for consideration, that one vote triumphs over the judgment and the conscience of many Members, perhaps on both sides of the House, and defeats the desires and intents of the people who sent us here.

I concede that from the standpoint of leadership to compel a party to bowl in a particular alley that you will find it desirable to maintain the integrity and the supremacy of your Committees. The chairmen of these Committees are appointed, whether we have a Democratic Governor or a Republican Governor, by and with the consent and sanction of the Governor, and then according to tradition, the Chairman of those Committees, whether we have a Democratic Governor or a Republican Governor, become the agents of the Executive. You hold them in line and you dictate the kind of legislation to be brought to vote in the House by upholding the sanctity of a Committee, as though any thirty men were wiser than all the Members of this House.

That is the proposition. First, the millions in the Commonwealth, then 208, then thirty, then a Committee of three by a majority of one determines whether or not we are going to get a chance to vote.

So, we accept the issue. It is a partisan issue in the sense that a very considerable proportion of the Democratic contingent in this House favors the discharge of this Committee.

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise at this point to take exception to the remarks of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, when he says that the chairmen of committees are appointed by and with the consent of the Governor. I think that is the prerogative of the Speaker and of the Speaker alone and the Governor does not come into this picture. That is the only reason I arose.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, in order to set the record straight I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I shall.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know whether the gentleman believes that the ordinary and the proper procedure of this House of Representatives is conducted under the Rules of the House of Representatives as revised to January 15, 1951?

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, speaking off hand and without study to give a reasonable answer, I would say as far as I know that is true. I do not know whether it is exact or not but I presume upon the advice of the Speaker and the Parliamentarian that we are operating under those rules.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know from the gentleman whether he knows that Rule 40 is a part of the Rules of the House which provides for the discharge of the Committees from consideration of bills after said bills or resolutions have been 10 calendar days in the hands of that Committee—Page 118 of the directory.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, that is correct.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, then would the gentleman agree that I and my colleagues have used the proper form and procedure in this House in order to bring about the consideration of House Bill 16, which was co-sponsored by the gentleman, Mr. Robertson.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, in accordance with the Rule 40 as the gentleman drew my attention to it by reading that Rule, he is correct.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

Mr. McNALLY. Mr. Speaker, I do not propose to discuss the question generally. There are many arguments on the merits for and against oleo, yellow oleo.

Time does not permit me to discuss them all or even a few of them. I will confine my remarks to the unwarranted undemocratic action of the Committee on Agriculture and Dairy Industries, in preventing the people of Pennsylvania from knowing how the Representatives vote on this important piece of Legislation.

The Committee system was never intended to prevent legislation from reaching the floor of the House for action. To refuse the Members of the House an opportunity to vote on this important piece of legislation is an outrage.

Our constituents do not understand or appreciate this false sanctity that has built up around the discharge of a committee. Our constituents are entitled to know how we vote on the merits of a bill. They are not interested in political maneuvers that allow legislation to be stifled without those who are responsible being required to stand up and be counted.

In conclusion I hope and pray that House Bill 16 will be favorably reported out of the Agriculture and Dairy Industries Committee so that all the Members of the House will be able to record their vote for or against it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the Resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Andrews and Mr. Petrosky.

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Moran, McNally and Corr.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 247, as follows:

An Act to amend the title and the act approved the sixth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 164) entitled "An act authorizing and empowering minors seventeen years of age or older to contract for and to make loans in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress known as the "Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944" or any agency of the Commonwealth hereafter created and saving and relieving the parents guardians and trustees of such minors from any liability therefor unless joining therein" by empowering minor spouses irrespective of age to join in the execution of such contracts whether or not the principal is a minor and validating the actions of minor spouses of adults in heretofore joining in the execution of any such contracts

Section 1 The title of the act approved the sixth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 164) entitled "An act authorizing and empowering minors seventeen years of age or older to contract for and to make loans in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress known as the "Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944" or any agency of the Commonwealth hereafter created and saving and relieving the parents guardians and trustees of such minors from any liability therefor unless therein" is hereby amended to read as follows.

An Act

Authorizing and empowering minors seventeen years of age or older to contract for and to make loans in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress known as the "Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944" or any agency of the Commonwealth hereafter created and minor spouses irrespective of age to join in the execution of such contracts prohibiting the disaffirmance of such contracts whether or not the principal is a minor on the grounds of minority and saving and relieving the parents guardians and trustees of such minors from any liability therefor unless joining therein

Section 2 Section 1 of said act amended by the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1096) is hereby further amended to read as follows.

Section 1 Any minor who is at least seventeen years of age and who is eligible for guaranty or insurance of a loan pursuant to the act of Congress known as the "Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944" as amended and supplemented is hereby authorized and empowered notwithstanding such minority to enter into any contract in this Commonwealth for any loan or loans guaranteed by the United States or any agency thereof in accordance with the provisions of said act of Congress as amended and supplemented and the rules and regulations promulgated from time to time pursuant thereto or any agency of the Commonwealth hereafter created and such minor is also authorized and empowered to execute and acknowledge all documents deeds mortgages and other or similar papers necessary and incident to such contracts The Minor spouse [of any such minor irrespective of age] of any person who is eligible for guaranty or insurance of a loan pursuant to said act of Congress whether or not such person is a minor and regardless of the age of the spouse is hereby authorized and empowered notwithstanding such minority to join in the execution of any such contract In the event [such a minor] a person who is eligible for guaranty or insurance of a loan pursuant to said act of Congress and who is a minor or whose spouse is a minor or both obtains such a loan or loans neither [he nor his minor spouse] of them despite any law or decision of any court to the contrary shall be permitted to avoid the contract of such loan or loans because of [his] the age of either of them nor shall [he] either of them be permitted to interpose the defense that [he] either of them is a minor in any action or actions based upon such contract or contracts or arising out of any loan or loans authorized herein nor shall the parents or parents or guardian or guardians or trustee or trustees of [such] any minor be liable in any way whatsoever because of or on account of such contract or contracts or loan or loans which may be entered into or joined in by such minor pursuant hereto unless expressly a party thereto

Section 3 Whenever heretofore any minor spouse of any person eligible for guaranty of insurance of a loan pursuant to the act of Congress known as the "Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944" and its amendments and supplements has joined in the execution of any such contract loan or other papers necessary and incidents thereto such joinder is hereby validated for all purposes subject to the prohibition that no such contract or loan may be avoided nor may the defense of minority be interposed as a defense in any action based on any such contract or arising out of any such loan.

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 52, as follows:

An Act empowering cities of the first class of the Commonwealth to make and enforce by ordinances fire prevention codes regulating the occupation and use of buildings and structures and the conduct of trades or business which due to the nature thereof create a fire hazard or danger to life or property by fire or explosion and providing penalties

Section 1 In order to promote the public safety and the general welfare cities of the first class of this Commonwealth in addition to other remedies provided by law are hereby authorized and empowered to enact and enforce by ordinance five prevention codes to govern and regulate the occupation and use of all types of buildings and structures and the method and manner of conducting or engaging in trades or businesses which due to the nature thereof create fire hazards or danger to life or property by fire or explosion Provided That such codes shall not apply to any building structure or business of any person or corporation the facilities of which are subject to regulation by Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission Such ordinances need not be published or advertised in full as required by law in the case of the adoption of ordinances Provided That a notice of the adoption of such ordinances as the fire prevention code of any such city together with a brief summary setting forth the principal provisions thereof in such reasonable detail as will give adequate notice of its contents in form approved by the State Department of Labor and Industry and a reference to the place where copies thereof are deposited and may be examined shall be published in the manner provided for the publication of ordinances

Section 2 The ordinances enacted pursuant to this act shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of any statute governing the same matter but all regulations prescribed by such ordinances which are additional or supplementary to the statute law and not inconsistent therewith or enacted for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the statute law shall be valid and binding

Section 3 The said ordinances may provide proper penalties not exceeding fines of five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days for violation of the provisions thereof The fines may be increased within the limit if five hundred dollars ($500.00) each for second or subsequent violations of the same person firm or corporation The said ordinances may provide that each calendar day of violation shall constitute a separate offense

Section 4 The said ordinances may provide for the setting up of a Bureau of Fire Prevention in the Department of Public Safety fire department or such department board or commission as city council of cities of the first class shall direct of which bureau fire department or such department board or commission the head of the department as the fire marshal of the city shall be head

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Subsection B of Section 37 and Section 39 of the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1743) entitled as amended "An act relating to magistrates and magistrates courts in the city of Philadelphia imposing certain duties upon and prohibiting certain practices by magistrates and fixing their compensation imposing certain duties on the city controller in regard thereto authorizing the employment by him of additional clerks and fixing their compensation regulating the practice in and defining magistrates courts the entering of bail and the issuance of discharges in criminal cases in the county of Philadelphia conferring certain powers over magistrates and magistrates courts and imposing certain duties in connection therewith upon the judges of the courts of common pleas of the county of Philadelphia the Attorney General and the District Attorney providing for the appointment and employment of stenographers to report proceedings in certain cases heard by magistrates fixing the salaries of persons employed by authority of this act providing penalties for violations of the provisions thereof and repealing certain prior acts" as amended by the act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1028) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 37

B Each magistrate [whose term of office or next term of office commences after the first day of September one thousand nine hundred forty-nine] shall receive a salary for his services of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7500) per annum. The chief [magistrate's added compensation shall be and remain as heretofore] magistrate shall receive in addition to his salary as magistrate a salary of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500) per annum. The deputy stenographic clerk and each clerk of a magistrate's court shall receive a salary as fixed by law. Said salaries shall be paid by the city in semi-monthly payments.

Section 39 It shall be the duty of the stenographers or stenographic clerks as aforesaid to report in full the entire proceedings of the said central police court and divisional police courts in all cases required by this act to be tried exclusively therein and to file in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions full true and complete verbatim transcripts or reports of said proceedings as soon as practicable after the taking of the same or sooner if so specially directed by the presiding magistrate. Each such transcript or report shall be certified by the stenographer taking the same in the following form

I hereby certify that the proceedings and evidence are contained fully and accurately in the notes taken by me on the hearing of the above case and that this copy is a correct transcript of the same

Stenographer

Such transcripts or reports when so certified by the stenographer shall upon any other trial or in any other proceeding in which it may become material to prove the matters therein reported be taken and held to be prima facie correct and if otherwise admissible in evidence shall be admitted without the necessity of calling the stenographer who made the said transcript or report as a witness to prove the same. The district attorney of the county of Philadelphia the city solicitor of the city of Philadelphia the chief magistrate and any judge of the courts of common pleas of said county shall on request be furnished with a copy of any such proceeding free of charge. All other persons desiring copies of any proceeding reported by any stenographer or stenographic clerk shall be entitled to receive the same upon payment of [twenty cents ($0.20)] such amount as the board of magistrates shall fix for each page thereof. No stenographer nor stenographic clerk shall retain for himself any money received from the sale of a copy or copies of transcripts but shall pay over all moneys so received by him to the clerk of the magistrate before whom such hearing took place and shall be entered by the clerk in the day book and returned to the city treasurer of the city of Philadelphia and account for the same to the city controller.

Section 2 Section 35 of the act approved the tenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. Section 15 The provisions of this act shall become effective the first day of July one thousand nine hundred fifty-one

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, every now and then we have a Member of the House so amiable, so likeable, so generally popular that he is able to get away, because of his personal qualities, with very, very bad legislation.

I presume I am doing the gentleman from York a favor. There is considerable opposition to this bill. There was considerable opposition to this bill on the other side of the House. I have no inside information. All of that opposition may or may not have been eradicated by the iron hands of the Majority Leader in the recent Caucus. I would not know as to that. But as I say, I am doing him a favor undoubtedly because if I rise to oppose this bill it will be the inevitable reaction upon the other side of the aisle since a Democrat is rising to oppose this bill it must be awful good legislation. And, therefore, since there is a voice of protest from the minority side, it becomes the business of the majority to close the ranks and slap them down.

Here we have a bill that is perhaps unique in its class. It seeks to enlist the aid of the state to advance the interests of an industry that is now economically sound, which does not require the sort of regulation that is proposed for the purpose of public policy. It is not an industry that calls for the sort of regulation as applied to the milk industry and other industries.

There is no more reason why we should have an apple board, than why we should have a peach board, a tomato board, a corn board or cabbage board. If we are going into this thing, the thing to do is go whole hog and we can create enough boards so there will be secretaries, executive secretaries, and such other employees as may be necessary for the administrative code; give them an initial appropriation of $10,000, then collect dues.

This is a big fellow's bill. I find that the opposition voice comes from the little grower. How the big fellow must hate the little fellow in this apple industry!

If you violate any of the provisions of this board, as I have read the bill, you go to jail for 30 to 60 days or have a fine from $100 to $300. Just what you are going to do to the little fellows in some of the little counties that have 500 or 600 or a 1000 bushel promotion I do not know. But anyway, I think this is a bad bill. I think it sets a bad precedent. The apple industry does not need it. They can organize and collect their money from the industry and do what they plan to do without enlisting the initial cooperation of the state to the tune of $10,000. It is not needed. So personally I oppose the bill notwithstanding the likeable, lovable qualities of its sponsor.

Mr. GOODLING. I suppose I should throw my arms around the Minority Leader and give him a kiss for those very kind words. I was hoping it would not be necessary for me to do so.

The SPEAKER. The Minority Leader did not make his remarks for that purpose the Chair is sure.

Mr. GOODLING. I would like to interrogate the Minority Leader, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the Minority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. This is a graft perpetuated by an orchardist upon an amateur who never got any further than raising a gooseberry bush.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman states he will permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, whether this bill has become bad in the last two years? As I recall, the record shows that he voted for it two years ago.

Mr. ANDREWS. That may be true. I sometimes succumb to the charm of the gentleman from York who personally labored with me two years ago to support a piece of legislation which I took as being meritorious simply because he said it was. I never read his bill and I went along blindly following the process in the Republican Caucus. I could have been admitted to the Republican caucus on the way I acquiesced to the gentleman's importunity.

Mr. GOODLING. One other question, Mr. Speaker. I would like to ask the gentleman from Cambria what the function of state government is?

Mr. ANDREWS. The function of state government under recent administrations is to raise taxes while promising to reduce them.

Mr. GOODLING. I want to thank the gentleman for that enlightenment.

The SPEAKER. The Chair observes that the Minority Leader apparently loved the gentleman a bushel and a peck two years and only a bushel now.

Mr. GOODLING. I should like to say, Mr. Speaker, that contrary to what the gentleman from Cambria just said I think the government of the state has but one function and that is to serve the people of the Commonwealth. If we can serve the apple growers, if we can serve the potato growers, if we can serve the pickle growers or strawberry growers or what have you, then I think it is our duty to do it.

I was hoping it would not be necessary for me to take any time to defend this bill on the floor, but since I am here I am not going to apologize, like some people do, for taking just a few minutes of the time of this House to defend it.

In reply to the gentleman from Cambria when he says that the bill is unique, I agree with him in that a hundred percent. It is unique in that this is one industry coming to the State and not with our hands out as has been the case in past years. We have apparently come to the point now where in practically every industry the first thought that arises in their minds is "what can we get from the state or Federal governments." Contrary to that, we are coming here and asking to do something for ourselves.

He also raised the question, why not have a voluntary organization? Well, why does not Uncle Sam collect his income tax on a voluntary basis? We have a voluntary organization that has been functioning for twelve or fifteen years and we know the results that have been obtained by that organization. But there comes a time when some of us who have been carrying the burden get tired of having other people ride on our coattails. For that reason, we would like to include everybody who benefits from a program of this kind.

So far as establishing a precedent which has often been brought up, I should like to point out that if you will look at your budget message you will find that $480,000 have been asked for the Milk Commission for the next two years. I certainly have no fault to find with the dairy industry. The Milk Commission is here to serve the dairy industry. $480,000 is going to come out of the taxpayers' money for the dairy industry and the consumers I agree, but we in this particular field are not asking that one penny come out of the taxpayers' money.

I am just going to cite you a few precedents that we have for this particular thing and I am not particularly interested in what other states do, but sometimes it is well to consider what they are doing in other places.

Maine, as most of you probably know, has a state tax on potatoes. They are sending potatoes right into Pennsylvania and competing with our Pennsylvania grown potatoes. In addition to that, I see some of you people at different places that I go to eat on occasions and I do know that every time you buy a lobster at that particular place, if it came from Maine and the most of them do I believe, or a lot of them do, you are paying a state tax on that lobster because Maine has a tax on lobsters. They also have a tax on sardines.

Michigan has had a tax on apples for a good many years. It is working very satisfactorily in that particular place.

Washington has a tax on apples. And I want to tell you people quite frankly that if you want to buy apples to look at, buy Washington state apples. If you want to buy them to eat, which I assume most of you do, buy Pennsylvania apples. A lot of you do not know that but Washington can definitely grow better looking apples than we can in Pennsylvania because of their climatic conditions, but when it comes to quality they certainly cannot sit in the same seat with Pennsylvania apples.

Rather than asking for one penny as we are here in Pennsylvania, the State of Washington is now collecting three cents on every bushel of apples that is produced in the State of Washington. And I should like this House to know this: That in the past the State of Washington has spent as high as $250,000 right on the eastern seaboard here to advertise Washington State apples. I have absolutely no fault to find with Washington State apples but I do object to having them come in here and spend $250,000 or $300,000 as they have done in the past and we are not able to fight back.

Most of you I believe in this House, whether you are a Democrat or a Republican, will agree that Senator Harry Byrd is a pretty clear thinker. You may not know Senator Byrd is the world's largest individual apple producer. Senator Byrd was pretty largely responsible in putting a bill through the Virginia Legislature similar to the one we are asking you to vote upon here today. It is functioning in Virginia at the present time and doing a good job.

Maryland has a similar bill. Delaware has a similar bill.

I do not propose to take up any more of your time unless there would be any questions, but I certainly trust that at least sufficient Members of this House will see fit to vote for this bill so that we can at least give it a trial and then if it is going to work as Mr. Andrews has said, if it is going to work for the apple people, I see absolutely no objection to other people coming in and doing the same thing.

I want to point out one thing and then I will close. The apple industry is distinctly different from any other type of agriculture in that it is a long time proposition. If I were to interrogate farmers that are Members of this House in other lines of agricultural pursuits, they would tell this House that they can increase their production. The potato growers knew last February or March approximately how many acres of potatoes would be planted in Pennsylvania. The dairy people can step up their production in a very short time, not by growing stock naturally but they can go out and buy additional stock and increase their production.

The poultry industry can increase its production in eggs in a six months period. They can put out a new crop of broilers every three months if the market demands it.

We in the apple industry have a long time proposition. We set out our apple trees, and for eight years we do not receive a penny in return for our labors. We cannot change our production from year to year. And whether or not we have a crop on those apple trees we must protect those trees. So, as I say, we cannot compare this to any other industry. For that reason I do not think it should be considered in the same light as many of our other agricultural industries are.

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, I am speaking for Huntingdon County and this afternoon I was talked to and given advice on this bill.

We have about nine small growers in our county, one medium sized and a large orchard. I was advised that there is perfect unanimity among all of those growers. They are all friendly, apparently, the large ones like the small ones, and they have asked me to support the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—13

Boorse,	McKinney,	Pettigrew,	Rosen,
Good,	Olsen,	Reese,	Schuster,
Limper,	Petz,	Reidenbach,	Verona,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 647, as follows:

An Act to further amend Section 4 to amend subsection (d) of Section 4.1 to add Sections 4.2 and 4.3 and to amend paragraph (1) of Section 14 of the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 566) entitled "An act requiring cities of the first class to establish a pension fund for employees of said cities and all county or other public employees if any paid by appropriation of the city councils thereof and out of the treasury of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions" by clarifying the amount of contributions by certain pensioners and the method of computing lesser pensions changing date of completing certain payments and the age to which pension increments may be computed fixing minimum pensions and providing benefits for surviving spouse

Section 1 Section 4 of the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 566) entitled "An act requiring cities of the first class to establish a pension fund for employees of said cities and all county or other public employees if any paid by appropriation of the city councils thereof and out of the treasury of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions" as last amended by the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 852) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 4 During the lifetime of the said person he or she shall be entitled to receive a pension from the fund set aside for the purpose of fifty per centum of the amount which would constitute the average rate of pay at which he or she was employed during the highest salaried five years of his or her employment by the said city or other public employment as aforesaid Said pension shall be paid in monthly payments Provided That if any person be granted to a person who has not been a contributor to the pension fund as herein provided during a period of twenty years such person shall be required to pay into the board of pensions monthly an amount equal to [two] four per centum of his or her pension until such time as his or her contribution shall have extended during a period of twenty years Should any person so employed after twenty years of service be dismissed voluntarily retire or be in any manner deprived of his position or employment before attaining the age of sixty years upon continuing a monthly payment to the fund equal to the last amount due and paid monthly while in active service said person shall be entitled to a pension above mentioned notwithstanding he or she has not attained the age of sixty years at the time of his or her separation from the public service but said pension shall not commence until he or she has attained the age of sixty years Should any employe however become totally and permanently disabled while in the service after twenty years of service and before attaining the age of sixty years he or she shall be entitled to the said pension Proof of total and permanent disability shall consist of the sworn statement of three practicing physicians designated by the board that the employe is in a permanent condition of health which would totally disable him or her from performing the duties of his or her position or office Provided That in cases where the nature of such disability is such as to disable the employe from performing any work whatsoever either within or without the scope of his regular duties or within or without the service of such city or county the board may upon a recommendation of the three practicing physicians herein provided for retire upon pension such applicant after a service of fifteen years Provided further That the benefits of this amendment shall apply to members of the pension fund who have been contributors to the said fund for five years or more the pension paid to any one employe whose monthly payments into the pension fund have been four dollars or less a month shall not exceed one hundred dollars per month The pension paid to any one employe whose monthly payment into the pension fund have been more than four dollars a month for a period of at least two years may exceed one hundred dollars per month but shall not exceed two hundred dollars per month Provided That if an employe upon the date of retirement from service shall have made payments of more than four dollars a month into the pension fund for a period of less than two years his or her pension shall not exceed one hundred dollars per month but an amount equal to the total amount paid in excess over four dollars a month shall be returned to such employe

The pension to be paid to any former employe who was dismissed voluntarily retired or in any manner was deprived of his position and employment after having twenty years of service as an employe of said city and who has continued making payments to the fund equal to the last amount due and paid monthly while in active service and who has not accepted any pension under the provisions of the act to which this is an amendment shall be at the pension rate as provided in section five and his payments to the board of pensions after the first day of September one thousand nine hundred forty-five shall be in an amount equal to the amount which he would have been permitted to make had he continued in the employ of said city after the first day of September one thousand nine hundred forty-five and had continued to be paid the same salary as he received when he was last employed by said city This new amount whether it be more less or the same as the amount which he paid prior to the first day of September one thousand nine hundred forty-five he shall continue to pay until he applies for a pension under the provisions of this act If there be any difference between the amount which he has paid from the first day of September one thousand nine hundred forty-five and the amount which he has elected to pay under the provisions of section five he shall pay such difference into the board of pensions

[within six months of the effective date of this amendment] on or before the first day of December one thousand nine hundred fifty-one

Section 2 Subsection (d) of Section 4.1 of said act as added thereto by the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 845) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 4.1

(d) Every such lesser pension shall be proportionate to the pension which the employe would be entitled to receive after twenty years of service and contribution computed as if he had continued to receive during the remainder of the twenty years the [same salary as the time of the termination of his active service] average rate of pay at which he was employed during the highest salaried five years of his active service as his number of months of service is to two hundred forty-months

Section 3 Sections 4.2 and 4.3 are hereby added to said act to read as follows

Section 4.2 In no event shall the pension hereafter payable after twenty (20) years of service be less than seventy-five dollars ($75.00) a month as after fifteen (15) years and less than twenty (20) years of service be less than sixty dollars ($60.00) a month to any person now or hereafter entitled to a pension under the provisions of this act

Section 4.3 Any married person retiring under the provisions of this act shall at the time of his or her retirement receive the pension provided by this act during his or her lifetime and a pension after his or her death payable to his or her surviving spouse at the time of retirement equal to fifty per centum of his or her pension Provided That such person so retiring shall have been married to his or her spouse for not less than five years prior to the date of retirement and the spouse is dependent upon such deceased employe at the time of his or her death

The pension to be paid to such surviving spouse shall begin on the first day of the month in which the death of the deceased spouse occurs on the first day of the month following the surviving spouse's attainment of the age of fifty-five whichever is the later and shall continue to and terminate upon the death of such surviving spouse unless such surviving spouse shall remarry in which event the payment of his or her survivor's pension shall thereupon be terminated

The word "pension" as used in this section shall be construed to mean the sum of the pension provided by this act plus the amount of service increment if any to which the married person retiring under the provisions of this act shall be entitled

Section 4 Paragraph (1) of Section 14 of said act as added thereto by the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 852) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 14 In addition to the pension which is authorized by this act and notwithstanding the limitations therein placed upon pensions and upon contributions every contributor who shall become entitled to the payment of a pension and who has been employed by the said city or county for at least twenty-one years shall also be entitled to the payment in addition to the said pension of a "service increment" in accordance with and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth

(1) Service increment shall be the sum obtained by computing the number of whole years in excess of twenty years during which a contributor has been employed by such city or county and paid out of the city treasury and multiplying the said number of years so computed by an amount equal to one-fortieth of the pension which has become payable to such contributor in accordance with the provisions of this act Provided That no service increment may be paid for employment of more than twenty such excess years nor for any excess years which shall accrue after a contributor has reached the age of [sixty-five] seventy years and no service increment shall be paid in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per month

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

An Act providing for the observance of the 175th anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence creating a commission to cooperate with like commissions of the government of the United States and of the City of Philadelphia in arranging ceremonies and making an appropriation

One hundred and seventy-five years ago in the City of Philadelphia a people subjugated to the dictatorial rule of a government in which they enjoyed no representation asserted its right to freedom and selfgovernment

From the bold step then taken has grown a nation strong and enduring in a land of bountiful opportunities a citadel of personal liberties and representative democratic government therefore

Section 1 Fitting ceremonies to commemorate the 175th anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4 1776 shall be held in the City of Philadelphia during the week of July 1 to July 7 1951 one day of which shall be devoted to the Pennsylvania General Assembly

Section 2 To carry out the purposes of this act there is created a temporary commission of twelve members four of whom shall be appointed by the Governor four of whom shall be State Senators appointed by the President pro tempore and four of whom shall be Members of the State House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker Immediately upon its appointment the commission shall meet and organize by electing one of its members as chairman and a person who need not be a member of the commission as secretary The members of the commission shall serve without compensation but shall be paid their necessary expenses actually incurred in connection with the work of the commission

Section 3 The commission shall act jointly with a similar commission of the City of Philadelphia and with such commission if any as may be authorized by the Congress of the United States to arrange and carry out a program for each of the days provided for in section one of this act

Section 4 The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the committee for the purpose of paying the costs and expenses incurred in the execution and carrying out of the provisions of this act including costs and expenses incident to the formulation and execution of plans the organization and operation of pageants parades and orations the arranging and holding of receptions in honor of the President of the United States the Supreme Court of the United States the Governors of other States the Congress of the United States and other distinguished guests and for the employment of of traveling within and without the Commonwealth of personnel the costs of advertising printing and publishing renting equipping and furnishing offices and office supplies and materials of designing manufacturing and presenting souvenir medals badges and other emblems and of other costs within and without the Commonwealth and such other expenses and costs as the commission may deem necessary for the proper conduct and operation of the celebration In no event shall the amount expended by the commission exceed the amount expended by the City of Philadelphia

Section 5 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment but shall not be carried out unless the City of Philadelphia makes similar provision for joint action therein

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

An Act to amend subsection three of section one and section four of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1210) entitled "An act relating to group life insurance describing permitted policies and restrictions thereon the premium basis thereof and rights thereunder limiting the amount of such insurance prescribing standard policy provisions and requiring notice of conversion privileges" by extending the types permitted and fixing requirements thereof

Section 1 Subsection three of section one and section four of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1210) entitled "An act relating to group life insurance describing permitted policies and restrictions thereon the premium basis thereof and rights thereunder limiting the amount of such insurance prescribing standard policy provisions and requiring notice of conversion privileges" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Types Permitted

(3) A policy issued to a labor union or a police fraternity which shall be deemed the policyholder to insure members of such union or fraternity for the benefit of persons other than the union or fraternity or any of [its] their officials representatives or agents

Section 4 Policies Issued to Labor Unions or Police Fraternities A policy issued to a labor union or a police fraternity to insure members of such union or fraternity for the benefit of persons other than the union or fraternity or any of its officials representatives or agents shall be subject to the following requirements

(1) The members eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the members of the union or fraternity or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment or to membership in the union or fraternity or both

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder either wholly from union funds or the fraternity's funds or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance No policy may be issued on which the entire premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least seventy-five per cent of the then eligible members excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer elect to make the required contributions a policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible members or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer

(3) The policy must cover at least twenty-five members at date of issue

(4) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the members or by the union or fraternity No policy may be issued which provides term insurance or any union or fraternity member which together with any other term insurance under any group insurance policies issued to the union or fraternity exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000)

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, although they are not in consecutive order there are quite a number of insurance bills on the third reading calendar and I suggest, in view of their importance and for the purpose of the record, that the sponsor or someone else make a brief statement as to the purpose that these various insurance bills were designed to serve, so that there will be some record as to legislative intent on the record.

Mr. STIMMEL. Mr. Speaker, on the calendar today are two House bills and six Senate bills which are of great interest to this House and, of course, necessary for good insurance legislation. I would like to make this brief statement.

A group of insurance bills on the calendar are in the interest of a great industry in this Commonwealth and more important to the distinct advantage of the general public.

Serious thought and consideration over the past two years has been given this proposed legislation by agency and company representatives, and by our own Insurance Department. In fact, by every segment of the insurance industry, as well as those representing the general public. A careful perusal by the legal staff of our Insurance Department of the policy analysts would indicate that these bills will result in better law if they are approved by this House today.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to know just what purpose was served by House Bill 703—what purpose was served, but not any extended discussion of the bill, simply what the gentleman proposed doing by the bill so it would be in the legislative record as to what the insurance people had in mind to do by the various bills. It should not take long to explain the purpose.

Mr. STIMMEL. Mr. Speaker, I am not prepared to discuss the House bills. I would rather let the sponsors of those bills discuss the House bill. Insofar as the Senate bills are concerned, I will be glad to give a brief resume of each bill if you so desire.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 703 simply brings back the police fraternity and enables them to have group insurance. In the 1949 session in re-writing the insurance bill at that time, for some reason the police fraternity was left out. This simply places them back into their former standing.

The next bill, House Bill 776, simply deals with a liquidated company. The Insurance Department today is sending out reports on liquidated companies. This simply makes it mandatory, which possibly would not be needed in our present Department, but it makes it mandatory to have reports of all those holders within thirty days.

On the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 198) entitled "An act to establish a county court for the county of Allegheny and prescribing its powers and duties regulating the procedure therein and providing for the expenses thereof" by enlarging the jurisdiction of said court in certain cases of appeals and making said jurisdiction exclusive

Section 1 Section 6 of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 198) entitled "An act to establish a county court for the county of Allegheny and prescribing its powers and duties regulating the procedure therein and providing for the expenses thereof" as amended by the act approved the second day of April one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 21) and as amended in part by the acts approved the twenty-fourth day of April one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 51) the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 515) the tenth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 183) and the tenth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 184) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 6 The court hereby created shall have jurisdiction

(a) In all civil actions wherein only a money judgment is sought to be recovered and in all actions of replevin in which the sum demanded or the value of the property replevied does not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars except in cases where the title to lands or tenements may come in question

(b) In all proceedings brought against any husband or father wherein it is charged that he has without reasonable cause separated himself from his wife or children or from both or has neglected to maintain his wife or children and in all proceedings where any child of full age has neglected or shall neglect to maintain his or her parents not able to work or of sufficient ability to maintain themselves The court shall have authority to issue writs of habeas corpus in all proceedings provided for in this clause

(c) In all cases of appeals from summary convictions and from judgments in suits for a penalty before a magistrate or court not of record as provided by law

[(d) The jurisdiction hereby conferred in clauses (b) and (c) shall be exclusive]

(e) In cases where money has been paid into court or the court acquires control over specific personal property and conflicting claims arise thereto the court may add to the record parties interested by voluntary intervention or by service of process and may cause the necessary parties to interplead for the purpose of determining their respective rights and the money or property in question shall thereupon be paid or delivered over to the person found to be entitled thereto The parties shall file such statements of their respective claims as may be necessary to define the issue as the court may by rule or otherwise prescribe The court shall have power to require the parties to such interpleader to stay proceedings in this or other courts until such interpleader is finally determined The court shall have power to order such sale or disposition of property or money within its control as may seem proper either pending such interpleader or after its determination

(f) In all such civil actions as may be transferred to it by order of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County upon consent of counsel for all parties where the sum demanded or the value of the property replevied does not exceed the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars except in cases where the title to lands or tenements may come in question

(g) In all cases involving the support of a child born out of wedlock where the father admits parentage and where he is willing to support the child

(h) In all cases of appeal by any person whose operator's license or learner's permit has been suspended or who has been deprived of the privilege of applying for an operator's license or learner's permit under the provisions of section six hundred sixteen of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905) known as "The Vehicle Code" and its amendments

(i) In all cases of appeal from the Board of Property Assessment Appeals and Review in counties of the second class where the amount of taxes for one year which may be levied on the assessment in controversy does not exceed the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars

(j) In all cases of appeal from the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board

(k) In all cases of appeal from zoning boards or commissions or boards of adjustment or boards of appeals under the various zoning laws of counties cities boroughs and townships where appeals to courts of common pleas are now provided for by law

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 795, as follows:

An Act to further amend Section 12 of the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 626) entitled "An act providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of all subjects of taxation in counties of the second class creating and prescribing the powers and duties of a Board of Property Assessment Appeals and Review imposing duties on certain county and city officers abolishing the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in such counties and prescribing penalties" by conferring exclusive jurisdictions on the county court of Allegheny County in cases of appeals from the Board of Property Assessment Appeals and Review

Section 1 Section 12 of the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 626) entitled "An act providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of all subjects of taxation in counties of the second class creating and prescribing the powers and duties of a Board of Property Assessment Appeals and Review imposing duties on certain county and city officers abolishing the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in such counties and prescribing penalties" as amended by the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 510) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 12 After action on such assessments by the board any taxpayer dissatisfied with the assessment of his property may appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas of the county within sixty (60) days from the date of notice of the assessment as provided by existing law and it shall be the duty of the court to hear and determine said appeal and if necessary to make such changes in the assessment as may be right and proper. Provided however That where the amount of taxes for one year which may be levied on such assessment does not exceed the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500) such appeal shall be taken to the county court of Allegheny County and it shall be the duty of said court to hear and determine said appeal and if necessary to make such changes in the assessment as may be right and proper. Any taxpayer or the Board of Property Assessment Appeals and Review may appeal from the judgment order or decree of the court of common pleas or county court of Allegheny County as the case may be of such county to the Supreme or Superior Court in the same manner as appeals are taken in other cases to the said Supreme or Superior Court [Provided That where such judgment order or decree of the court of common pleas was made affecting a 1943 assessment prior to the effective date of this act appeals to the Supreme or Superior Court may be taken at any time within three (3) calendar months after such effective date] Only one such appeal may be taken during the period of any triennial assessment unless the assessed valuation of the property has been changed during such period. The jurisdiction of the county court of Allegheny County conferred hereby shall be exclusive within the territorial limits of its jurisdiction.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 1 Subsection (a) and (b) of Section 9 of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1168) entitled "An act to protect the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively creating the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board officers of the State government and courts providing for the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively declaring certain labor practices by employers to be unfair further providing that representatives of a majority of the employes be the exclusive representatives of all the employes authorizing the board to conduct hearings and elections and certify as to representatives of employes for purposes of collective bargaining empowering the board to prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice and providing a procedure for such cases including the issuance of a complaint the conducting of a hearing and the making of an order empowering the board to petition a court of common pleas for the enforcement of its order and providing a procedure for such cases providing for the review of an order of the board by a court of common pleas on petition of any person aggrieved by such order and establishing a procedure for such cases providing for an appeal from the common pleas court to the Supreme Court providing the board with investigatory powers including the power to issue subpoenas and the compelling of obedience to them through application to the proper court providing for service of papers and process of the board prescribing certain penalties" as last amended by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 656) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 9 Judicial Review (a) The board shall have power to petition the court of common pleas of any county wherein the unfair labor practice in question occurred or wherein any person charged with the commission of any unfair labor practice resides or transacts business other than Allegheny County and in Allegheny County the County Court of Allegheny County for the enforcement of such order and for appropriate temporary relief or restraining order and shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the entire record in the proceeding including the pleadings and testimony upon which such order was entered and the findings and order of the board Upon such filing the court shall cause notice thereof to be served upon such person and thereupon shall have jurisdiction of the proceeding and of the question determined therein and shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper and to make and enter upon the pleadings testimony and proceedings set forth in such transcript a decree enforcing modifying and enforcing as so modified or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the board. The parties before the court shall be the board and the person charged with the commission of any unfair practice. No objection that has not been urged before the board its members or agents shall be considered by the court unless the failure or neglect to urge such objection shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances. The findings of the board as to the facts if supported by evidence shall be conclusive. If either party shall apply to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence and shall show to the satisfaction of the court that such additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence at the hearing before the board its members or agent the court may order such additional evidence to be taken before the board its members or agent and to be made a part of the transcript. The board may modify its findings as to the facts or make new findings by reason of additional evidence so taken and filed and it shall file such modified or new findings which if supported by evidence shall be conclusive and shall file its recommendations if any for the modification or setting aside of its original order. The jurisdiction of the court of common pleas or of the County Court of Allegheny County as the case may be shall be exclusive within the territorial limits of its jurisdiction and its judgment and decree shall be final except that the same shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court on appeal by the board or any party in interest irrespective of the nature of the decree or judgment or the amount involved. Such appeal shall be taken and prosecuted in the same manner and form and with the same effect as is provided in other cases of appeal to the Supreme Court and the record so certified shall contain all that was before the court of common pleas or of the County Court of Allegheny County as the case may be.

(b) Any person aggrieved by a final order of the board granting or denying in whole or in part the relief sought or by an order certifying a collective bargaining agent of employees may obtain a review of such order in the court of common pleas of any county where the unfair labor practice in question was alleged to have been engaged in or wherein such person resides or transacts business other than Allegheny County and in Allegheny County in the County Court of Allegheny County by filing in such court within sixty days after the final order has issued by the board a written petition praying that the order of the board be modified or set aside. A copy of such petition shall be forthwith served upon the board and the board shall file in the court a transcript of the entire record in the proceeding certified by the board including the pleadings and testimony and order of the board. Upon such filing the court shall proceed in the same manner as in the case of an application by the board under subsection (a) and shall have the same exclusive jurisdiction to grant to the board such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper and in like manner to make and enter a decree enforcing modifying and enforcing as so modified or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the board and the findings of the board as to the facts if supported by substantial and legally credible evidence shall in like manner be conclusive. The parties before the court shall be any person aggrieved by a final order of the board as aforesaid and the board. The jurisdiction of the court of common pleas or of the County Court of Allegheny County as the case may be shall be exclusive within the territorial limits of its jurisdiction and its judgment and decree shall be final except that the same shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court on appeal by the person aggrieved or the board irrespective of the nature of the decree or judgment or the amount involved. Such appeal shall be taken and prosecuted in the same manner and form and with the same effect as is provided in other cases of appeal to the Supreme Court and the record so certified shall contain all that was before the court of common pleas or the County Court of Allegheny County as the case may be.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Clause seventeen (17) of section one (1) of the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1043) entitled "An act establishing a public school employees' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employees defining the use and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty of the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employees exempting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" as last amended by the act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 698) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Definitions

Section 1

(17) "Final salary" shall mean the average annual salary earnable by a contributor as an employee for the ten years of service immediately preceding retirement except that if the average for any five consecutive years of service exceeds the average of the said ten years the five-year average shall become the "final salary" except in the case of contributors who were employed during the year which began July first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two and ended June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three who have elected to contribute on the basis of salary receivable during said year in which case such salary shall be included in the computation of "final salary" for the number of years that contributions have been made on the basis of such salary

Section 2 Paragraph six (6) of section eight (8) of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 752) is hereby amended to read as follows

School Employees' Retirement Fund and Accounts

Section 8

6 There shall be credited by the retirement board to a ledger account to be known as the employees' annuity savings account the amounts of the accumulated deductions from the salaries of contributors made under such rules and regulations as the retirement board shall prescribe as follows

From the salary of each employee who is a contributor there shall be deducted and paid into the fund created by this act through the Department of Revenue such per centum of his or her earnable salary as shall be computed to be sufficient with regular interest to procure for him or her on superannuation retirement [of] at age [of] sixty-two an employees' annuity equal to one one-hundred-sixtieth (1/160) of his or her final salary calculated on the basis of the annual salary earnable by a contributor as an employee for the ten years of service after the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred nineteen or to procure for him or her on superannuation retirement at age sixty-two or at the end of thirty-five years of credited service in this Commonwealth whichever is the earlier an employee's annuity equal to one one-hundred-fortieth (1/140) of his or her final salary calculated on the basis of the annual salary earnable by a contributor as an employee for the ten years of service immediately preceding retirement for each year of service after the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred nineteen In the case of each contributor entering or re-entering the retirement system on and after the first day of July one thousand nine hundred fifty and also in the case of each contributor originally carrying membership in the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1/160) class who prior to the first day of July one thousand nine hundred fifty has been elected and filed with the retirement board such election to transfer to the one one-hundred-fortieth (1/140) class and who contributes after the first day of July one thousand nine hundred fifty the per centum of his or her salary computed to be sufficient for new entrants of the one one-hundred-fortieth (1/140) class as of age attained at nearest birthday of such transferred contributor at the date of transfer Provided That in the case of employees who were employed during the year which began July first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two and ended June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three who have elected to contribute on the basis of salary receivable during said year such percentage shall be computed on the basis of said salary And provided That in any case if the deduction so computed shall exceed five per centum of his or her earnable salary and the employee shall be elect there shall be deducted five per centum of his or her earnable salary Provided however That these privileges are not admissible to contributors in the one one-hundred-fortieth (1/140) class And further provided That a beneficiary in the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1/160) class restored to school service shall not be permitted to transfer to the one-hundred-fortieth (1/140) class nor shall a beneficiary restored to school service be required to contribute at a per centum rate of his or her earnable salary which is greater than the per centum thereof which he or she was required to contribute prior to his or her retirement The rate per centum of said deduction from salary shall be based on such mortality and other tables as the retirement board shall adopt together with regular interest and shall be computed to remain constant during the prospective school service of the contributor

Section 3 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are repealed

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 827, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 566) entitled "An act requiring cities of the first class to establish a pension fund for employees of said cities and all county or other public employees if any paid by appropriation of the city councils thereof and out of the treasury of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions" by reducing the retirement age

Section 1 Section 3 of the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 566) entitled "An act requiring cities of the first class to establish a pension fund for employees of said cities and all county or other public employees if any paid by appropriation of the city councils thereof and out of the treasury of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions" as amended by the act approved the fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 689) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 3 Every person now or hereafter employed by the said cities or paid out of the city treasury thereof as herein above provided if any of the age of [sixty] fifty-five years and upwards who shall have been so employed for a period of twenty years or more shall upon application to the board of pensions herein created be retired from service and shall during the remainder of his or her life receive a pension or compensation fixed by this act subject to such qualifications as are herein contained Provided That if any person or persons had been employed by the said cities for a period covering eighteen years or more prior to the passage of this act and shall thereafter be reemployed it shall be necessary that the period of their reemployment shall extend over a period of two years or more before such person or persons shall be entitled to receive the pension fixed by this act

Section 2 Section 4 of said act as last amended by the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 852) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 4 During the lifetime of the said person he or she shall be entitled to receive a pension from the fund set aside for the purpose of fifty per centum of the amount which would constitute the average rate of pay at which he or she was employed during the highest salaried five years of his or her employment by the said city or other public employment as aforesaid Said pension shall be paid in monthly payments Provided That if any pension be granted to a person who has not been a contributor to the pension fund as herein provided during a period of twenty years such person shall be required to pay into the board of pensions monthly an amount equal to two per centum of his or her pension until such time as his or her contribution shall have extended during a period of twenty years Should any person so employed after twenty years of service be dismissed voluntarily retire or be in any manner deprived of his position or employment before attaining the age of [sixty] fifty-five years upon continuing a monthly payment to the fund equal to the last amount due and paid monthly while in active service said person shall be entitled to a pension above mentioned notwithstanding he or she has not attained the age of [sixty] fifty-five years at the time of his or her separation from the public service but said pension shall not commence until he or she has attained the age of [sixty] fifty-five years Should any employee however become totally and permanently disabled while in the service after twenty years of service and before attaining the age of [sixty] fifty-five years he or she shall be entitled to the said pension Proof of total and permanent disability shall consist of the sworn statement of three practicing physicians designated by the board that the employee is in a permanent condition of health which would totally disable him or her from performing the duties of his or her position or office Provided That in cases where the nature of such disability is such as to disable the employee from performing any work whatsoever either within or without the scope of his regular duties or within or without the service of such city or county the board may upon a recommendation of the three practicing physicians herein provided for retire upon pension such applicant after a service of fifteen years Provided further That the benefits of this amendment shall apply to members of the pension fund who have been contributors to the said fund for five years or more The pension paid to any one employee whose monthly payments into the pension fund have been four dollars or less a month shall not exceed one hundred dollars per month The pension paid to any one employee whose monthly payments into the pension fund have been more than four dollars a month for a period of at least two years may exceed one hundred dollars per month but shall not exceed two hundred dollars per month Provided That if an employee upon the date of retirement from service shall have made payments of more than four dollars a month into the pension fund for a period of less than two years his or her pension shall not exceed one hundred dollars per month but an amount equal to the total amount paid in excess over four dollars a month shall be returned to such employee

The pension to be paid to any former employee who was dismissed voluntarily retired or in any manner was deprived of his position and employment after having twenty years of service as an employee of said city and who has continued making payments to the fund equal to the last amount due and paid monthly while in active service and who has not accepted any pension under the provisions of the act to which this is an amendment shall be at the pension rate as provided in section five and his payments to the board of pensions after the first day of September one thousand nine hundred forty-five shall be in an amount equal to the amount which he would have been permitted to make had he continued in the employ of said city after the first day of September one thousand nine hundred forty-five and had continued to be paid the same salary as he received when he was last employed by said city This new amount whether it be more less or the same as the amount which he paid prior to the first day of September one thousand nine hundred forty-five he shall continue to pay until he applies for a pension under the provisions of this act If there be any difference between the amount which he has paid from the first day of September one thousand nine hundred forty-five and the amount which he has elected to pay under the provisions of section five he shall pay such difference into the board of pensions within six months of the effective date of this amendment

Section 3 Section 4.1 of said act as added thereto by the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 845) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 4.1 (a) Anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding and except as otherwise provided in this section any employe of such cities or paid out of the city treasuries thereof in active service on or after the effective date of this act who is a contributor to and member of the pension fund of such cities may elect to receive and shall be paid a lesser pension during his lifetime if and when he meets the requirements of this section Such election shall be made by application to the board of pensions

(b) Every employe in active service on or after the effective date of this act who is dismissed voluntarily retired or in any manner deprived of his position or employment with fifteen years or more but less than twenty years of service and who has contributed to the pension fund for a like period and who has reached the age of [sixty] fifty-five years or upwards may apply for such lesser pension

(c) Every employe in active service on or after the effective date of this act who is dismissed voluntarily retired or in any manner deprived of his position or employment after fifteen years or more but less than twenty years of service before attaining the age of [sixty] fifty-five years upon continuing until he reaches the age of [sixty] fifty-five years a monthly payment to the fund equal to the last amount due and paid monthly while in active service may apply for such lesser pension when he reaches the age of [sixty] fifty-five years

(d) Every such lesser pension shall be proportionate to the pension which the employe would be entitled to receive after twenty years of service and contribution computed as if he had continued to receive during the remainder of the twenty years the same salary as at the time of the termination of his active service as his number of months of service is to two hundred forty months

(e) Payment of the monthly amount of contribution shall cease and be discontinued at the time any such employe begins to receive the lesser pension provided by this section

Section 4 Section 14 of said act as added thereto by the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 852) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 14 In addition to the pension which is authorized by this act and notwithstanding the limitations therein placed upon pensions and upon contributions every contributor who shall become entitled to the payment of a pension and who has been employed by the said city or county for at least twenty-one years shall also be entitled to the payment in addition to the said pension of a "service increment" in accordance with and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth

(1) Service increment shall be the sum obtained by computing the number of whole years in excess of twenty years during which a contributor has been employed by such city or county and paid out of the city treasury and multiplying the said number of years so computed by an amount equal to one-fortieth of the pension which has become payable to such contributor in accordance with the provisions of this act Provided That no service increment may be paid for employment of more than twenty such excess years nor for any excess years which shall accrue after a contributor has reached the age of sixty-five years and no service increment shall be paid in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per month

(2) Each contributor from and after the effective date of this amendment shall pay into the board of pensions a monthly sum in addition to his or her pension contribution which shall be equal to one-half of one per centum of his or her salary Provided That such payment shall not exceed the sum of one dollar ($1.00) per month nor shall the total payment for pension contribution and service increment contribution exceed thirteen dollars ($13.00) per month And Provided That such service increment contribution shall not be paid after a contributor has reached the age of sixty-five years

(3) Persons who are pension fund contributors on the effective date of this amendment who have already reached the age of sixty-five years shall have his or her service increment computed on the years of employment prior to the date of reaching his or her sixty-fifth birthday

(4) Any pension fund contributor who shall after the effective date of this act leave the service of such city or county after having completed at least twenty years' service but before reaching the age of [sixty] fifty-five years and who shall continue to pay pension contributions into the pension fund shall not pay service increment contributions after the date of leaving the service of such city or county and shall have his or her service increment limited to the actual years spent in the service of such city or county

(5) Service increment contributions shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as pension contributions and may be withdrawn in full without interest by persons who leave the employment of such city or county subject to the same conditions by which pension contributions may be withdrawn When any person is re-employed by the city or county after withdrawal of pension contributions his or her prior service shall not be used in the computation of service increment unless the amount of such contributions be repaid into the pension fund subject to the same conditions by which pension fund withdrawals are permitted to be repaid

(6) All employes of such city or county who are now contributors to the pension fund and all persons who are employed by such city and county after the effective date of this amendment who are required to become contributors to the pension fund shall be subject to the provisions of this amendment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 971, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred one (P. L. 493) entitled as amended "An act providing for the examination licensure and registration of persons firms or corporations engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage and prescribing certain rules regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools in cities of the second class second class A and third class and imposing fines penalties and forfeiture for violation thereof" by permitting the use of bituminized-fibre pipe is certain plumbing construction

Section 1 The third paragraph of Section 8 of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred one (P. L. 493) entitled as amended "An act providing for the examination licensure and registration of persons firms or corporations engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage and prescribing certain rules regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools in cities of the second class second class A and third class and imposing fines penalties and forfeiture for violation thereof" as last amended by the act approved the thirty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 168) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Materials of House or Building Drains

Section 8

The size of the main house drain shall be determined by the total area of the buildings and paved surfaces to be drained according to the following table if iron pipe or bituminized-fibre pipe is used If the pipe is terra cotta the diameter shall be one size larger for the same amount of area draining

Diameter	Fall ¼ inch Per Foot	Fall ½ inch Per Foot
4 inches	1,800 square ft drainage area	2,500 square ft drainage area
5 inches	3,000 square ft drainage area	4,500 square ft drainage area
6 inches	5,000 square ft drainage area	7,500 square ft drainage area
8 inches	9,100 square ft drainage area	13,600 square ft drainage area
10 inches	14,000 square ft drainage area	20,000 square ft drainage area

Section 2 Said act is hereby amended by adding after Section 13 a new section to read as follows

Section 13.1 Where the ground is of sufficient solidity for a proper foundation cylindrical bituminized-fibre pipe of the best quality free from flaws splits or cracks and meeting the applicable commercial standards of the United States Department of Commerce may be used if laid on a smooth bottom in order to give the pipe a solid bearing on its entire length and the soil well rammed on each side of the pipe the tapered ends connected with a bituminized-fibre coupling

Where bituminized-fibre drain pipe joins cast iron drain pipe a suitable adapter must be used and caulked with oakum or a suitable material of a similar nature and poured lead and where bituminized-fibre drain pipe joins terra cotta drain pipe a suitable adapter must be used and caulked with oakum or a suitable material of a similar nature and a hot pitch tar or asphaltum compound It must not be laid closer than five feet to any exterior wall of a building or when the sewer passes near a well nor will it be allowed in bad or made ground

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Ziegler.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Ziegler, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ZIEGLER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I believe quite a few Members of the House would like to know of what bituminized-fibre pipe is composed.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, bituminized-fibre pipe is composed of 75 percent coal tar pitch by weight and 25 percent cellulose fibres.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I note in the setup of the bill from Section 13.1 down to the end of the bill that there are quite a few precautions taken in regard to the placement of this pipe in construction work. What is the necessity for that sort of precaution being taken?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inform the gentleman that it is not a precaution. This bill is exactly the same as the original bill in 1901, as amended in 1937. The only difference in this bill is that it permits the use of the bituminized-fibre pipe.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

I, of course, know about as much about the composition of bituminized-fibre pipe as I did before. I am given to understand that cellulose products can be, and in this particular case are, old paper, residue paper and, of course then, using tar or pitch or some product of a petroleum nature together with this, compounding it and making pipe.

I am particularly interested in this respect and I am advised that none of this type of pipe is used in Pennsylvania at the present time and none of it is manufactured in the state of Pennsylvania. This type of pipe, being of such a volatile nature, would create a very detrimental sanitation condition in its use.

We in the state have an industry in a particular area of the state and certainly I should be the last one to get up to oppose this measure, due to the fact that this basic industry and an industry which is large in scope is not operative in my particular district. But we have an industry of ceramics, located in Clearfield County, Armstrong County, Elk, Montgomery, McKean and Jefferson, which would be greatly jeopardized in event this bill passed.

The words "coal tar" are used more or less in the sense to indicate to the membership the fact that possibly there is a substitute use for coal. The tile pipe manufacturers use coal in all of the nearly twenty plants in the state of Pennsylvania in their kilns in drying out their tile pipe which greatly aids a sick industry, the coal industry in Pennsylvania.

We have in these northern counties a considerable industry and it can be hurt by the passage of this bill. Also, I would say that we are putting the stamp of approval upon a type of pipe which we do not know what it is capable of doing. I firmly believe from the evidence that I have seen that the pipe on which we are putting the stamp of approval, in event that we pass this bill, is of such a nature that it will disintegrate in use and cause a great hardship to the users. I do not believe that we should place ourselves in that position and I respectfully urge the Members of the House, and incidentally I want to say that I approach this on a non-partisan basis, I feel that we should not put the stamp of approval upon a commodity that is not tested, one that is sold elsewhere without guarantee and one that will be sold here without guarantee, when we have just as cheap or a cheaper material that we are producing in this state selling with a guarantee of fifty years of life.

I present these viewpoints for your consideration and ask you to vote against House Bill 971.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, as I said before this is not a mandatory bill in any sense of the word. It simply permits cities of the second class, second class A and third class, to use bituminized-fibre pipe if they wish along with cast iron pipe and terra cotta pipe. It is used solely for underground outside the dwelling non-pressure drainage installations.

The gentleman spoke about coal tar pitch. I would like to inform him that coal tar pitch is used on the outside and on the inside of the cast iron pipe as a preservative.

As to its newness or whether it has been accepted, I would further like to call his attention to the fact that cities such as Cleveland, Richmond, Detroit, Milwaukee, and Denver are just a few of the larger cities that have endorsed and permitted the use of this pipe.

Furthermore, the United States Department of Commerce, and the National Bureau of Standards has approved it. In addition, there is now a proposed Uniform National Plumbing Code, and in that proposed Uniform National Plumbing Code bituminized-fibre pipe has been recognized.

Now one more thing. The source of the raw material used in the manufacture of bituminized-fibre pipe 75 percent of it comes from a Pittsburgh company, so I am told. I understand that it is not manufactured in the state of Pennsylvania, but you must take into consideration that 75 percent of the coal tar pitch which composes 75 percent of the pipe itself is a Pennsylvania product. I respectfully request the Members of the House to pass this bill.

Mr. GEER. Mr. Speaker, I do not think the Allegheny delegation has in any way realized that this thing affected Pittsburgh, and our particular district. I do not think we appreciated the significance of the bill and I feel that we should have another day to give it consideration if that could possibly be granted by the sponsor, because we really do not know how important it is to our county at this time.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, I might say that I had a similar request from a Member of the minority from Allegheny last week. I held it over and accepted the amendments from the gentleman, and we approved the amendments. On Monday when I conferred with him again he said that they were perfectly willing to withdraw the amendments, so I returned the amendments to the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I want to demonstrate that this really is a non-partisan measure, although why I should directly or indirectly come to the rescue of the gentleman from Dauphin I would not know.

In our Democratic caucus, I think a majority of the Members, or at least a considerable number of them, opposed this bill.

Personally, since it is not a party matter, I believe in free enterprise. I believe that commodities should go on the market find their place, survive or perish on the basis of their merit. I do not believe it is our function to protect cast iron pipe, concrete pipe, or any other kind of pipe. Neither is it our business to prescribe the use of bituminized-fibre pipe. I do believe that if the engineers in a third class city or a second class city, the engineering department of that city, finds that bituminized-fibre pipe is suited to their use in that particular locality they should be premitted to use it. So, personally, I favor the enactment of this bill.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, I just wish to thank the gentleman from Cambria, and I think his support comes to me solely because of the fact that I too am a fellow pipe smoker.

Mr. PETROSKY. Just one word more, Mr. Speaker. I fully realize that the inside and the outside of an iron pipe is surfaced with coal tar pitch, but in this particular type of pipe, which is old compressed paper, impregnated with coal tar pitch, and then again lined with it, and coated with it on the outside, gives it no greater durability and the possibility of its breaking down and creating unsanitary conditions is enough to indicate that we should not put our stamp of approval upon it.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry to prolong this matter but I would like to call the gentleman's attention to the fact that in a community in New York the municipal sewage line was laid in 1906 of bituminized-fibre. In 1950 it was examined by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and was found to be in very good condition. That is approximately 43 or 44 years. I might add that at the present time at State College a very large installation of bituminized-fibre pipe is being used.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas were taken and were as follows:

FORMER MEMBERS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to Hall of the House a former Member and Majority Leader of the House, the gentleman from Monroe, Honorable Leo A. Achferman.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is also pleased to welcome another former Member of the House, the gentleman from Adams, Honorable George L. Baugher.

EXTENDING INVITATION TO REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Mr. SMITH offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 8, 1951.

Whereas, Philadelphia is truly a national shrine where our American liberty was conceived and attained;

Whereas, Philadelphia is intimately identified with the earliest beginning of our colonial era in which the stirring qualities of tolerance, good will, and peaceful living became dominant;

Whereas, Philadelphia has builded upon said colonial background a great metropolitan area, characterized with adequate facilities for transporting, housing and feeding thousands of visitors

Whereas, Philadelphia offers rich rewards in culture, art, recreation and entertainment to its countless visitors who seek esthetic enjoyment or healthful relaxation

Whereas, Philadelphia by virtue of its geographical site and historical lore, has become the epitome of American democracy; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives (if the Senate concur) extend to the Republican National Committee at Tulsa, Oklahoma, its most cordial invitation to hold its 1952 convention for the nomination of president and vice-president in Philadelphia and express its assurance that every convenience and comfort shall be available for the delegates in the discharge of their privileges duties.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 990, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 566) entitled "A supplement to the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 127, as follows:

An Act to further amend section 15 and to amend section 29 of the act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1092) entitled "An act defining fraternal benefit societies and their status authorizing such societies to create subordinate lodges and to pay benefits to members and their beneficiaries from funds collected and regulating such benefits and collections providing for the organization and incorporation of such societies and fore their supervision regulation and examination by the Insurance Commissioner and for the admission of foreign societies designating tables of mortality as a basis for rates of contribution requiring all societies to make annual and other reports and appointing the Insurance Commissioner as attorney for service of process providing penalties for any violations of the act exempting such societies from taxation and certain other societies from its provisions and requiring beneficial associations other than fraternal benefit societies to report to and be supervised by the Insurance Commissioner and repealing existing laws" by regulating the transfer of excess insurance funds to the expense and other funds and providing for the consolidation of any society's funds further regulating reports of valuation of death benefit fund obligations regulating reserves and contributions for benefits

Section 1 Section 15 of the act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1092) entitled "An act defining fraternal benefit societies and their status authorizing such societies to create subordinate lodges and to pay benefits to members and their beneficiaries from funds collected and regulating such benefits and collections providing for the organization and incorporation of such societies and for their supervision regulation and examination by the Insurance Commissioner and for the admission of foreign societies designating tables of mortality as a basis for rates of contribution requiring all societies to make annual and other reports and appointing the Insurance Commissioner as attorney for service of process providing penalties for any violations of the act exempting such societies from taxation and certain other societies from its provisions and requiring beneficial associations other than fraternal benefit societies to report to and be supervised by the Insurance Commissioner and repealing existing laws" as amended by the act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 686) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 15 Funds Securities The funds from which benefits shall be paid and the funds from which expenses of the society shall be defrayed shall be derived from regular monthly or other periodical rates of contribution paid by the members of the society and accretions of said funds as apportioned in accordance with the constitution and laws of the society and no part of any funds set aside for the payment of benefits shall be used for expenses or other purposes [that would impair the valuation of the certificates herein provided] except that any such society having admitted assets as shown by its last annual statement filed with the Insurance Commissioner in excess of one hundred per cent of its entire liabilities including its required reserves computed on a net tabular basis may transfer or allocate such excess insurance funds to the expense or other funds of the society in accordance with its constitution and by-laws but the amount so transferred in any calendar year shall not exceed five per cent of the total premium income of such society during the next preceding calendar year Any such society having admitted assets as shown by its last annual statement filed with the Insurance Commissioner in excess of one hundred per cent of its entire liabilities including its required reserves computed on a net tabular basis not lower than the American Experience Table of Mortality with an interest rate of three and one-half per cent may in accordance with its constitution and by-laws provide for the consolidation of its various funds and may report its transactions accordingly provided that no expenses will be incurred that would impair the reserve base or bases which it is using Except as herein otherwise allowed every domestic society shall invest its funds only in securities and in the manner permitted by the laws of this Commonwealth for the investment of the funds of life insurance companies and in securities of Federal savings and loan associations or of other institutions to the extent that such investment is guaranteed by the United States Government or any instrumentality thereof Unless the approval of the Insurance Commissioner shall be first obtained in writing no domestic society shall keep or maintain at a place outside this Commonwealth any securities or other assets except such as are necessary for the collection of current dues and to enable it to comply with the laws of any other state or foreign country for the purpose of transacting business therein

Section 2 Section 29 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 29 Valuation Report In addition to the annual report herein required each society shall annually report to the insurance commissioner a valuation of its benefit fund obligations in force on December thirty-first last preceding [excluding those entered into within the year for which the report is filed in cases where the contributions for the first year in whole or in part are used for current expenses] Such report of valuation shall show as contingent liabilities the present mid-year value of the promised benefits provided in the constitution and laws of such society under certificates then subject to valuation at not more than four per cent interest less such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies and as contingent assets the present mid-year value at the same rate of interest of [the] such future net contributions provided in [its constitution and laws of the same] the constitution and laws of such society as are in practice actually collected

In lieu of the above valuation any society at its option may show the net value of its benefit fund obligations subject to valuation at the rate of interest as hereinbefore provided and said net value when computed in the case of monthly contributions may be the mean of the terminal value for the end of the preceding and of the current certificate years from which said tabular values shall be deducted such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies

Each valuation report shall be certified by a competent accountant or actuary or at the request and expense of the society verified by the actuary of the Department of Insurance of the home state of the society and shall be filed with the Insurance Commissioner on or before the first day of April succeeding the submission of the last preceding annual report

The minimum standard of valuation for death benefit fund obligations issued prior to the first day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two shall be the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality hereinbefore referred to or at the option of the society by any other standard table or a table based upon the society's own experience of at least twenty years and covering not less than one hundred thousand lives with an interest assumption of not more than four per cent

The minimum standard of valuation for death benefit fund obligations issued on and after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two shall be the American Experience Table of Mortality with an interest assumption of not more than three and one-half per cent

Every valuation report shall set forth clearly and fully the mortality and interest basis and the method of valuation Any society providing for cancellable disability benefits shall keep a separate account of the same in its said valuation report shall [charge as a liability the balance to the credit of such fund or funds at the date of such valuation Where a combined contribution table is used by a society for both death and permanent and total disability benefits the valuation may be of death benefit only and in such case a separate accounting shall not be required] establish and maintain a reserve of one-half of the periodic contribution for such benefits On and after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two the minimum basis for contributions and reserves for disability benefits and double indemnity benefits shall be the minimum basis required of legal reserve life insurance companies for such benefits

Nothing herein contained shall require a society which has adopted a procedure for strengthening its reserve to modify any existing non-forfeiture benefits which had been previously used

A report of such valuation with such explanations as the society may deem advisable shall be printed and mailed to each beneficial member of the society not later than July first of each year or in lieu thereof may be published in the society's official paper and the issue containing the same mailed to each beneficial member of the society

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STIMMEL. Mr. Speaker, with your permission I would at this time like to give a brief resume of what is intended to be accomplished by the six Senate bills on today's calendar that are up for third reading and final passage.

Senate Bill 127 would further regulate the consolidation of funds, valuation reports, and reserves of fraternal benefit organizations under what is commonly known and commonly considered good life insurance practice.

Senate Bill 128 contains amendments to the Insurance Department law as worked out by the Commissioner and committees of the industry. It provides for assessments on our Pennsylvania Life Insurance Companies to meet their share of the expenses of the committee of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and the valuation of securities. It also amends the retaliatory law to limit the imposition of taxes on Pennsylvania companies under this law on an aggregate basis. It will also allow companies of a state having a monopolistic state fund in any particular line of insurance to write that line in Pennsylvania. And it further provides for the computation of reserve liability in foreign life insurance companies which are principally Canadian companies to bring their reserves into line with that required of the United States companies.

Senate Bill 136 would further define life policies, with a premium basis for such policies and the limitation of transfers within this group.

Senate Bill 140 would bring the investment provisions in fire and casualty into substantial conformity, the one with the other and extending the same to permit Pennsylvania companies to do business in other countries.

Senate Bill 320 would amend the group accident and health law so as to make it conform to the group life law in regard to policies issued under a trustee plan.

Senate Bill 341 would allow limited life insurance companies to write higher weekly health and accident benefits.

Now, I recognize the fact that these bills are highly technical. If there are any individual questions as the bills come up, I would be glad to stand interrogation.

I would just like to say this, that these bills will do this in brief: they will place into the hands of our Insurance Commissioner the proper authority by law to safeguard the public. They will increase the advantages of contracts to policy holders. They will place our home, our Pennsylvania companies, those companies that are incorporated in the Commonwealth, in a favorable competitive position with other companies such as New York state, Texas, California, and so forth. Most important they will provide uniformity of laws with other states.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 128, as follows:

An Act to amend subsections (d) and (f) of section 211.1 and to further amend section 212 and subsection (a) of section 301 of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 789) entitled as amended "An act relating to insurance establishing an insurance department and amending revising and consolidating the law relating to the licensing qualification regulation examination suspension and dissolution of insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and certain societies and orders the examination and regulation of fire insurance rating bureaus and the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and brokers the service of legal process upon foreign insurance companies associations or exchanges providing penalties and repealing existing laws" by further regulating assessments made by the Insurance Commissioner against life insurance companies to defray certain expenses providing for reciprocity with other states in assessing taxes and fees on insurance companies permitting foreign companies to write workmen's compensation insurance in Pennsylvania limiting the basis for valuation of reserve liability of life insurance companies organized in foreign countries

Section 1 Subsections (d) and (f) of section 211.1 of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 789) entitled as amended "An act relating to insurance establishing an insurance department and amending revising and consolidating the law relating to the licensing qualification regulation examination suspension and dissolution and insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and certain societies and orders the examination and regulation of fire insurance rating bureaus and the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and brokers the service of legal process upon foreign insurance companies associations or exchanges providing penalties and repealing existing laws" as added by the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1529) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 211.1 Assessments to Defray Expenses of Committee on Valuation of Securities of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners

(d) If the Insurance Commissioner shall be satisfied as to the reasonableness of such budget estimate he shall determine the portion of the funds required by such budget estimate to be assessed as hereinafter provided by deducting from such budget estimate or from the sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars whichever is less any amounts received or receivable by the committee from other states whose laws do not substantially conform to the method of assessment herein provided and applying to the remainder the proportion which the total investments in securities of domestic life insurers bear to the total investments in securities of life insurers domiciled in this and other states whose laws authorize and require assessment on substantially the same base as herein provided. The Insurance Commissioner shall thereafter as soon as convenient by notice stating the method of computation thereof assess the amount of be paid on account of such expense pro rata upon all domestic life insurers in the proportion which the total investments in securities of each domestic life insurer shall bear to the total investments in securities of all such insurers. Provided That the aggregate amount assessed upon all domestic life insurers pursuant to this section in any one year shall not exceed an amount determined by applying to the "remainder" referred to in the first sentence of this subsection the proportion which the total investments in securities of domestic life insurers bear to seventyfive per cent of the total investments in securities of all life insurers domiciled in all the states of the United States and the District of Columbia. The total investments in securities of any life insurer for purposes of this section shall be the total admitted value of stock and bonds reported as such in its annual statement last filed prior to such assessment with the insurance department or with the supervisory official of its state of domicile. Upon receipt of such notice each such insurer shall within thirty days pay said assessment to the Insurance Commissioner. The Insurance Commissioner shall deposit all moneys collected by him pursuant to this section in an account entitled "Insurance Commissioner Security Valuation Expense Account" in a bank or trust company in the Commonwealth. Such moneys shall be paid by the Insurance Commissioner to the Committee on Valuation of Securities of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners after audit by the Auditor General.

(f) This section shall become effective the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and shall continue in effect until and including the thirty-first day of May [one thousand nine hundred fifty-one] one thousand nine hundred fifty-three.

Section 2 Section 212 of said act as last amended by the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 430) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 212 Effect of Additional Restrictions of Other States As used in this section the term

"Insurance Companies" includes insurance companies insurance associations and insurance exchanges.

"Agents" includes insurance agents insurance brokers public adjusters and public adjusters' solicitors.

"Burdens or Prohibitions" includes taxes fines penalties licenses fees rules regulations obligations and prohibitions including prohibitions against writing particular kinds of insurance by insurance companies [and including laws rules or regulations which provide that a particular kind or kinds of insurance may be written only by a state or an agency or instrumentality thereof].

If any other state imposes any burdens or prohibitions on insurance companies or agents of this state doing business in such other state which are in addition to or in excess of the burdens or prohibitions imposed by this Commonwealth on insurance companies and agents like burdens and prohibitions shall be imposed on all insurance companies and agents of such other state doing business in this Commonwealth so long as the burdens and prohibitions of such other state remain in force. In applying this section to an insurance company of another state such company shall not be required to pay any taxes and fees which are greater in aggregate amount than those which would be imposed by the laws of such other state and any political subdivision thereof upon a like company of this Commonwealth transacting the same volume and kind of business in such other state.

If any other state requires additional or other insurance covering motorists or motor vehicles that are insured in Pennsylvania insurance companies or in insurance companies of other states that are licensed to do business in this Commonwealth in order to use the highways of such other state like additional or other insurance shall be required to cover all motorists and motor vehicles of such other state using the highways of this Commonwealth so long as the requirement of such other state shall remain in force.

The existence of a monopolistic State Fund for the writing of any class or classes of insurance in another state shall not be construed as a reason to deny to a company association or exchange of that state a license to transact such classes of insurance in this Commonwealth.

Section 3 Subsection (a) of Section 301 of said act as last amended by the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 346) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 301 Computation of Reserve Liability (a) The Insurance Commissioner shall each year value or cause to be valued the reserve liabilities (hereinafter called reserves or net value) as of the thirty-first day of December of the preceding year for all outstanding life insurance policies and annuity and pure endowment contracts of every life insurance company doing business in this Commonwealth except that in the case of any company organized under the laws of any foreign country such valuation shall be limited to its United States business in accordance with the terms of the policy contract and rules following and may certify the amount of any such reserves specifying the mortality table or tables rate or rates of interest and methods (net level premium method or other) used in the calculation of such reserves. In calculating such reserves he may use group methods and approximate averages for fractions of a year or otherwise.

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 136, as follows:

An Act to amend Section 1 Clause (8) of Section six and Section nine of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1210) entitled "An act relating to group life insurance describing permitted policies and restrictions thereon the premium basis thereof and rights thereunder limiting the amount of such insurance prescribing standard policy provisions and requiring notice of conversion privileges" by further defining policies of group life insurance limiting the amount of an individual policy issued to a person entitled thereto and changing the premium basis and rate of interest thereon

Section 1 Section 1 of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1210) entitled "An act relating to group life insurance describing permitted policies and restrictions thereon the premium basis thereof and rights thereunder limiting the amount of such insurance prescribing standard policy provisions and requiring notice of conversion privileges" are hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new clause to read as follows

(6) Nothing contained herein shall be construed to define as a group the lives covered by (a) a policy insuring only individuals related by marriage by blood or by legal adoption or (b) a joint life policy insuring only individuals having an insurable interest in each other's lives

Section 2 Clause (8) of section 6 and section 9 of said act hereby amended to read as follows

Section 6 Standard Policy Provisions No policy of group life insurance shall be delivered in this State unless it contains in substance the following provisions or provisions which in the opinion of the Insurance Commissioner are more favorable to the persons insured or at least as favorable to the persons insured and more favorable to the policyholder Provided however That (i) provisions (6) to (10) inclusive shall not apply to policies issued to a creditor to insure debtors of such creditor (ii) the standard provisions required for individual life insurance policies shall not apply to group life insurance policies and (iii) if the group life insurance policy is on a plan of insurance other than the term plan it shall contain a non-forfeiture provision or provisions which in the opinion of the Commissioner is or are equitable to the insured persons and to the policyholder but nothing herein shall be construed to require that group life insurance policies contain the same non-forfeiture provisions as are required for individual life insurance policies

(8) A provision that if the insurance or any portion of it on a person covered under the policy ceases because of termination of employment or of membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage under the policy such person shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer without evidence of insurability an individual policy of life insurance without disability or other supplementary benefits provided application for the individual policy shall be made and the first premium paid to the insurer within thirty-one days after such termination and provided further that

(i) The individual policy shall at the option of such person be on any one of the forms except term insurance then customarily issued by the insurer at the age and for the amount applied for

(ii) The individual policy shall be in an amount not in excess of the amount of life insurance which ceases because of such termination less in the case of a person whose membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage terminates but who continues in employment in another class the amount of any life insurance for which such person is or becomes eligible under any other group policy within thirty-one days after such termination Provided That any amount of insurance which shall have matured on or before the date of such termination as an endowment payable to the persons insured whether in one sum or in installments or in the form of an annuity shall not for the purposes of this provision be included in the amount which is considered to cease because of such termination and

(iii) The premium on the individual policy shall be at the insurer's then customary rate applicable to the form and amount of the individual policy to the class of risk to which such person then belongs and to his age attained on the effective date of the individual policy

Section 9 Premium Basis No domestic life insurance company shall [issue] deliver in this Commonwealth any policy of group life insurance the premium for which shall be less than the net premium based on the [American man ultimate table of mortality] Commissioners 1941 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table with interest at three [and one-half] per centum per annum plus a loading the formula for the computation of which shall be determined by the Insurance Commissioner A foreign life insurance company which shall not conduct its business in accordance with this requirement shall not be permitted to do business in this Commonwealth Any such policy may however anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding provide for a readjustment of the rate based on experience at the end of the first or any subsequent year of insurance which readjustment may be made retroactive for such policy year only

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

(i) The commission shall also have authority to petition the court of quarter sessions of the county wherein is situate any public road or part thereof affected by the location therein of the turnpike for the vacation relocation or supply of the same or any part thereof with the same force and effect as is now given by existing laws to the inhabitants of any township of such county and the proceedings upon such petition whether it be for the appointment of viewers or otherwise shall be the same as provided by existing law for similar proceedings upon such petitions

(j) The commission shall otherwise have all of the powers and perform all of the duties prescribed by the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 774) and any supplements or amendments thereto

(k) Adequate compensation shall be made by the commission out of funds provided under the authority of this act for damages to all public or private property taken injured or destroyed in carrying out the powers granted by this act or such property may be restored or repaired and placed in its original condition as nearly as practicable as the commission may deem it expedient in any particular case

Section 7 (a) Each member of the commission shall be reimbursed for the necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the duties performed under the provisions of this act

(b) All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid solely from funds provided under the authority of this act and sufficient funds shall be provided under the authority of this act to meet any liability or obligation incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act

(c) Before the issuance of any turnpike revenue bonds notes or other obligations under the provisions of this act each appointed member of the commission shall execute a bond in the penalty of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) and the secretary and treasurer shall execute a bond in the penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) each such bond to be approved by the Governor and to be conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office under the provisions of this act which bonds shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth

Section 8 (a) The commission is hereby authorized and empowered to condemn by resolution any lands interests in lands property rights rights of way franchises easements and other property deemed necessary or convenient for the construction and efficient operation of the turnpike or necessary in the restoration or relocation of public or private property damaged or destroyed and the date of such resolution shall be the effective date of condemnation

(b) The commission is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire by purchase whenever it shall deem such purchase expedient any lands interests in lands property rights rights of way franchises easements and other property deemed necessary or convenient for the construction and efficient operation of the turnpike or necessary in the restoration or relocation of public or private property damaged or destroyed whether the same had theretofore been condemned or otherwise upon such terms and at such price as may be considered by it to be reasonable and can be agreed upon between the commission and the owner thereof and to take title thereto in the name of the commission

Section 9 (a) Whenever a reasonable sum representing the damages cannot be agreed upon or whenever the owner is legally incapacitated or unable to convey valid title or is absent or unknown either the commission acting through the Department of Justice or any owner or owners shall apply to the court of common pleas of the county in which the property is located or in the case of property located in two or more counties then in any one of such counties for the appointment of viewers to determine as hereinafter provided the amount of damages resulting from the taking Whereupon said court or any law judge thereof shall appoint three disinterested freeholders to view such property and estimate the value thereof None of the freeholders shall be a resident of the county wherein such application shall be made The court shall fix a time not less than twenty nor more than thirty days thereafter when the viewers shall meet upon the property and view the same The viewers shall cause at least ten days' personal notice of the time and place of such meeting to be given to the Attorney General to the commission and to the owner or owners if resident within said county If the owner is a corporation such notice shall be given to the president secretary or treasurer thereof if such officer resides within said county If neither owner nor any of such officers reside within the county or cannot be found therein or is unknown notice of such first meeting shall be given as the court may direct The viewers having been duly sworn or affirmed faithfully and impartially to perform the duties required of them under the provisions of this act shall at the time fixed for the first meeting proceed to ascertain as accurately as may be the value of such land property rights rights of way easements or franchises and to that end may require the attendance of any person whose testimony may be pertinent thereto and production of any such books or papers as the viewers may deem necessary. If any person shall refuse to appear and testify before such viewers or refuse to produce such books and papers when they are required then the court or any judge thereof shall on application of the viewers or a quorum thereof make such order therein as may be necessary. Whenever the viewers shall have ascertained the value of the lands property rights rights of way easements or franchises they shall prepare a full report of their labors. Upon the completion of the report the viewers shall fix a time when they shall meet and exhibit same. Ten days written notice of the time and place of such meeting together with a copy of said report shall be given to the commission to the Attorney General and to the owner or owners of the property condemned. At the time and place mentioned in such notice the viewers shall meet and publicly exhibit the report and hear all exceptions thereto. After making any changes in such report as they may deem necessary the same shall be filed in the court. Within thirty days after the filing of the report in the court the commission acting through the Department of Justice or any person interested may file exceptions thereto. Whereupon the court shall either confirm the report absolutely or modify it or refer it back to the same or to any viewers with like powers and duties of the former viewers. Within thirty days after the final action on the report by the court the commission acting through the Department of Justice or any person interested may demand a trial by jury. From the action of the court on exceptions or from any judgment after a jury trial an appeal may be taken by any party to the Supreme or Superior Court. Each of the viewers shall receive a sum not exceeding ten dollars for each day actually and necessarily employed in the performance of the duties herein prescribed and all necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of his duties. Title to any property condemned by the commission shall be taken in the name of the commission. Prior to physical entry upon the land the commission shall be under no obligation to accept and pay for any property condemned or any costs incidental to any condemnation proceedings. Provided however That in any condemnation proceedings the court having jurisdiction of the suit action or proceeding may make such orders as may be just to the commission and to the owners of the property to be condemned and may require an undertaking or other security to secure such owners against any loss or damage by reason of the failure of the commission to enter upon accept and pay for the property but neither such undertaking or security nor any act or obligation of the commission shall impose any liability upon the Commonwealth except such as may be paid from the funds provided under the authority of this act.

The commission in its discretion may vacate any portion or all of the land condemned either prior to or after physical entry upon the land or any part thereof and prior to final determination of damages. In such cases the commission shall be under no obligation to accept and pay for any property condemned and subsequently vacated. Provided however that in any such case the court having jurisdiction of the suit action or proceeding may make such orders as may be just to the commission and to the owners of the property and may require an undertaking or other security to secure such owners against any and all loss or damages occasioned to the owner from the time of the original condemnation to the time of the modification thereof but neither such undertaking or security nor any act or obligation of the commission shall impose any liability upon the Commonwealth except such as may be paid from the funds provided under the authority of this act.

(b) In addition to the foregoing powers the commission and its authorized agents and employees may enter upon any lands waters and premises in the State for the purpose of making surveys soundings drillings and examinations as it may deem necessary or convenient for the purpose of this act and such entry shall not be deemed a trespass nor shall an entry for such purposes be deemed an entry under any condemnation proceedings which may be then pending. Provided however That the commission shall make reimbursement for any actual damages resulting to such lands waters and premises as a result of such activities.

(c) All counties cities boroughs townships and other political subdivisions and municipalities and all public agencies and commissions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania notwithstanding any contrary provision of law are hereby authorized and empowered to lease lend grant or convey to the commission upon its request upon such terms and conditions as the proper authorities of such counties cities boroughs townships other political subdivisions and municipalities or public agencies and commissions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania may deem reasonable and fair and without the necessity for any advertisement order of court or other action or formality other than the regular and formal action of the authorities concerned any real property which may be necessary or convenient to the effectuation of the authorized purposes of the commission including public roads and other real property already devoted to public use.

Section 10 Whenever the commission has condemned any lands rights rights of way easements and franchises or interests therein as hereinbefore provided and has tendered a bond or other security to secure the owner or owners for damages and the same has been accepted or if the acceptance of said bond has been refused and the same has been filled in and approved by the court of common pleas in the county in which the property is located or in the case of property located in two or more counties then in any one of such counties the commission shall have the right to immediate possession of the property covered by the bond and may enter thereon in the name of the commission. If the owner lessee or occupier of any of said premises or any building or structure thereon shall refuse to remove his personal property therefrom or give up possession thereof the commission may proceed to obtain possession in the manner now provided by law for the obtaining possession by the Secretary of Highways of occupied structures.

Section 11 (a) The commission is hereby authorized to provide by resolution at one time or from time to time for the issuance of turnpike revenue bonds of the Commonwealth for the purpose of paying the cost as hereinabove defined of the turnpike which resolution shall recite an estimate of such cost. The principal and interest of such bonds shall be payable solely from revenues of the commission including tolls or from such funds as may be available to the commission for that purpose. The bonds shall be dated shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding six per centum per annum payable semi-annually shall mature at such time or times not exceeding forty years from their date or dates as may be determined by the commission and may be made redeemable before maturity at the option of the commission at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the commission prior to the issuance of the bonds. Provided however That the amount of premium on any bonds shall not cause the yield to be more than six per centum per annum from the date of such bonds to the date of their redemption. The bonds may be issued in series with varying provisions as to rates of interest maturity and other provisions not inconsistent with this act but all bonds of whatever series shall share ratably in the tolls hereinafter pledged as security therefor. The principal and interest of such bonds may be made payable in any lawful medium. The commission shall determine the form of bonds including any interest coupons to be attached thereto and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest thereof which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the Commonwealth. The bonds shall bear the facsimile signatures of the Governor and of the chairman of the commission and the facsimile of the official seal of the commission shall be affixed thereto attested by the secretary and treasurer of the commission and any coupons attached thereto shall bear the facsimile signature of the chairman of the mission In case any officer whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds such signature shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery All turnpike revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall have and are hereby declared to have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the negotiable instruments law of the Commonwealth The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form or both as the commission may determine and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bond as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest and registered and coupon bonds shall be interchangeable The commission may sell such bonds in such manner and for such price as it may determine to be for the best interest of the Commonwealth but no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than six per centum per annum computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values The proceeds of such bonds shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the turnpike and shall be disbursed upon requisition of the chairman of the commission under which restrictions if any as the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the trust indenture hereinafter mentioned may provide If the proceeds of such bonds by error of calculation or otherwise shall be less than the cost of the turnpike additional bonds may in like manner be issued to provide the amount of such deficit and unless otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or in the trust indenture shall be deemed to be of the same issue and shall be entitled to payment from the same fund without preference or priority of the bonds first issued If the proceeds of the bonds shall exceed the cost of the turnpike the surplus shall be paid into the fund hereinafter provided for the payment of principal and interest of such bonds Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds the commission may under like restrictions issue temporary bonds with or without coupons exchangeable for definite bonds upon the issuance of the latter The commission may also provide for the replacement of any bond which shall become mutilated or be destroyed or lost Such turnpike revenue bonds may be issued without any other proceedings or the happening of any other condition or things than those proceedings conditions and things which are specified and required by this act

An Act to further amend Section 2 of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 685) entitled "An act designating certain life insurance companies as limited life insurance companies and further describing the powers thereof" by further describing the powers of limited life insurance companies

Section 1 Section 2 of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 685) entitled "An act designating certain life insurance companies as limited life insurance companies and further describing the powers thereof" as last amended by the act approved the tenth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 511) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 2 Powers All limited life insurance companies are hereby specifically empowered to issue policies agreeing to pay not more than twenty-dollars ($20.00) per week in the event of disablement from sickness nor more than double that amount in the event of disability from accident nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) in the event of death from natural or accidental causes and to issue policies of endowment insurance subject to the condition hereinafter provided notwithstanding any limitation to the contrary established by the act of Assembly pursuant to which such corporation shall have been incorporated or reincorporated or by any other act of Assembly or by the provisions of its charter

Any such company may issue policies agreeing to pay in excess of five hundred dollars ($500.00) but not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1000.00) in the event of death from natural and accidental causes provided it has

(a) In the case of stock companies a capital of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) and in addition thereto has accumulated a surplus in the sum of at least twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500.00) or

(b) In the case of mutual companies accumulated a surplus in the sum of at least fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00)

Any such company may issue policies of endowment insurance agreeing to pay not more than one thousand dollars ($1000.00) upon maturity thereof provided it has

(a) In the case of stock companies a capital of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) and in addition thereto has accumulated a surplus in the sum of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) or

(b) In the case of mutual companies accumulated a surplus in the sum of at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00)

Any such company may issue policies agreeing to pay in excess of the weekly limitations herein prescribed but not exceeding [forty-five dollars ($45)] fifty-five dollars ($55) per week and agreeing to pay an additional benefit for hospital and medical expenses for any one sickness or accident not exceeding one hundred fifty dollars ($150) in the event of disablement from sickness or accident provided such policies limit payment of benefits to periods during which insured shall have been admitted as a patient into and as such be necessarily wholly and continuously confined within a duly licensed and incorporated hospital provided it has

(a) In the case of stock companies additional capital of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) and has accumulated additional surplus in the sum of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) or

(b) In the case of mutual companies accumulated additional surplus in the sum of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00)

Such additional capital and additional surplus as required by clauses (a) and (b) of this paragraph shall be deemed to be capital and surplus additional to that required by any of the previous paragraphs of this section or by the act under which such company was incorporated or reincorporated

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 432, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" by providing for nominations and elections of county officers in counties about to undergo a change in classification and imposing certain duties upon county commissioners county boards of elections and others

Section 1 The act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" is hereby amended by adding to Article IX thereof a new subdivision subdivision (d) and two new sections therein sections 990 and 991 to read as follows

(d) Nominations and Elections in Counties about to Undergo a Change in Classification

Section 990 County Boards to Ascertain Offices to be Filled Whenever pursuant to the provisions of The General County Law the Governor certifies a change of classification to any county the board of county commissioners shall immediately after the recording of such change notify the county board of elections of the change in classification The board of elections shall thereupon promptly ascertain all county offices to be filled at the ensuing municipal election as a result of the impending change in classification and any existing county offices which are not to be filled at said election For this purpose it shall be the duty of the chairman of the county committee of each party to send to the board a written notice setting forth all party offices to be filled in the county at the ensuing municipal election

Section 991 Procedure upon Ascertainning Offices When the board shall have ascertained all offices to be filled at the ensuing municipal election it shall proceed as already provided in this article if it is still possible to secure nominations for such offices in accordance with this article at the primary election But if notice of an impending change in classification as hereinbefore provided for does not come to the election board in time for it to ascertain the county offices for the primary election then all candidates who have been or are nominated for county offices pursuant to subdivision (a) or to subdivision (b) of this article shall in all cases where the offices for which they are nominated are the same under the county's present classification and under its new classification which is impending as a result of the Governor's certification be the candidates for those offices except for deaths or withdrawals provided for in this act Provided however That no office which is not automatically established by law for the impending classification shall be deemed to be established by this section Any nomination either for joint county offices or for any separate county office when such offices or office will become either partly or wholly separate or will become joint with one or more presently separate county office upon the ensuing first Monday of January shall not be construed as a nomination for any of the said offices but any person being such a nominee may be nominated for any new office or offices ascertained All offices ascertained which are to be filled at the municipal election in anticipation of the new classification and for which nominations have not been made pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this subdivision may have candidates nominated for them as if vacancies had occurred as to the candidates for such offices and as if they were substituted nominations in accordance with the procedure insofar as it is applicable provided by sections 979 980 and 981 (b) of this act for substituted nominations except that the cause of vacancy set out in the nomination certificates shall not be death or withdrawal but that the office was not ascertained for nominations in time for the regular procedures established by this article

Upon the ascertainment of the offices to be filled at the ensuing municipal election if it shall appear that any candidates have been or will be nominated for offices which are to be abolished as a result of the impending change in classification the county board of elections shall proceed to keep off or to remove from the ballots or ballot labels all such nominations together with the offices involved

Upon the ascertainment of offices to be filled at the municipal election pursuant to notice of change in classification the board shall give notice of all such offices by newspaper publication at least twice in accordance with section 106 of this act indicating whether the nominations thereto were obtained at the primary election or are to be obtained as hereinbefore provided Notice of the November election shall be given as provided in section 1201 of this act and shall set forth (1) any existing county offices which will cease to exist on the ensuing first Monday of January indicating that those offices and any candidates therefor will not appear as such upon the ballots or ballot labels (2) existing county offices which will subsist and the candidates therefor (3) county offices which will come into existence on the ensuing first Monday of January and the candidates therefor

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome a former Member of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Honorable B. Frank Bonham.

SENATE MESSAGES

AMENDED HOUSE BILLS RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

HOUSE BILL No. 341.

An Act giving liens against real property priority over each other in point of time; fixing the time from which priorities extend; and imposing duties on judges and certain court and county officers and employees.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments. The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 4, page 4, line 2, by inserting after the word "repealed" the following: "in so far as it is inconsistent with or supplied by this act"; line 6, by striking out after the word "of" the words "tax liens" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "any lien which now by law has priority to all other liens"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, May 9, 1951.

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The MAJORITY FLOOR LEADER (John M. Walker) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HARWOOD C. BOWMAN, JR., Pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Kittanning, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

We are assembled in this Senate Chamber to serve our fellow men and ultimately thereby to serve God. I wonder if you would join your Chaplain this morning by saying with me a prayer to God, our common Father, in reciting the Lord's Prayer. Let us pray together.

Our Father Who art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

O Lord, our Christ, may we have Thy mind and Thy spirit make us instruments of Thy peace. Where there is hatred, let us so love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light, and where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love, for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The MAJORITY FLOOR LEADER. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. HARE and Mr. STEVENSON, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. Hare asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. TAYLOR, because of illness.

SENATE MESSAGES

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 8, 1951.

Whereas, Philadelphia is truly a national shrine where our American liberty was conceived and attained;

Whereas, Philadelphia is intimately identified with the earliest beginning of our colonial era in which the stirring qualities of tolerance, good will, and peaceful living became dominant;

Whereas, Philadelphia has builded upon said colonial background a great metropolitan area, characterized with adequate facilities for transporting, housing and feeding thousands of visitors;

Whereas, Philadelphia offers rich rewards in culture, art, recreation and entertainment to its countless visitors who seek esthetic enjoyment or healthful relaxation;

Whereas, Philadelphia by virtue of its geographical site and historical lore, has become the epitome of American democracy; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives (if the Senate concur) extend to the Republican National Committee at Tulsa, Oklahoma, its most cordial invitation to hold its 1952 convention for the nomination of president and vice-president in Philadelphia and express its assurance that every convenience and comfort shall be available for the delegates in the discharge of their privileged duties.

L. 261) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 505 State Depositories The Board of Finance and Revenue shall have the power and its duty shall be

(a) To select and designate as depositories for the State moneys banks banking institutions or trust companies which are subject to national or State supervision and each of which

1 Has made written application to the State Treasurer for a deposit of State moneys designating the amount of deposit solicited and accompanying its application by a written statement showing the amount of its capital actually paid in the amount of its surplus the number of its stockholders and whether its stock is well distributed or largely held by a few individuals and the length of time that said institution has been engaged in business under its charter Each such statement shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the president cashier or trust officer as the case may be and the State Treasurer shall present the same to the board for its consideration within thirty days after the receipt thereof

2 Shall upon the receipt of notice of its selection as a depository of State moneys furnish a bond to secure payment of deposits and interests to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with a proper warrant of attorney to confess judgment in favor of the Commonwealth secured by a surety company or individual sureties to be approved by the board in the amount of the deposit to be made If a corporate bond be given no one surety company shall be approved in an aggregate amount in excess of five times its capital surplus and reserve and whenever individual sureties are presented for approval they shall qualify in an aggregate over and above their individual liabilities to three times the amount of the deposit No one person may qualify for more than one-fourth of the total amount of the bond required Provided That when any deposit of State moneys is insured with the Federal Deposit Insurance Commissioner or any other corporation hereafter organized by the United States for the purpose of insuring deposits such depository shall not be required to furnish bond or security to cover the amount of such deposit so insured And provided further That in lieu of the surety bonds of surety companies or of individuals as aforesaid the deposit of State moneys may be secured by the deposit with the State Treasurer or with the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia or Pittsburgh subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Board of Finance and Revenue or the State Treasurer or both as the case may be of bonds or notes of the United States or bonds or notes which the United States fully guarantees both as to principal and interest bonds of the Delaware River Joint Commissions bonds of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission bonds of the [General State Authority of Pennsylvania] State Public School Building Authority bonds of The General State Authority bonds of the State Highway and Bridge Authority bonds or tax anticipation notes of this Commonwealth or of any municipal subdivision institution district or school district or county thereof to be approved by the board in an amount measured by their actual market value equal to the amount of deposit so secured and twenty per centum in addition thereto Said bonds shall be accompanied by proper assignment or power of attorney to transfer the same and said trust deposit of securities shall be maintained on request at the amount aforesaid in case of any depreciation in the value thereof Provided That no bonds or other security shall be required of State depositories for State deposits to the extent that such State deposits are insured under the provisions of Section 12 B of the Federal Reserve Act approved the twenty-third day of December one thousand nine hundred and thirteen its amendments and supplements

3 Shall agree to pay interest upon all State deposits at the rate to be fixed every six months by the Board of Finance and Revenue having due regard to the then prevailing money market Provided That such agreement is not in conflict with law or any regulation of the Comptroller of the Currency or of the Federal Reserve Board of the United States The said board may fix different rates of interest for active and inactive depositories not in conflict with law or any regulation of the Comptroller of the Currency or of the Federal Reserve Board of the United States and may adopt and promulgate rules governing the time when interest shall begin to run on deposits of uncollected items The board shall fix the specific day on which any change in interest rate shall become effective and shall notify in writing every depository of such change and the effective date thereof Pending action by the board the interest rates heretofore fixed by law shall remain in force All collections shall be made for the Commonwealth without cost or compensation

(b) To select as depositories for State funds private banking institutions located and doing business in this Commonwealth if such private banking institutions shall file a statement in writing with the board and the Department of Banking agreeing that they will subject themselves to the same supervision in all respects including an examination by the bank examiners of the Department of Banking at any time as banks banking institutions or trust companies which are depositories of State funds and if and after compliance with the conditions required of any other depository

(c) To designate two banks or trust companies in Allegheny County two banks or trust companies in Philadelphia County and thirteen banks or trust companies in any part of the Commonwealth to be known as active depositories in which shall be deposited a sufficient amount of the daily receipts of the State Treasury to transact the current business of the Commonwealth The board may designate [two] four other banks or trust companies located anywhere in the Commonwealth to be known as active depositories and to be used for the purpose above mentioned

(d) To see that no bank banking institution or trust company except those designated as active depositories shall receive a deposit of State moneys in excess of twenty-five per centum of its paid-in capital and surplus or have at any one time an aggregate of deposits in excess of five hundred thousand dollars Provided however That in the case of any particular depository these limitations may be waived by the Board of Finance and Revenue so as to permit the State Treasurer to deposit State moneys not in excess of one million dollars in any bank banking institution or trust company designated as an inactive depository

(e) To see that the combined deposits in the active depositories shall not exceed at any time such total sum as it shall by resolution have prescribed

(f) In case it is of the opinion that the credit of any depository is impaired the safety of the State deposits imperiled or for any other cause whatsoever to require the State Treasurer to reduce change or wholly withdraw within thirty days any deposit or deposits held by any such depository of State moneys

(g) Whenever it is considering applications for State deposits to invite the Secretary of Banking to sit with and advise the board The secretary shall however not vote on any question coming before the board

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 247, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by regulating the authority of school districts to purchase supplies and to perform and contract for construction reconstruction repairs and work of any nature

Section 1 Section 751 of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" as amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 459) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 751 Work to be Done Under Contract Let on Bids Exception (a) All construction reconstruction repair or work of any nature including the introduction of plumbing heating ventilating or lighting systems upon any school building or upon any school property made by any school district where the entire cost value or amount of such construction reconstruction repairs or work including labor and material shall exceed [three hundred dollars ($300) in school districts other than school districts of the first class and in school districts of the first class where such entire cost value shall exceed six hundred dollars ($600)] one thousand dollars ($1000) shall be done under [contract or] separate contracts to be entered into by such school district with the lowest responsible bidder upon proper terms after due public notice has been given asking for competitive bids Provided That if due to an emergency a school plant or any part thereof becomes unusable competitive bids for repairs or replacement may be solicited from at least three responsible bidders and upon the approval of any of these bids by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction the board of school directors may proceed at once to make the necessary repairs or replacements in accordance with the terms of said approved bid or bids

(b) The board of school directors in any school district either may perform any construction reconstruction repairs or work of any nature where the entire cost or value including labor and material is less than one thousand dollars ($1000) by its own maintenance personnel or may have any such construction reconstruction repairs or work performed by contract after soliciting bids from at least three responsible bidders Provided That the board of school directors in any school district may authorize the secretary of the board or other executive to award contracts for construction reconstruction repair or work of any nature where the entire cost or value including labor and material is three hundred dollars ($300) or less without soliciting competitive bids

Section 2 Sections 805 806 and 807 of said act are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 805 Classes of School Supplies Purchasing Agent School supplies shall be divided into two classes The first class shall include school desks chairs furniture typewriters and school apparatus The second class shall include [maps globes and] all other supplies except maps globes and textbooks necessary for school use not included in the first class The board of school directors in any district may authorize or appoint the secretary of the board or other executive as purchasing agent for the district with authority to purchase supplies of either class costing less than [one hundred dollars ($100)] three hundred dollars ($300)

Section 806 Purchase of Supplies of the First Class [Costing $100 or More] When it is deemed necessary to purchase desks or other supplies of the first class costing [one hundred dollars ($100)] three hundred dollars ($300) or more the board of school directors in any district shall solicit sealed quotations from two or more firms manufacturers or dealers in such supplies Such quotations shall be opened at a regular or special meeting of the board of school directors The board shall accept the bid of the lowest responsible bidder when the kinds and quality of supplies and equipment offered are the same or are equal but they shall have the right to reject any and all bids or select a single item from any bid Any school district may purchase school furniture and other equipment from another school district without asking for competitive bids

Section 807 Purchase of Supplies of the Second Class [Costing $300 or More] (a) All supplies of the second class costing [three hundred dollars ($300) or more] one thousand dollars ($1000) or more in school districts of the first class first class A or second class or five hundred dollars ($500) or more in school districts of the third or fourth class shall be purchased and contracts therefor awarded only after public notice has been given by advertisement published once each week for three weeks in not less than two newspapers of general circulation In any district where no newspaper is published said notice may in lieu of such publication be posted in at least five public places Such advertisement or notice shall give all necessary information or given notice of convenient access thereto in such manner that bidders can intelligently make bids for such contracts

The board of school directors shall accept the lowest bid or bids kind quality and material being equal but shall have the right to reject any and all bids or select a single item from any bid

(b) The board of school directors may purchase supplies of the second class costing less than one thousand dollars ($1000) in school districts of the first class first class A or second class and less than five hundred dollars ($500) in school districts of the third and fourth class from the lowest responsible bidder after soliciting sealed quotations from two or more firms manufacturers or dealers in such supplies when the kind quality and material are equal Provided That the board of school directors may authorize the secretary of the board or other executive to make such purchases of supplies of the second class in accordance with the provisions of this subsection

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 329, as follows:

An Act to amend Section 3 of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 202) entitled "An act providing for the licensing and regulation of motor boats operated or navigated upon any public stream artificial or natural body of water or non-tidal waters of any river within the Commonwealth conferring powers and imposing duties on certain police officers and the Board of Fish Commissioners including the enforcement of certain existing laws and prescribing penalties" by authorizing the department of Revenue to designate local agents to issue motor boat licenses

Section 1 Section 3 of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 202) entitled "An act providing for the licensing and regulation of motor boats operated or navigated upon any public stream artificial or natural body of water or non-tidal waters of any river within the Commonwealth conferring powers and imposing duties on certain police officers and the Board of Fish Commissioners including the enforcement of certain existing laws and prescribing penalties" as amended by the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1984) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 3 A Any person owning a motor boat and desiring to operate or navigate the boat or cause it to be operated or navigated on any inland water shall make a written application to the Department of Revenue or to any issuing agent authorized by the department as hereinafter provided for a license for such boat Such application shall be made on a form prescribed prepared and furnished by the Department of Revenue and together with such other information as the Department of Revenue may require shall state

(a) The name and address of the applicant and if the applicant is a partnership the names and addresses of all the partners and if the applicant is a corporation the names and addresses of the officers

(b) The size seating or other capacity gross weight and type of the boat

(c) The type number of cylinders the horse power and maximum speed of the motor and the type of muffler or under-water exhaust used in connection with such motor

(d) The engine number of the motor which propels the boat

B Upon receipt of an application and upon the payment of a license fee of one dollar for each cylinder of the motor built in or attached to the boat or a fee of two dollars in the case of electrically propelled boat and in the event that the license is issued by an issuing agent a fee of twenty-five cents (25c) for the use of the issuing agent the Department of Revenue or its issuing agent shall issue to the applicant owner a license for his boat together with aduplicate metallic license plates which plates shall contain a serial number corresponding with the number on the license issued to the owner and shall be displayed conspicuously at all times one on each side of the bow of the boat Such license plates shall be used only on the boat the engine of which bears the number set forth in the application

C The Department of Revenue may designate as issuing agents the county treasurer or such other persons in each county as it deems advantageous to provide for the issuance of motor boat licenses in accordance with the provisions of this section for services rendered in collecting and paying over such license fees each issuing agent shall charge and retain an additional fee of twenty-five cents (25c) from the person securing the license

D Every issuing agent unless already under bond with the department of revenue as an agent for the collection of its moneys shall give bond to the Commonwealth in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1000) before any supply of licenses is delivered to him

E Each issuing agent other than a county treasurer shall remit all moneys collected for the Commonwealth within five (5) days after the end of each month to the State Treasurer through the Department of Revenue together with a copy of a list of licenses issued during the preceding month

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 374, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" by further regulating health and accident insurance

Section 1 Sections 617 618 619 620 621 subsection (c) of Section 621.1 and Sections 623 625 and 627 of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" and hereby repealed.

Section 2 Said act is hereby amended by adding after Section 616 five new sections to read as follows

Section 617 Conditions Subject to Which Policies Are to Be Issued (A) No such policy shall be delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this Commonwealth unless

(1) the entire money and other considerations therefor are expressed therein and

(2) the time at which the insurance takes effect and terminates is expressed therein and

(3) it purports to insure only one person except that a policy may insure originally or by subsequent amendment upon the application of an adult head of a family who shall be deemed the policyholder any two or more eligible members of that family including wife dependent children or any children under a specified age which shall not exceed nineteen years and any other person dependent upon the policyholder and

(4) the style arrangement and over-all appearance of the policy give no undue prominence to any portion of the text and unless every printed portion of the text of the policy and of any endorsements or attached papers is plainly printed in light-faced type of a style in general use the size of which shall be uniform and not less than ten-point with a lower-case unspaced alphabet length not less than one hundred and twenty-point (the "text" shall include all printed matter except the name and address of the insurer name or title of the policy the brief description if any and captions and subcaptions) and

(5) the exceptions and reductions of indemnity are set forth in the policy and except those which are set forth in the policy and except those which are set forth in section six hundred eighteen of this act are printed at the insurer's option either included with the benefit provision to which they apply or under an appropriate caption such as "exceptions" or "exceptions and reductions" provided that if an exception or reduction specifically applies only to a particular benefit of the policy a statement of such exception or reduction shall be included with the benefit provision to which it applies and

(6) each such form including riders and endorsements shall be identified by a form number in the lower left-hand corner of the first page thereof and

(7) it contains no provision purporting to make any portion of the charter rules constitution or by-laws of the insurer a part of the policy unless such portion is set forth in full in the policy except in the case of the incorporation of or reference to a statement of rates or classification of risks or short-rate table filed with the commissioner and

(8) if such policy is entitled or referred to as "non-cancellable"

(9) if such policy is entitled or referred to as "non-cancellable" such "non-cancellable" policy is automatically renewable until age sixty upon payment of the required premiums by the insured

(B) If any policy is issued by an insurer domiciled in this Commonwealth for delivery to a person residing in another state and if the official having responsibility for the administration of the insurance laws of such other state shall have advised the commissioner that any such policy is not subject to approval or disapproval by such official the commissioner may by ruling require that such policy meet the standards set forth in subsection (A) of this section and in section six hundred eighteen

Section 618 Policy Provisions (A) Required Provisions Except as provided in paragraph (C) of this section each policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this Commonwealth shall contain the provisions specified in this subsection in the words in which the same appear in this section provided however that the insurer may at its option substitute for one or more of such provisions corresponding provisions of different wording approved by the commissioner which are in each instance not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary Such provisions shall be preceded individually by the caption appearing in this sub-section or at the option of the insurer by such appropriate individual or group captions or sub-captions as the commissioner may approve

(1) A provision as follows

Entire Contract Changes This policy including the endorsements and the attached papers if any constitutes the entire contract of insurance No change in this policy shall be valid until approved by an executive officer of the insurer and unless such approval be endorsed hereon or attached hereto No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions

(2) A provision as follows

Time Limit on Certain Defenses (a) After three years from the date of issue of this policy no misstatements except fraudulent misstatements made by the applicant in the application for such policy shall be used to void the policy or to deny a claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after the expiration of such three year period

(The foregoing policy provision shall not be so construed as to affect any legal requirement for avoidance of a policy or denial of a claim during such initial three year period nor to limit the application of section six hundred eighteen (B) (1) (2) (3) (4) and (5) in the event of misstatement with respect to age or occupation or other insurance)

(In a policy where the premiums are payable weekly the words "if such application is made a part of the policy" may be inserted in the foregoing policy provision between the word "policy" and the word "shall" immediately following)

(A policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premium (1) until at least age fifty or (2) in the case of a policy issued after age forty-four for at least five years from its date of issue may contain in lieu of the foregoing the following provision (from which the clause in parentheses may be omitted at the insurer's option) under the caption "Incontestable" After this policy has been in force for a period of three years during the lifetime of the insured (excluding any period during which the insured is disabled) it shall become incontestable as to the statements contained in the application)

(b) No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after three years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy

(In policies whereon the premiums are payable weekly the words "or from the date of any reinstatement thereof" may be inserted in the foregoing policy provision between the word "policy" and the word "shall" immediately following)

(3) A provision as follows

Grace Period A grace period of (insert a number not less than "7" for weekly premium policies "10" for monthly premium policies and "31" for all other policies) days will be granted for the payment of each premium falling due after the first premium during which grace period the policy shall continue in force

(A policy which contains a cancellation provision may add at the end of the above provision "subject to the right of the insurer to cancel in accordance with the cancellation provision hereof")

(A policy in which the insurer reserves the right to refuse any renewal shall have at the beginning of the above provision "unless not less than five days prior to the premium due date the insurer has delivered to the insured or has mailed to his last address as shown by the records of the insurer written notice of its intention not to renew this policy beyond the period for which the premium has been accepted")

(4) A provision as follows

Reinstatement If any renewal premium be not paid within the time granted the insured for payment a subsequent acceptance of premium by the insurer or by any agent duly authorized by the insurer to accept such premium without requiring in connection therewith an application for reinstatement shall reinstate the policy provided however that if the insurer or such agent requires an application for reinstatement and issues a conditional receipt for the premium tendered the policy will be reinstated upon approval of such application by the insurer or lacking such approval upon the forty-fifth day following the date of such conditional receipt unless the insurer has previously notified the insured in writing of its disapproval of such application The reinstated policy shall cover only loss resulting from such accidental injury as may be sustained after the date of reinstatement and loss due to such sickness as may begin more than ten days after such date In all other respects the insured and insurer shall have the same rights thereunder as they had under the policy immediately before the due date of the defaulted premium subject to any provisions endorsed hereon or attached hereto in connection with the reinstatement Any premium accepted in connection with a reinstatement shall be applied to a period for which premium has not been previously paid but not to any period more than sixty days prior to the date of reinstatement (The last sentence of the above provision may be omitted (a) from any policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premiums (1) until at least age fifty or (2) in the case of a policy issued after age forty-four for at least five years from the date of its issue and (b) from any policy on which the premiums are payable weekly)

(5) A provision as follows

Notice of Claim Written notice of claim must be given to the insurer within twenty days after the occurrence or commencement of any loss covered by the policy or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible Notice given by or on behalf of the insured or the beneficiary to the insurer at (insert the location of such office as the insurer may designate for the purpose) or to any authorized agent of the insurer with information sufficient to identify the insured shall be deemed notice to the insurer

(In a policy whereon the premiums are payable weekly the first sentence of the foregoing policy provision may read "written notice of claim must be given to the insurer within ten days of the commencement of any non-hospital confining sickness covered by the policy and within twenty days after the occurrence or commencement of any other loss covered by the policy or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible")

(In a policy providing a loss-of-time benefit which may be payable for at least two years an insurer may at its option insert the following between the first and second sentences of the above provision Subject to the qualifications set forth below if the insured suffers loss of time on account of disability for which indemnity may be payable for at least two years he shall at least once in every six months after having given notice of claim give to the insurer notice of continuance of said disability except in the event of legal incapacity The period of six months following any filing of proof by the insured or any payment by the insurer on account of such claim or any denial of liability in whole or in part by the insurer shall be excluded in applying this provision Delay in the giving of such notice shall not impair the insured's right to any indemnity which would otherwise have accrued during the period of six months preceding the date on which such notice is actually given)

(6) A provision as follows

Claim Forms The insurer upon receipt of a notice of claim will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss If such forms are not furnished within fifteen days after the giving of such notice the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss written proof covering the occurrence the character and the extent of the loss for which claim is made

(7) A provision as follows

Proofs of Loss Written proof of loss must be furnished to the insurer at its said office in case of claim for loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment contingent upon continuing loss within ninety days after the termination of the period for which the insurer is liable and in case of claim for any other loss within ninety days after the date of such loss Failure to furnish such proof within the time required shall not invalidate nor reduce any claim if it was not reasonably possible to give proof within such time provided such proof is furnished as soon as reasonably possible and in no event except in the absence of legal capacity later than one year from the time proof is otherwise required

(8) A provision as follows

Time of Payment of Claims Indemnities payable under this policy for any loss other than loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof of such loss Subject to due written proof of loss all accrued indemnities for loss for which this policy provides periodic payment will be paid (insert period for payment which must not be less frequently than monthly) and any balance remaining unpaid upon the termination of liability will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof

(9) A provision as follows

Payment of Claims Indemnity for loss of life will be payable in accordance with the beneficiary designation and the provisions respecting such payment which may be prescribed herein and effective at the time of payment If no such designation or provision is then effective such indemnity shall be payable to the estate of the insured. Any other accrued indemnities unpaid at the insured's death may at the option of the insurer be paid either to such beneficiary or to such estate. All other indemnities will be payable to the insured.

If any indemnity of this policy shall be payable to the estate of the insured or to an insured or beneficiary who is a minor or otherwise not competent to give a valid release the insurer may pay such indemnity up to an amount not exceeding $..... (insert an amount which shall not exceed $1000) to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured or beneficiary who is deemed by the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto. Any payment made by the insurer in good faith pursuant to this provision shall fully discharge the insurer to the extent of such payment.

Subject to any written direction of the insured in the application or otherwise all or a portion of any indemnities provided by this policy on account of hospital nursing medical or surgical services may at the insurer's option and unless the insured requests otherwise in writing not later than the time of filing proofs of such loss be paid directly to the hospital or person rendering such services but it is not required that the service be rendered by a particular hospital or person.)

(10) A provision as follows

Physical Examinations and Autopsy The insurer at its own expense shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and as often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of a claim hereunder and to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law

(11) A provision as follows

Legal Actions No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after written proof of loss has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of this policy. No such action shall be brought after the expiration of three years after the time written proof of loss is required to be furnished.

(12) A provision as follows

Change of Beneficiary Unless the insured makes an irrevocable designation of beneficiary the right to change of beneficiary is reserved to the insured and the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries shall not be requisite to surrender or assignment of this policy or to any change of beneficiary or beneficiaries or to any other changes in this policy.

(The first clause of this provision relating to the irrevocable designation of beneficiary may be omitted at the insurer's option)

(B) Other Provisions Except as provided in paragraph

(C) of this section no such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this Commonwealth shall contain provisions respecting the matters set forth below unless such provisions are in the words in which the same appear in this section provided however that the insurer may at its option use in lieu of any such provision a corresponding provision of different wording approved by the commissioner which is not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary. Any such provision contained in the policy shall be preceded individually by the appropriate caption appearing in this subsection or at the option of the insurer by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the commissioner may approve.

(1) A provision as follows

Change of Occupation If the insured be injured or contract sickness after having changed his occupation to one classified by the insurer as more hazardous than that stated in this policy or while doing for compensation anything pertaining to an occupation so classified the insurer will pay only such portion of the indemnities provided in this policy as the premium paid would have purchased at the rates and within the limits fixed by the insurer for such more hazardous occupation. If the insured changes his occupation to one classified by the insurer as less hazardous than that stated in this policy the insurer upon receipt of proof of such change of occupation will reduce the premium rate accordingly and will return the excess pro-rata unearned premium from the date of change of occupation or from the policy anniversary date immediately preceding receipt of such proof whichever is the more recent. In applying this provision the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be such as have been last filed by the insurer prior to the occurrence of the loss for which the insurer is liable or prior to date of proof of change in occupation with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided at the time this policy was issued but if such filing was not required then the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be those last made effective by the insurer in such state prior to the occurrence of the loss or prior to the date of proof of change in occupation.

(2) A provision as follows

Misstatement of Age If the age of the insured has been misstated all amounts payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

(3) A provision as follows

Other Insurance in This Insurer If an accident or sickness or accident and sickness policy or policies previously issued by the insurer to the insured be in force concurrently herewith making the aggregate indemnity for (insert type of coverage or coverages) in excess of $..... (insert maximum limit of indemnity or indemnities) the excess insurance shall be void and all premiums paid for such excess shall be returned to the insured or to his estate or in lieu thereof insurance effective at any one time on the insured under a like policy or policies in this insurer is limited to the one such policy elected by the insured his beneficiary or his estate as the case may be and the insurer will return all premiums paid for all other such policies.

(4) A provision as follows

Insurance with Others Insurers If there be other valid coverage not with this insurer providing benefits for the same loss on a provision of service basis or on an expense incurred basis and of which this insurer has not been given written notice prior to the occurrence or commencement of loss the only liability under any expense incurred coverage of this policy shall be for such proportion of the loss as the amount which would otherwise have been payable hereunder plus the total of the like amounts under all such other valid coverages for the same loss of which this insurer had notice bears to the total like amounts under all valid coverages for such loss and for the return of such portion of the premiums paid as shall exceed the pro-rata portion for the amount so determined. For the purpose of applying this provision when other coverage is on a provision of service basis the "like amount" of such other coverage shall be taken as the amount which the services rendered would have cost in the absence of such coverage.

(If the foregoing policy provision is included in a policy which also contains the next following policy provision there shall be added to the caption of the foregoing provision the phrase "Expense Incurred Benefits". The insurer may at its option include in this provision a definition of "other valid coverage" approved as to form by the commissioner which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada and by hospital or medical service organizations and to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the commissioner. In the absence of such definition such term shall not include group insurance automobile medical payments insurance or coverage provided by hospital or medical service organization or by union welfare plans or employer or employee benefit organizations. For the purpose of applying the foregoing policy provision with respect to any insured any amount of benefit provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workmen's compensation or employer's liability statute) whether provided by a governmental agency or otherwise shall in all cases be deemed to be "other valid coverage" of which the insurer has had notice In applying the foregoing policy provision no third party liability coverage shall be included as "other valid coverage")

(5) A provision as follows

Insurance with Other Insurers If there be other valid coverage not with this insurer providing benefits for the same loss on other than an expense incurred basis and of which this insurer has not been given written notice prior to the occurrence or commencement of loss the only liability for such benefits under this policy shall be for such proportion of the indemnities otherwise provided hereunder for such loss as the like indemnities of which the insurer had notice (including the indemnities under this policy) bear to the total amount of all like indemnities for such loss and for the return of such portion of the premium paid as shall exceed the pro-rata portion for the indemnities thus determined

(If the foregoing policy provision is included in a policy which also contains the next preceding policy provision there shall be added to the caption of the foregoing provision the phrase "other benefits" The insurer may at its option include in this provision a definition of "other valid coverage" approved as to form by the commissioner which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada and to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the commissioner in the absence of such definition such term shall not include group insurance or benefits provided by union welfare plans or by employer or employee benefit organizations For the purpose any amount of benefit provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workmen's compensation or employer's liability statute) whether provided by a governmental agency or otherwise shall in all cases be deemed to be "other valid coverage" of which the insurer has had notice In applying the foregoing policy provision no third party liability coverage shall be included as "other valid coverage")

(6) A provision as follows

Relation of Earnings to Insurance If the total monthly amount of loss of time benefits promised for the same loss under all valid loss of time coverage upon the insured whether payable on a weekly or monthly basis shall exceed the monthly earnings of the insured at the time disability commenced or his average monthly earnings for the period of two years immediately preceding a disability for which claim is made whichever is the greater the insurer will be liable only for such proportionate amount of such benefits under this policy as the amount of such monthly earnings or such average monthly earnings of the insured bears to the total amount of monthly benefits for the same loss under all such coverage upon the insured at the time such disability commences and for the return of such part of the premiums paid during such two years as shall exceed the pro-rata amount of the premiums for the benefits actually paid hereunder but this shall not operate to reduce the total monthly amount of benefits payable under all such coverage upon the insured below the sum of two hundred dollars or the sum of the monthly benefits specified in such coverages whichever is the lesser nor shall it operate to reduce benefits other than those payable for loss of time

(The foregoing policy provision may be inserted only in a policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premiums (1) until at least age fifty or (2) in the case of a policy issued after age forty-four for at least five years from its date of issue The insurer may at its option include in this provision a definition of "valid loss of time coverage" approved as to form by the commissioner which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by governmental agencies or by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada or to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the commissioner or any combination of such coverages In the absence of such definition such term shall not include any coverage provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workmen's compensation or employer's liability statute) or benefits provided by union welfare plans or by employer or employee benefit organizations

(7) A provision as follows

Unpaid Premium Upon the payment of a claim under this policy any premium then due and unpaid or covered by any note or written order may be deducted therefrom

(8) A provision as follows

Cancellation The insurer may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered to the insured or mailed to his last address as shown by the records of the insurer stating when not less than five days thereafter such cancellation shall be effective and after the policy has been continued beyond its original term the insured may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered or mailed to the insurer effective upon receipt or on such later date as may be specified in such notice In the event of cancellation the insurer will return promptly the unearned portion of any premium paid If the insured cancels the earned premium shall be computed by the use of the short-rate table last filed with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided when the policy was issued If the insurer cancels the earned premium shall be computed pro-rata Cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim originating prior to the effective date of cancellation

(9) A provision as follows

Conformity with State Statutes Any provision of this policy which on its effective date is in conflict with the statutes of the state in which the insured resides on such date is hereby amended to conform to the minimum requirements of such statutes

(10) A provision as follows

Illegal Occupation The insurer shall not be liable for any loss to which a contributing cause was the insured's commission of or attempt to commit a felony or to which a contributing cause was the insured's being engaged in an illegal occupation

(11) A provision as follows

Intoxicants and Narcotics The insurer shall not be liable for any loss sustained or contracted in consequence of the insured's being intoxicated or under the influence of any narcotic unless administered on the advice of a physician

(C) Inapplicable or Inconsistent Provisions If any provision of this section is in whole or in part inapplicable to or inconsistent with the coverage provided by a particular form of policy the insurer with the approval of the commissioner shall omit from such policy any inapplicable provision or part of a provision and shall modify any inconsistent provision or part of the provision in such manner as to make the provision as contained in the policy consistent with the coverage provided by the policy

(D) Order of Certain Policy Provisions The provisions which are the subject of subsections (A) and (B) of this section or any corresponding provisions which are used in lieu thereof in accordance with such subsections shall be printed in the consecutive order of the provisions in such subsections or at the option of the insurer any such provision may appear as a unit in any part of the policy with other provisions to which it may be logically related provided the resulting policy shall not be in whole or in part unintelligible uncertain ambiguous abstruse or likely to mislead a person to whom the policy is offered delivered or issued

(E) Third Party Ownership The word "insured" as used in this act shall not be construed as preventing a person other than the insured with a proper insurable interest from making application for and owning a policy covering the insured or from being entitled under such a policy to any indemnities benefits and rights provided therein

(F) Filing Procedure The commissioner may make such reasonable rules and regulations concerning the procedure for the filing or submission of policies subject to this act as are necessary proper or advisable to the administration of this act This provision shall not abridge any other authority granted the commissioner by law

Section 619 Age Limit If any such policy contains a provision establishing as an age limit or otherwise a date after which the coverage provided by the policy will not be effective and if such date falls within a period for which premium is accepted by the insurer or if the insurer accepts a premium after such date the coverage provided by the policy will continue in force subject to any right of cancellation until the end of the period for which premium has been accepted In the event the age of the insured has been misstated and if according to the correct age of the insured the coverage provided by the policy would not have become effective or would have ceased prior to the acceptance of such premium or premiums then the liability of the insurer shall be limited to the refund upon request of all premiums paid for the period not covered by the policy

Section 620 Requirements of Other Jurisdictions (1) Any policy of a foreign or alien insurer when delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this Commonwealth may contain any provision which is not less favorable to the insured or the beneficiary than the provisions of this act and which is prescribed or required by the law of the state under which the insurer is organized

(2) Any policy of a domestic insurer may when issued for delivery in any other state or country contain any provisions permitted or required by the laws of such other state or country

Section 621 Conforming to Statute (A) Other Policy Provisions No policy provision which is not subject to section six hundred eighteen of this act shall make a policy or any portion thereof less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary than the provisions thereof which are subject to this act

(B) Policy Conflicting with This Act A policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this Commonwealth in violation of this act shall be held valid but shall be construed as provided in this act When any provision in a policy subject to this act is in conflict with any provision of this act the rights duties and obligations of the insurer the insured and the beneficiary shall be governed by the provisions of this act

Section 623 Application (A) The insured shall not be bound by any statement made in an application for a policy unless a copy of such application is attached to or endorsed on the policy when issued as a part thereof If any such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this Commonwealth shall be reinstated or renewed and the insured or the beneficiary or assignee of such policy shall make written request to the insurer for a copy of the application if any for such reinstatement or renewal the insurer shall within fifteen days after the receipt of such request at its home office or any branch office of the insurer deliver or mail to the person making such request a copy of such application If such copy shall not be so delivered or mailed the insurer shall be precluded from introducing such application as evidence in any action or proceeding based upon or involving such policy or its reinstatement or renewal

(B) No alteration of any written application for any such policy shall be made by any person other than the applicant without his written consent except that insertions may be made by the insurer for administrative purposes only in such manner as to indicate clearly that such insertions are not to be ascribed to the applicant

Section 625 Policies Unlawfully Issued A policy issued in violation of subsection (b) of this article shall be held valid but shall be construed as provided herein and when any provision in such a policy is in conflict with any said provision such provision so conflicting shall be invalid and the policy shall be deemed to contain all of the required provisions

Section 5 Subsections (a) and (d) of Section 629 of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 678) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 629 Limitations

(a) Nothing in Subsection (b) of this article shall apply to or affect any policy of workmen's compensation insurance the provisions of sections six hundred sixteen six hundred seventeen six hundred eighteen [and] six hundred nineteen six hundred twenty-one and six hundred twenty-three of this act shall not apply to those forms of health and accident policies enumerated in section six hundred twenty-one and one-tenth of this act except as provided in said section [reference in sections six hundred twenty-one of this act to standard provisions shall not be deemed to refer to policies issued under authority of section six hundred twenty-one and one-tenth of this act]

* * * * *

(d) The provisions contained in [clause (e) of section six hundred and seventeen (617) and clauses (b) (c) (h) and (i)] clauses one four eight and ten of subsection (a) of section six hundred and eighteen (618) may be omitted from ticket policies sold only to passengers by common carriers

Section 6 Subsection (c) of Section 629 of said act as so amended is hereby repealed

Section 7 This act shall take effect on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two A policy rider or endorsement which could have been lawfully used or delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this Commonwealth immediately before the effective date of this act may be used or delivered or issued for delivery to any such person during five years after the effective date of this act without being subject to the provisions of Section 617 618 and 621 of this act

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. KRATZ, BOLTON, LAFORE and THOMAS H. W. JONES offered a resolution which was head, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 9, 1951.

Once again, the wheel of destiny has turned around, stopping at May 9th. Seventy-five times, the fateful wheel has rotated during the vigorous life time of Howard F. Boorse. His experience and activities during this three-quarters of a century are a varitable tapestry of the pioneering attitude, the spirit of adventure, and the fertile resourcefulness that characterize so uniquely the aggressive and progressive American business man.

Mr. Boorse's life has, indeed, been full. It is replete with countless business, civic, fraternal and political deeds whose value and significance are imbedded deeply in the consciousness and the memory of his friends and constituents in Montgomery County.

Doubtlessly, his long career as an able legislator is deserving of special mention, because—as the eldest statesman of his political organization—he has devoted his time and talent unselfishly since 1938 to effectuate those precepts and principles of government that are fundamental to the American way; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives extend to its member Howard F. Boorse its heartiest greetings on the auspicious occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary and present to him a symbolic bouquet of its affection and good will, and be it further

Resolved, That this House of Representatives express its abiding hope that his seventy-sixth milestone will quickly fade into the past and mark the beginning of an interminable series of future milestones, reaching into a life of continued health, greater happiness, and increased public service and recognition.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Boorse.

Mr. BOORSE. Mr. Speaker, I wish to correct that year 76. 75 tomorrow at 10:00 a. m., and the City of Philadelphia owes me a thousand dollars which I have never received. I am going to select you Mr. Speaker, as my counsel to try to get this money for me. Because I was born at the hour of the day, when the Centennial opened in Philadelphia—I was supposed to be a thousand dollar baby. Yet I have not received my thousand. Will you accept as my counsel?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will be very happy to accept any retainer the gentleman will give.

Mr. BOORSE. Mr. Speaker, this has been a happy moment in my life. I have tried to do my part as a Legislator, both with the Republicans and with the Democrats. I do not care who the man, woman or child is that comes to me for any help that I may be able to give I am only too glad to help whenever possible.

I do not know how they happened to get this age of 76, whether they thought I was born in 1776 or not; nevertheless I am a happy man. When you know you do not dissipate and you sleep with the same woman for fifty years you must be a pretty good man; don't you think?

I want to again thank all the Members of the House particularly my bunch from Montgomery County. I was very much surprised at breakfast this morning, I expected to go down and have breakfast with my wife and daughter and one of my dear friends, Walter Greenwood, and by golly, when I got down there, there was a whole row of them. But I am happy with it all, and I again want to thank you and I trust that every man and woman in this House will follow my footsteps, even though they may have been rocky, yet at the same time it has been a pleasure to work with all of you.

BILLS SIGNED BY SPEAKER

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, following a well-defined precedent, this General Assembly is being requested to approve the administration budget and tax program and to make appropriations to implement it solely on the basis of the administration's budget.

The good faith and confidence of the people in their State government and in their Legislature demand that the General Assembly scrutinize this proposed program carefully to insure that it serves the best interests of the Commonwealth because of two major premises on which the program is based: (1) a larger budget involving higher revenues and expenditures, (2) new taxes to carry out the same.

Good public policy dictates that in considering such a program, the General Assembly secure skilled and unprejudiced advice from fiscal experts to determine the authenticity thereof and whether or not new taxes are an absolute necessity and if so in what amount.

Now, therefore, Mr. President, I believe that the General Assembly should immediately employ sufficient certified public accountants to examine with and advise them on the following matters:

(1) The administration's proposed budget for the 1951-1953 biennium and the necessary appropriations to implement it.

(2) The exact statement of the State's fiscal position today and its probable position during the ensuing biennium.

(3) The need or inadvisability of levying higher or new taxes now.

(4) The need or advisability of increasing or decreasing various State expenditures.

Such certified public accountants should advise the General Assembly either that the administration's proposed budget is substantially necessary and true, or that it is substantially uncalled for and misleading. In the event of the latter, they should show figures which will enable the General Assembly to formulate an acceptable substitute.

Mr. President, I rise in place, and on behalf of Senator Dent, Senator Neff and myself, I present the following bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. HOLLAND, DENT and NEFF read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 641, entitled:

An Act requiring the General Assembly to employ certified public accountants to advise it on the administration's proposed budget and on the fiscal status of this Commonwealth; and providing for an appropriation for payment of such accountants.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. TAYLOR read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 642, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 2 of the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 720), entitled "An act providing for the taking over by the Commonwealth, under certain terms, conditions and limitations, of certain streets in cities of the second class, second class A, and third class as State highways, and for the improvement, construction, reconstruction, resurfacing and maintenance by the Commonwealth of certain defined widths of said streets; imposing duties on such cities and on public utility companies using such streets; providing that no assessment shall be made upon the Commonwealth in the elimination of any grade crossing thereon; authorizing cities, persons, associations, or corporations to enter into agreements with the Commonwealth to bear a portion of the cost of construction or maintenance; providing for the assessment of certain portions of the cost of street improvements on abutting property owners; regulating the replacement of certain facilities of public utility companies; prohibiting the opening of said streets after improvement without a permit, and providing penalty therefor; regulating the maintenance of detours; authorizing the increase of city indebtedness in certain cases; and appropriating money in the Motor License Fund for the purposes of this act," by adding a new route in the city of Harrisburg.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Mr. STIEFEL read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 643, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 1 of the act, approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 984), entitled "An act relating to transactions between a person acting on his own behalf and the same person acting jointly with others, and to make uniform the law relating thereto," by authorizing the conveyance of his or her interest by one tenant, by the entireties alone to the other and validating such conveyance heretofore made.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. YOSKO read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 644, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 402 of the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 343) entitled "An act relating to the finances of the State government; providing for the settlement, assessment, collection, and lien of taxes, bonus, and all other accounts due the Commonwealth, the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale, the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth, and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth, the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts, refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth, auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof, of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties; affecting every department, board, commission, and officer of the State government, every political subdivision of the State, and certain officers of such subdivisions, every person, association, and corporation required to pay, assess, or collect taxes, or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes, or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth," by further providing for distribution of copies of audits made by the Department of Auditor General.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. LANE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 645, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 1172), entitled "An act establishing certain streets in boroughs and incorporated towns as State highways, and providing for their construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth," by adding a new route in Washington County.

URGING THAT MARCH 16, 1952, BE DESIGNATED AS WEST POINT DAY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Messrs. DENT, WALKER, CHAPMAN, WOLFE, BARR and STIEFEL, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

Whereas, our Military Academy at West Point, New York, is rounding out One Hundred and Fifty years of service to our land, having given to our Nation generations of officers who have led our forces to victory in war after war in almost every quarter of the globe, and

Whereas, graduates of West Point have contributed to the development of our country by surveying and mapping its topography, coasts and resources as well as planning and supervising magnificent engineering projects for flood control, water power developments, harbor improvements, and majestic irrigation—transformations of barren lands into plentiful granaries, thereby contributing their share of the breathtaking march of American civilization, and

Whereas, in peace as well as in war graduates of West Point have upheld the inspiring motto of the Military Academy "Duty, Honor, Country," and

Whereas, our grateful Nation will proudly mark and observe on March 16, 1952 the Sesquicentennial of the establishment of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, New York, and

Whereas, the citizenry of Pennsylvania will partake in the appropriate observance of this inspiring anniversary; Now Therefore

Be It Resolved (if the House concurs) that the General Assembly of Pennsylvania respectfully recommend to His Excellency, John S. Fine, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to issue a proclamation in due time designating the day of March 16, 1952 as West Point Day in Pennsylvania and calling upon the citizenry of the Keystone State to hold appropriate patriotic exercises at public assemblies throughout the State in commemoration of the founding of the keystone of our military leadership.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

strued to relieve the depositor from the duty now imposed by law of exercising due diligence in the examination of such account or of any checks or drafts which may accompany it when rendered by the bank bank and trust company trust company savings bank private bank or national banking association and of immediate notification thereto upon discovery of any error therein nor from the legal consequences of neglect of such duty nor to effect the repeal of Section 911 of the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 624) known as the "Banking Code" which section was added thereto by the act approved the twenty-ninth day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 586) nor to prevent the application thereof to cases governed thereby

Section 5 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, last week this bill was put over in order to have the bill amended, and I don't see much improvement in the bill. This bill would allow, if passed, the banks to go into the business of taking second mortgages. Senate Bills Nos. 123, 124 and 125 are practically the same bills, and the three bills were put over last week and the only difference is that the word "Second" is dropped out and in place of that you have "Third Reading."

Now, Mr. President, we all know what happened when banks took second mortgages years ago, and some level-headed person came along and closed the banks, and put them in good shape and today the banks, in my opinion, are in good shape.

Mr. President, what happens when you place a second mortgage on a home is that you go to someone who has a lead in the bank. He has some inside lead, and he gets a fee or a bonus, whatever you call it, of $300, $400 or $500 for placing a second mortgage, and then you are in danger of losing your home altogether, because if you could not carry it with the first mortgage, you could not carry it with the second.

So, Mr. President, someone may say after I am through that I am all wrong, and you always hear some "palooka" get on the floor and tell you that you do not know what you are talking about, but these three bills are practically the same and I cannot understand why the banks come up here and hand a bunch of bills to someone to get them to present the bills. You never see the bankers here. They do not ask the Senators to place the bills; they send them to some special agent, or I would not know what you would call them. So, he introduces the bills and then we get into a lot of trouble over these bills that do not amount to a row of beans. They do not do any person any good, and as I said before, the banks are in good shape due to that great old fellow who closed them up and started from scratch.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I want to say that I am thoroughly sympathetic with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator McCreesh. A couple of weeks ago, we had a bill in here about rattle snakes, and I did not see any rattle snakes up here, so they must have sent the bill in by agent, too.

Mr. President, most of the objection the gentleman is making to the four bills relates to Senate Bill No. 122, which was just passed unanimously by the Senate.

Now, Mr. President, as to Senate Bill No. 123, which is sponsored by Senator McCreesh's dear friend and colleague from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart, all that Senate Bill No. 123 does is that it extends the provisions of the banking act so that the banks can make photostatic copies of bank statements, and at the end of a seven-year period destroy the originals and keep the photostats. Now, that is the only thing that is before the Senate at this time.

Mr. President, I am perfectly willing to approach Senate Bills No. 124 and 125 when we come to them on the Calendar. If the gentleman will confine his objections to the bill that is before the Senate, I certainly would be willing to discuss it with him. The only thing that is before the Senate at this time is Senate Bill No. 123, and the only thing that Senate Bill No. 123 does is deal specifically with the right of banks to make photostatic copies of bank statements. Now, Mr. President, I do not gather that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator McCreesh, is objecting to that. I think that he is anticipating the objection he has to Senate Bill No. 124 or Senate Bill No. 125, or else he is reminiscing about the objection he had to Senate Bill No. 122.

Mr. President, I suggest to him in all sincerity and, very frankly, with a little bit of timidity, because of the descriptive verbiage he used, I think the word was "palooka"—I have been called everything today but that—I would like to humbly suggest to the gentleman that Senate Bill No. 123 does nothing more than permit banks to make photostatic copies of bank statements, and I am reasonably assuming that he is not objecting to that.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I knew that would happen and, of course, I respect Senator Walker. He is a wonderful and he is a great leader, and I hope the Republican Party keeps him as a leader because he is wonderful, but that does not alter my opinion on Senate Bills No. 123, 124 or 125. It is just like Senator Walker says he wants more taxes; Senator Dent says that we do not need more taxes. So, I am going to go on with my own ideas. I say to you now, Mr. President, that we do not need a change in the banking business. The banks should stick to their own business.

Mr. President, some years ago we had a bill introduced here whereby the State, the State of Pennsylvania, was to go into the insurance business. Well, I was fearful at that time that they might go into my business, the garage business. So, I am opposed to this way of doing business. I would like to have the banks stick to their own business, and I think Senator Walker would do well to help me along and not propose these bills.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, after what he said about "Walker," I certainly am not going to object to a word the gentleman has said.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I would like to ask how the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, voted?

The PRESIDENT. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, vote?

Mr. WALKER. How am I recorded as voting, Mr. President?

The PRESIDENT. You are recorded as voting "aye."

Mr. WALKER. That is correct, Mr. President.

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, it has often been said that speeches do not change votes on the floor, but after the eloquent address by my colleague, I could not resist. I had to vote "no."

The PRESIDENT. The Chair agrees that we are all susceptible to various kinds of influence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 124, as follows:

An Act to further amend subsection A of Section 1006 of the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 624) entitled as amended "An act relating to the business of banking and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers and of banking corporations with or without fiduciary powers including the conversion of National banks into State banks and for the licensing of private bankers and employees' mutual banking associations defining the rights powers duties liabilities and immunities of such corporations of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business with or without fiduciary powers of private bankers and employees' mutual banking associations and of the officers directors trustees shareholders attorneys and other employees of all such corporations employees' mutual banking associations or private bankers or of affiliated corporations associations or persons restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation association or person and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts prothonotaries recorders of deeds and certain State departments commissions and officers imposing penalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts" by further providing for the powers and limitations upon powers of banks and bank and trust companies

Section 1 Subsection A of section 1006 of the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to;

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I would like to have the good Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Kephart, explain the bill and tell us something about it.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Kephart, agree to say something good about this bill?

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, this is a fairly complicated bill. I do not know whether Senator McCreesh will understand it after I explain it; I am not sure I understand it myself.

Mr. President, this bill only affects commercial banks, but does not apply to savings banks in any way at all. Section 1006 of the Banking Code, as presently written, limits the amount that a bank or bank and trust company—now called loans—can loan to any one corporation or person. This limitation is 10% of the unimpaired capital and surplus, and that is based upon letters of credit issued, acceptances of drafts, discounts or purchase of notes, bonds, bills of exchange, etc. This amendment would eliminate letters of credit until such time as the letters of credit are drawn upon in figuring up that unimpaired capital and surplus. You see, letters of credit as such are not actually loans of money, and do not become so until the drafts drawn under the letters are presented. Such drafts are accompanied by the title retaining instrument covering the commodities involved, and thus are converted into loans which are not themselves under the 10% limitation.

Mr. President, the national banking system recognizes this distinction between letters of credit and borrowings by exempting such letters of credit from the statutory limitation similar to ours. Also, the Federal Reserve Act places no such restriction regarding the amount of letters of credit which may be issued.

Mr. President, this amendment would wipe out a condition that now exists where the State banks are under a competitive disadvantage.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, the way that Senator Kephart explains the bill, he says that you get a letter of credit and that if you get three letters of credit, you might get your loan. Well, the way that I explained it is the correct way. If you have an inside lead and you give a bonus to some smart alec, you will get whatever you are after, and then you are forever ruined because many people today have lost their homes years ago due to second mortgages and third mortgages, and, as I said before, if you have to go to somebody and put them under an obligation of giving you a letter of credit, you might as well pay the bill for them because they are going to come after you.

Mr. President, there is no need for either of those three bills. I let one pass because I thought I would help the Senator out, but when it comes to three or four, and they are practically useless and they are going to ruin our banks, then I think it is time that some of the Senators on the other side, regardless of how they feel or whether they are scared to get up on the floor and tell the voters what they are for, I think they should get up and let us hear what they have got to say about those bills. This putting banks into the insurance business, garage business, into second mortgages, into everything, even to where they finance the oil burner in your home; you cannot move one way or the other that the bank has not got hold of you. It is through these bills of Senaor Kephart that one bank helps out the other, so that you might as well have a fight with all the banks in Philadelphia as one, because they are all merged together and they are all for the same purpose, and I would advise the people in Philadelphia and in the State of Pennsylvania to not place a second mortgage on their homes because if they do, they will surely lose it and do not ask for a letter of credit because the man who gives the letter of credit might as well pay the bill.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, the only thing I have to say in reply is that I regret that the bill does not have anything to do with what the Senator just had to say.

Mr. McCREESH. I knew that, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Section 908 Reserve Fund Against Deposits and Demand Liabilities

* * * * *

E In the case of savings banks the total of such reserve fund may and at least one-third thereof shall consist of gold bullion gold coin silver coin United States gold or silver certificates notes or bills issued by any national banking association or Federal reserve bank or any other form of currency of the United States kept on hand at the place of business of the institution unpledged unassigned and unhypothecated or an actual net balance of moneys on deposit subject to call without notice in any reserve agent as hereinbefore defined or bonds or other obligation of the United States or of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania [which shall mature in one year or less] Provided however That the investment in such bonds or other obligations of the United States or of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall not at any time exceed one-sixth of the total of the required reserve fund

The balance of such reserve fund may consist of bonds or other interest-bearing obligations of the United States the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any political subdivision thereof All bonds and other obligations while being carried in the reserve fund shall be computed at their current market value. They shall be the absolute property of the institution and shall not be pledged assigned or hypothecated in any manner whatsoever

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I think I would rather have the Majority Floor Leader tell us something about this one. The last Senator did not do such a good job.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. McCREESH. What does it mean, Senator Walker, about taking out a license to run a bank? What is that wording there?

Mr. WALKER. Where is that, Mr. President?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, the first page, on the bottom line.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, we are discussing Senate Bill No. 125. What page are you referring to, Senator?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 125, it says, private bankers and employees.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, what page and what line?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 125, first page, national banks and state banks to be licensed.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, that is the title of the bill that was passed back in 1933. This Senate Bill No. 125 repeats the title of the act of 1933, pamphlet law 624, and that is an act that relates to all types of banking, whether it be a National, State bank, or private bank or mutual banking association. The Act of 1933, the title of that is merely repeated in the title of this act, and then on page 2, the third line from the bottom of the title, indicates what this particular amendment does, and this amendment has at the end of it, the last three lines of the title, "by further providing for the powers and limitations on powers of corporations authorized to engage in the banking business."

Mr. McCREESH. Well, Senator Walker, are not the banks licensed now

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, oh, yes; this has nothing to do with their licensing, Senator McCreesh.

Mr. McCREESH. Senator Walker, are you going to form a new bunch of banks under this bill?

Mr. WALKER. No, Mr. President, this has nothing to do with the licensing of banks.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, that is the wording here.

Mr. WALKER. Yes, and that is in the Act of 1933. All this does is say that all the banks that are licensed in Pennsylvania today may take their government loans. They can have long-term loans, now, they do not have to strictly confine their investments to short-term government loans. It is merely to expedite the issuance of government securities throughout the banking system here in Pennsylvania. It will expedite the issuance and the prompt acceptance of governmental obligations by the various banks. It is done as a favor to the banks and to the Federal Government.

Mr. McCREESH. Senator Walker, I think you did pretty good. I am going to vote for the bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 533, as follows:

An Act concerning contributions among joint tortfeasors release of tortfeasors defining the rights and duties of contribution in such cases making uniform the law with reference thereto and repealing certain acts

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 For the purpose of this act the term "joint tortfeasors" means two or more persons jointly or severally liable in tort for the same injury to persons or property whether or not judgment has been recovered against all or some of them

Section 2 (1) The right of contribution exists among joint tortfeasors (2) A joint tortfeasor is not entitled to a money judgment for contribution until he has by payment discharged the common liability or has paid more than his pro rata share thereof (3) A joint tortfeasor who enters into a settlement with the injured person is not entitled to recover contribution from another joint tortfeasor whose liability to the injured person is not extinguished by the settlement

Section 3 The recovery of a judgment by the injured person against one joint tortfeasor does not discharge the other joint tortfeasors

Section 4 A release by the injured person of one joint tortfeasor whether before or after judgment does not discharge the other tortfeasors unless the release so provides but reduces the claim against the other tortfeasor in the amount of the consideration paid for the release or in any amount of the consideration paid for the release or in any amount or proportion by which the release provides that the total claim shall be reduced if greater than the consideration paid

Section 5 A release by the injured person of one joint tortfeasor does not relieve him from liability to make contribution to another tortfeasor unless the release is given before the right of the other tortfeasor to secure a money judgment for contribution has accrued and provides for a reduction to the extent of the pro rata share of the released tortfeasor of the injured person's damages recoverable against all the other tortfeasors

Section 6 This act does not impair any right of indemnity under existing law

Section 7 This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states that enact it

Section 8 This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Uniform Contribution Among Tortfeasors Act"

Section 9 The act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 1075) entitled "An act to provide for contribution among tortfeasors" is hereby repealed

All other acts and parts of acts are hereby repealed in so far as inconsistent with the provisions of this act be recommitted to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I do not want to take too much time at this time to discuss any particular bill or any particular action of the Senate, but this past week in attending to business of the Commonwealth, I had to be in New York. Sunday afternoon I drove back to Harrisburg from New York, and I entered Pennsylvania up at Easton. It is a peculiar thing when you are driving along, and get to thinking about some things and for some reason or other as I traveled through Northampton County, I thought of Senator Yosko and I thought of Pennsylvania, and then as I entered Lehigh County, I thought of Tilghman Freed and I thought of Pennsylvania, and then I came on down through into Lebanon and I thought of the two Senators that come from there, one an old friend, Graybill Diehm, and one a new friend, Senator Kessler. Then, I entered the County of Dauphin, and I thought of that old gentleman who at that moment was out in the hospital, a man who has had a rather rough road for the seventy-four years that the Lord has blessed him with. I dwelt upon that fact for a minute and I realized how rough the road must be with two good legs, let alone having one in a cast. I admired him a great deal, too, today when he came in here on a cane to carry out what he thought was his duty, and somehow or other you get to thinking about things and you wonder to yourself, there is good and bad in everyone, but I believe in the final analysis the good always overshadows and outweighs the bad. I have heard some mean things about Harve Taylor and no doubt when you get down to the fine points, some of them are true, and I have also heard some mighty fine things, and I am convinced that they are all true.

Mr. President, today we have taken an action in the Senate of Pennsylvania that again makes me think of Pennsylvania. It is an action determining that this Senate of Pennsylvania is composed of the Freed's, and the Yoskos, and the Walkers, and the Barrs, and the Chapmans, and the Woods and the McCreeses, and men in every walk of life. This was a serious action today, and one that may start a chain of occurrences, may bring misunderstandings, will give some men difficulties, but one thing that I know that it will not give, it will not give anybody the right to gloat, anybody the right to try to take credit, or anybody the right to take blame. It is the consensus of the Senate at this time that this bill ought to go back to committee. This Senate acted as the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, they say that when you get older you get a little mellow. Maybe I am getting mellow, because for the last six years I have tried upon every occasion to see to it that the Senate as a group, the Senate as a body, becomes a little higher in the estimation of the peoples of this Commonwealth. I think today that we can all say that in the minds of the people of the Commonwealth, the Senate is a little higher, and that all of us today in this Senate were thinking as I thought yesterday afternoon, of the rolling hills, the industrial valleys, the broad rivers and the people of Pennsylvania.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend William Hugh Fryer, offered the following prayer:

O God, Who art the only Lord of all kings and kingdoms, let Thy strong hand control the nations, and cause them to long for Thy love to rule on earth. Strengthen, we pray Thee, all who are striving after true brotherhood and working for righteousness and peace. Guide the hearts and minds of rulers and statesmen, that they may seek first Thy kingdom and the establishment of justice and freedom among all peoples, great and small. These things we ask in the Name of Him who served all mankind, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

HOUSE BILL No. 1221.

An Act providing for emergency first aid stations by making all fire houses in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with certain accommodations casualty stations Whereas, there exists in the world today a state of confusion The United Nations are engaged in a state of warfare with Korea there is unrest in Europe and there is a possibility that this condition may lead to world strife The uncertainty of what the future may hold gives concern for thought In the event that hydrogen or atomic bombs fell in these United States and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania this state being the leading industrial and war producing state a state of emergency would arise. There would not be sufficient available beds or facilities in all the hospitals combined and when other emergencies arise such as flood famine pestilence disease conflagration and riots there are times when hospital beds are filled to capacity and no other accommodations are available at the time of confusion and so realizing the seriousness of a dilemma.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 350, Printer's No. 78

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 568, as follows:

An Act to further amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (P. L. 129) entitled "An act to empower boroughs and cities to establish a police pension fund to take property in trust therefor and regulating and providing for the regulation of the same" by further prescribing for the management administration application and regulation of such fund in cities of the first class

Section 1 Section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (P. L. 129) entitled "An act to empower boroughs and cities to establish a police pension fund to take property in trust therefor and regulating and providing for the regulation of the same" as last amended by the act approved the second day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 2795) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted &c That the several cities of this Commonwealth incorporated by general or special laws shall establish by ordinance a police retirement fund to be maintained by an equal and proportionate monthly charge against each member of the police force which shall not exceed annually three and one-half per centum of the pay of such member and by annual appropriations made by the city [which fund] In cities of the first class the fund shall be under the direction of the Board of Directors of the Pension or Retirement Fund Association and the President of Council and three members of council appointed by the President acting as members ex officio of such board as provided for by the by-laws of the association In other cities the fund shall be under the direction of councils or committed to the direction of such officers of the city as may be designated by councils [and] Such fund shall except in cities of the first class be applied under such regulations as councils may by ordinance prescribe and in cities of the first class shall be applied by the aforesaid Board of Directors for the benefit of such members of the police force as shall receive honorable discharge therefrom by reason of age or disability and the families of such as may be injured or killed in the service but such retirement allowances as shall be made to those who are retired by reason of the disabilities or age shall be in conformity with a uniform scale

The annual appropriation made by the city each year shall be sufficient when added to the contributions made by members of the police force during such year and income from investments to pay in full the retirement allowances payable during such year

[Such] In cities of the first class the Board of Directors and in other cities the ordinance may prescribe a minimum period of continuous service not less than twenty years and a minimum age of fifty years after which members of the force may be retired from active duty and such members as are retired shall be subject to service from time to time as a police reserve until unfitted for such service when they may be finally discharged by reason of age or disability

Payments made under the provisions of this section shall not be a charge on any other fund in the treasury of the city or under its control save the police retirement fund herein provided for The basis of the apportionment of the retirement allowance shall be determined by the rate of the monthly pay of the member at the date of death honorable discharge or retirement and shall not in any case exceed in any year one-half the annual pay of such member computed at such monthly rate

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the House a former Member from Allegheny County, Honorable Norman H. Laughner.

INTERROGATION

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Majority Leader.

Mr. ANDREWS. I desire to propound a question to the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SMITH. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in view of the gathering uncertainties as to the future of the administration's fiscal program, is it proposed to continue deliberations of the Appropriations Committee, or will the Appropriations Committee hesitate in its decisions until the final decision as to the outlines of the fiscal program has been arrived at?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would imagine that the decision would be entirely up to the Appropriations Committee. I at this time do not know anything official that would make me change that statement.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in the event that there is an interruption in the progress of the administration's fiscal program would it not be wise for the Appropriations Committee to take note of the situation? Otherwise how can it deliberate until it understands the range of its deliberation?

Mr. SMITH. Well, certainly Mr. Speaker, it makes good horse sense to say that you cannot spend money that you do not have. If we arrive at the conclusion that we cannot get the money that is planned, I do not know how the Appropriations Committee or even John Doe as a citizen, can spend money that he does not have.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would it be the opinion of the Majority Leader that this House proceed to enact the legislation that it deems essential for the welfare of the Commonwealth, and then when we have done that, proceed to finance the sum needed?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, that has not been the policy in the past. I mean in the past we have passed our tax bills; we know what money we have, and then we try to meet our obligations in that manner. It would certainly be a little bit different to act on the procedure suggested by the Minority Leader.

Mr. ANDREWS. One further question. Would the Majority Leader be in a position as of this moment to assure the House that the administration's fiscal program will in fact be enacted as submitted?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I can only say that the House has enacted the administration's program. I do not know at this time officially what the Senate has done.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman.
